Boys and Girls Both Lose

The Coquille High School basketball squad lost to North Bend last Friday evening here 16-7, after a fast and hard-fought game. The local team played very good basketball the first half and showed the makings of a smooth-working machine. Failure to break quick enough to carry through and a tendency to fumble showed rough spots which will wear off with practice. The worst fault Friday night was the fumbling. Those participating were Pulford, Ellingson, Sealey, Miller, Chard, Hill and Stevens.

The Coquille girls lost to the Riverton girls by a score of 8-4. Both teams had a pair of guards which reduced scoring to a minimum, but you have to praise the Riverton young ladies for the excellent team work they displayed.

Community Friendship Club

The Community Friendship Club met at the home of Mrs. Harry Varney last Friday afternoon. The club gave the city library $10. The club will again sponsor the 4-H Club girls No. 24, with Mrs. Belloni as leader. Mrs. Clinton drew the lucky number for the prize drawing. A delicious luncheon was served to Mesdames Joe. Varney, C. V. Smith, Harry Wise, M. T. Clinton, Fred Zwicker, John A. Martin, Geo. J. Bohrer, H. S. Cadman, Stonecypher and Misses Delores Belloni, Bertha Clinton, Reta and Melba Varney and hostess, Mrs. Varney and Mrs. S. B. Leeper. On February 1st the club will meet with Mrs. Martin. Mrs. Lillie Ann Raymond

With the passing of Mrs. Lillie Ann Raymond, of Lakeside, on Saturday, January 19, 1929, the life of another pioneer becomes but a memory.

Mrs. Raymond was born in Coos County February 25, 1876, and her life was spent here. She was the daughter of the late J. F. Dunham, pioneer logger, and niece of the late Captain H. W. Dunham. Two brothers, Captain Bob Dunham and Isreal Dunham, also preceded her beyond.

She was married thirty-three years ago at Coaledo to Edgar Raymond, who died three years ago.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Blanche Benson, of Lakeside, and a son, Jack Raymond, also of Lakeside; three sisters, Mrs. A. J. Mills, of Marshfield; Mrs. C. L. Lockwood, of Santa Rosa, Calif.; and Mrs. Desda Beusch, of San Diego, Calif.; and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Dunham, of Marshfield.

Funeral services were held at the Ellingson-Groskopf chapel on Tuesday morning and later at the cemetery in Templeton, where the body was interred besides that of her husband. At the latter place more than 200 friends gathered with many beautiful floral offerings to do honor to the departed.

Mrs. Raymond was one whose presence will be missed by her little corner of the world. Genial and great-hearted, always ready to help anyone in distress or need, there are many whose lives have been a little easier and whose burdens have been lighter because of her.

In the latter part of her life she gave herself completely to God and her passing, at the close of months and years of suffering, was, as a Christian's should be, not death but victory.

She went out of her house, and she shut the door,
And that was all.
Such a radiant soul could dwell no more
In that broken wall.

And her shining palace not made with hands
Was finished that day
In tearless, in deathless, in fadeless lands,
So she moved away

To the home not even our faith can see.
But why be sad?
The Lord of her spirit hath made her free:

Be glad, friends, glad!
—Frances Holmstrom.

They expect to advertise for bids for its construction soon. The estimated cost is $10,000 and the district will issue bonds to pay for it.

The Arago Bull Dogs met the Bridge aggregation last Saturday night. Score 41 to 17 in favor of Arago. The girls' game was equally interesting to the Bridge rooters. The score for their game was 37 to 7 in favor of Bridge.

The score for the Powers-Arago game last Wednesday was 22 to 23 in favor of Powers. The report last week was slightly twisted but not intentionally so.

Last Wednesday night about sixty or sixty-five Arago neighbors were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder (Clarence). The gathering was in honor of Ernest Ferrari, brother of Mrs. Milani. Mr. Ferrari favored the large assembly with a concert on the piano-accordion, an instrument of which he is a master. Cards and games kept everybody excited until twelve o'clock.

