

Quality and Price---

Yes but don't forget tire service

The kind of a tire you get and the price you pay for it are two very important things—but don't forget Service.

Mounting and dismounting tires, changing them around. Inspecting them for cuts and other injuries. Checking wheel alignment. Removing rust from rims. Free air—these and other kinds of service we are always glad to render are of utmost importance and have a lot to do with the final performance and cost of your tires.

It's mighty nice to have a dependable place to go to when anything happens to your tires.

When you buy a Goodyear All-Weather or a Goodyear Pathfinder from us you've established a tire home for life.

Oliver Clarke, son of Dr. and Mrs. O. H. Clarke, and Miss Edna May Drake were married at the Methodist church Monday.

Dave Baker, of Lee, died at his home at eleven o'clock Monday night after a long illness. Funeral services were held Wednesday and interment was in the Lee cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brown, of McKinley, were Myrtle Point visitors Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. George Morehouse returned to their home in Orland, California, after visiting relatives in Myrtle Point several weeks.

Mrs. Fannie Krantz, of Covina, California, is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Barklow.

Mr. and Mrs. James Shaw and little daughter returned to their home in Vancouver after spending several weeks here. Mrs. Shaw helped care for her sister, Mrs. Chas. Butler.

Ernest Pearson, who has been ill the past month with typhoid, was able to return to school last week.

Notes From Fairview

From all appearances there is some one in or very near Fairview who has very taking ways. Louis Sonneland, who is in charge of road work in this district, reports a series of thefts, the last being within the past week. At first try the person or persons broke into the dynamite shed at the rock crusher as well as the tool shed near the crossroads. The locks were broken off and thrown away. On this first haul the thieves got two fifteen gallon drums of oil, which were partially filled, and all the gas that was in both places. The second attempt a few nights later resulted in the lock being broken from the door of the engine house and more oil being taken. Those concerned are almost positive that the thieves are well acquainted with the work carried on by them and so know the contents of the buildings. After one of these visits the car tracks were so plainly visible that the car can very readily be recognized. Also, workers were very familiar with the drums that were taken—in fact, the numbers are known. It would be well for those who have been making these visits to heed the proverbial "word to the wise," as their intrusions are far too numerous and the county court has decided to take drastic action.

Last Thursday the Ladies Community Club spent a very enjoyable afternoon with Mrs. C. A. Holverstott.

Mrs. B. A. Roberts made a business trip to Marshfield the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Norris spent Saturday morning in Coquille shopping. After returning home they found their memories had ceased to function properly, so in the evening another trip was made for the for-

The Boy Scouts of Fairview are progressing very rapidly. They are all working toward joining the ranks of first class scouts. Saturday evening a court of honor was scheduled at which E. L. Vinton and A. T. Morrish were to preside but they failed to appear. The scouts proceeded with their cooking test anyway. Sizzling bacon, popping eggs and sputtering potatoes filled the evening with due excitement. As calamities are rare things with this group of boys it did not take them long to be enjoying a good hot feed. Louis Sonneland, the troop's master, had only to look on and receive the finished product. The troop includes Sam Kornher, Clifford Norris, Fay Holverstott, Norman Berry, Curtis Holverstott and Harold Berry. Visitors were Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holverstott and son, Ben, and Mr. Berger.

Sunday visitors in the valley included Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Sanderlin, of Bandon.

School is progressing very nicely. The enrollment is down to eighteen this year but we are hoping it will climb before long. Improvements are being made on the school grounds, although at present everyone is so busy, work is lagging a bit. We are very proud of our wonderful school building and extend a hearty invitation to any who wish to visit us.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holverstott and sons, Fay and Ben, attended the opening services at the Pioneer Methodist church Sunday.

To The People

Having been honored with the nomination of the Republican party at the Primaries for the office of County Judge, I consequently aspire to be elected, and my greatest ambition and purpose, if elected, will be to fill the office with honor and trust; promising a conservative, economical, faithful, business administration.

I will have no special interests to serve nor pre-election promises to redeem.

The best service and material for the dollar, and a dollar's worth of value for every public dollar expended WILL BE MY MOTTO.

You are invited to investigate my record for honesty, integrity, sound business judgment and sincerity of purpose.

Your support of my candidacy is most earnestly and respectfully solicited.

D. F. (Dave) Thompson.
