

Temperance Contest

James A. Mullins, teacher of the seventh and eighth grades at Arago has informed the office of the county superintendent that in connection with the regular English work, his pupils will write Temperance essays and that the following pupils plan to enter their essays in the County Temperance Essay Contest: Ruth Keltner, Fern Knabe, Ethel Clement, Agnes Aasen, Henry Vetter, Clara Delsman, Beatrice Greene, Bernice Greene, Iola Robison, Anna Johnson, Verna Halter, Harold Fish and Thurman Paul.

Freda Schroeder in the name of the 5th and 6th grades, has also written that the following are making work books for the Temperance Contest: Lorraine Kirkpatrick, Anna Deardorff, Wallace Carl, Royce Paul, Freda Schroeder, Price Schroeder, Shirley Johnson, Ardis Halter, Lee Collier, Richard Delsman and Evelyn Doyle. Their teacher is Mrs. Elizabeth Bennett.

Arago School and Community

By Bobbette

The following young people of Arago are expected home for the Christmas holidays: Christine Vetter from Monmouth; Wallace Miller from O. A. C.; Edith Woodward from Monmouth; Ruth Woodward from U. of O.; Evelyn Woodward from Lostine, Ore.; Edwin, Claire and Perry Keltner from O. A. C.; and Francis Keltner from the U. of O.

Did you see the second issue of "The Bull Dog's Bark?" Dogs will show their breeding. There must be good blood back of this canine. Judging from its bark it is sired by the best blood of the best kennels of dogdom. Watch for the Christmas issue. Be sure and subscribe and encourage the staff to work until midnight again.

The Christmas program will be given Friday afternoon at one o'clock. The tree and program will be held in the gymnasium. Every room in the school has a private tree for the week preceding Christmas. Be sure and take a look at the various rooms and see if the Eighth and Seventh grades are so much better than the rest.

Miss Day spent last Sunday with her parents at Bandon.

Clarence Mullins is slowly recovering from a prolonged attack of the flu.

Lyle Paul has been out of High School for the last week nursing a bad cold.

Mrs. Alice Aasen is reported better but still weak from the flu. Agnes has returned to school.

Verna Halter lost several days of school on account of flu.

Three or four cases of flu are reported at the home of Keller and Johnson near the gravel pit.

Hazel Meyers was taken home from school last Friday sick. She had some fever and a headache. The Meyers family has been under quarantine for nearly a month for chicken-pox.

Mrs. Bennett will leave for Portland next Wednesday to attend the State Teachers' Association. She was chosen delegate to represent the teachers of Coos County.

Mr. and Mrs. Sevy will leave Saturday to visit their daughter and family at Sheridan, Ore. They will take in the State Teachers' Convention at Portland.

Several cases of flu are reported from Mr. Barnett's home.

Orvus Miller was out of High School several days last week on account of sickness.

Roberta Doyle substituted for Mrs. Root the greater part of last week. Miss Edith Woodward will take charge of Mrs. Root's room after the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Griffin was surprised with a fine present from her father in the form of a fine Lester piano. Mrs. Griffin has a bad case of poison oak but it doesn't prevent her from showing her appreciation for her father's gift. Listen as you go by. That's not the radio. It's Mrs. Griffin or Bud at the new piano.

Mr. Vetter has been trying out several makes of radio the last month. He wants the best when he buys. Henry thinks that Ford ought to make a radio. If he did the Chevrolet people would surely come out with a new fangled improvement.

Ruby Robison writes from Eastern Oregon saying that the cold there is very intense. Trucks freeze in the mud while waiting to unload a couple of tons of coal. Coos county is the "envy of the tropics." We ought to send the people of Eastern Oregon a television graph of our Coos County weather. How about the Dakotas and Minnesota? Or even California?

Mr. Delsman narrowly escaped death at the new mill recently. While temporarily assisting at the mill he was struck on the hip by a rolling log. It was a close call but did not prove serious. We understand he is about again.

Ray Barklow has finished a fine bookcase as an original project in wood-work. The wood-working class has just finished a new pump house for the pump and engine on Mr. Vetter's property.

Kenneth Carl spent Sunday in Arago last week. The Carls will spend their Christmas at home this year.

Mrs. Curtis Buried Sunday

Funeral services were conducted for Mrs. C. V. Curtis at the Schroeder-Gano chapel last Sunday at 2 p. m. by Rev. S. D. Walters. Interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

Born Hala B. Hopton, in Golden, Mo., June 21, 1901, and 27 years, five months and 25 days of age at the time of her death, she was married to C. V. Curtis in Eureka Springs, Ark., Jan. 1, 1917, and they have lived in Coquille since 1925.

Besides her husband, she is survived by five children—Clayton 10, Noel 8, Clara 6, Ralph 4 and Dale 2—her mother, Mrs. J. W. Rose, of this city, a sister, Beryl Hopton, and another sister, Mrs. C. E. Smith, both of Coquille.

Card of Thanks

We wish to extend our most sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for their many kind deeds and their rare sympathy during our recent bereavement.

Signed
Clarence V. Curtis and children.
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Rose.
Beryl Hopton.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Smith.
