Respectfully submitted,

O. C. Sanford, City Treasurer

Resigns as U. of O. Regent

Judge J. W. Hamilton, of Roseburg, who has just tendered his resignation as a member of the board of regents of the University of Oregon, has ended a career of 28 years of faithful and productive service with this body. Glowing tributes paid to him by fellow members and others who know of his later work, cannot, of course, give him full justice, for he began his work long before any of these friends began to observe his activity in this line of public endeavor.

When Judge Hamilton became a member of the board of regents the University was lodged in but two or three buildings. Its faculty consisted of only a score or more professors. Its student body numbered only a few hundred. He has seen the institution grow from this to a university of 3200 students at Eugene and 225 more in Portland, with a faculty of more than 200. Its campus now has nearly 300 buildings and still there is not room enough for the demands made upon them.

Much of this growth has taken place while Judge Hamilton has been president of the board. As leader of this group of citizens who serve without wage, he has guided the university ably and well, and now as he retires he receives the warmest praise from his associates, and from hundreds of friends throughout the state who know him and love him.

It is men like Judge Hamilton who make Oregon the state that it is, men who are willing to serve the public without thought of recompense so that the commonwealth may be better, wiser and happier.
