Pioneer Missionary Society

The ladies of the Pioneer Church mission society met at the manse Thursday afternoon, January 2nd, for the annual business meeting. The reports submitted were very gratifying, showing a substantial and spiritual growth in every department. A large amount of local and missionary work has been accomplished and about $700 has been raised during the year for various objects. After the reading of reports and disposing of other business, officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Mrs. C. T. Skeels; vice president, Mrs. F. G. Leslie; rec. sec., Mrs. Chas. Oerding; cor. sec., Mrs. S. D. Walters; treas., Mrs. Chas. Hunt; local treas., Mrs. Wm. Irland; superintendent of social service, Mrs. J. W. McGuffin; supt. of local work, Mrs. Jas. Richmond; supt. of program, Mrs. Lyman Carrier; supt. of publicity, Mrs. R. B. Rogers; spiritual leader, Mrs. Robt. Bernhardt; agent for "The Voice," (missionary paper), Mrs. S. M. Nosler. After a social hour, refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Frank Leslie, B. C. Minard, Marshall Way, Robt. Bernhardt, Chas. Oerding, S. M. Nosler, J. W. McGuffin, Wm. Ireland, C. T. Skeels, James Richmond, S. D. Walters, Henry Ellis, W. S. Smith, L. H. Bolander, R. B. Rogers, Chas. Hunt, G. W. Wetzel, and Misses Ruby Minard and Marjory McGuffin. Mesdames Ireland, Minard and Richmond assisted Mrs. Walters in serving.

Electric Lights at Cunningham

During the Christmas holidays, the board of the Cunningham district made arrangements whereby electric lights were installed in the school building. This will, no doubt, prove of valuable assistance to the boys and girls of the school and will be a means of preventing numerous eye strains. There are many days in Coos county so dark that without artificial lighting, pupils cannot read without eye strain.

SOCIAL NOTES

Monday evening Mrs. M. J. Hartson was the delightful hostess to the En-Rapport bridge club with the following present: Mesdames H. S. Norton, H. C. Getz, John L. Aasen, W. V. Glaisyer, William Zosel, E. M. Kay and A. M. Fish.