Wm. Stauff and Brother parted with forty acres of their fine dairy ranch this week. The lucky purchasers were Walt Farrier and David Root. Each of these men purchased twenty acres at a cash price of one hundred dollars per acre. This is a wonderful land. We congratulate the buyers. Whoever wants it at an advanced price will find both of these men hard to "dicker" with. However, Mr. Stauff has another twenty that looks awfully good to us.

Rev. Sanford MacDonald, Ph. D., D. D., preacher and lecturer and president of Philomath College, will speak to the Arago community next Sunday morning. The head of the public speaking department of the University of California says: "A superb delivery and a commanding personality." Be sure and hear this man.

The speaker for next Sunday evening is a man direct from the Near East. Be sure and hear him.

The Moores, Burtiseses and Sevys were practicing on Friday, Jan. 18, on "Slippery Lizzie," a new card game played with the Rock Deck. Mr. Sevy won the most points but lost the game. The fault of the scoring.

Mr. and Mrs. Sevy had the sad news this week that their daughter's home was destroyed by fire. Mrs. C. M. Howard was here on a visit at Thanksgiving time. Many will remember her singing. The particulars regarding the fire have not been received.

The Arago Seniors will spend Friday, Feb. 1st, at Coquille in conference with Dean Jewell and other vocational guidance specialists from Oregon State College.

About six of the Arago students are entering the Oratorical contest sponsored by the Morning Oregonian. A full account of this contest is published in the Arago Bull Dog's Bark this week.

Orin Michael, high school student of Olympia, Wash., was visiting the Lewis Aasen family and other friends in this community this week.

Grace and her baby are back! Everybody is glad they are improving so rapidly.

Wm. Lett and family, Bridge, were visiting the Carl family this last Sunday.

Mr. Beck, principal at Flagstaff, spent a few hours with his Arago friends this last Sunday.

Caleb Robinson and Naoma made a business and pleasure trip to Salem this week end. They brought back a load of seed for the Petersen brothers.

The following citizens of Arago have been attending the agricultural night-schools: Clarence Schroeder, Geo. Hampton, Olaf Aasen, Torrell Woodward, Joe Milani and Anthony Abel. These men are all progressive dairymen.

A community play caste was organized this week. The object of this organization of amateur stars is to raise money to help the board finish the work at the teacherage. The play will be put on some time in February or March. The names of the cast will be all the play.

Theodore Dornath was slightly hurt in an auto accident up Hall's Creek when driving his father's Ford truck.

Mrs. P. Hamock and Mrs. C. Barklow visited at the L. Aasen home last Tuesday.

Pierce Peterson recently purchased a new Chevrolet truck.

Richard Delsman is suffering a slight attack of the flu.

Mr. Harmon leaves for camp in a few days.

Burt Paul, Jessie and Ithamar Robinson killed a coyote last Sunday.

The seventh grade will entertain the eighth grade Friday night of this week. The eighth grade beat them in a spelling contest.

We are sorry to report the illness of Ray Barklow and Melden Carl. Both are out of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson, of Sitkum, were visiting friends in Arago Saturday and Sunday last. They remained over night with the Keller family. Flossie Wilson, of Sitkum, taught in this district a few years ago.

Will Open New Establishment

Jack L. Darrow, of Wenatche, Wash., and Wilfred A. King, whose home is in North Attleboro, Mass., left Thursday morning for Portland after spending a couple of weeks here and at the Bay.

They have taken a lease on one room of the concrete building J. W. Powell is going to have erected on the south side of Front street and will open there a cleaning and dyeing establishment. It is expected the room will be ready for occupancy about the first of March.

Their trip to Portland is for the purpose of purchasing the needed equipment.

Neighbors Woodcraft Initiate

At a well attended meeting of The Neighbors of Woodcraft, in the W. O. W. hall last Monday evening, we had the pleasure of welcoming our new members, Mr. John Rust.

It was decided to have a St. Valentine's party Thursday, February 14th, and a hearty invitation is extended to all Woodmen of the World. A fine will be charged to those who do not dress to represent the Valentine Spirit.—Press Cor.
