Those attending were Mesdames Keith Leslie, Carl A. Rietman, George W. Taylor Jr., P. M. Drake, Iris Elrod, George Chaney, C. W. Kline and J. Arthur Berg.

The Senior "500" club met at the Greenough home on the Marshfield highway Tuesday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Greenough and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lorenz entertained together. Bouquets of early daffodils were beautiful in the rooms, which also presented an atmosphere of springtime. After the pleasant hours in cards Mrs. Hartson and Mr. Folsom were each presented a gift for holding high score. Those enjoying the evening were Messrs. and Mesdames H. E. Hess, J. E. Paulson, Hal W. Pierce, Charles Baer, B. Folsom, Mrs. C. C. Evland, Mrs. M. J. Hartson, Mrs. George Lorenz, Dr. W. V. Glaisyer and the hosts.

At the home of Mrs. A. W. Chapin Jr. Tuesday evening the "Entre Nous" club members and additional guests enjoyed an evening of bridge. The high score prize went to Mrs. Estes, a member of the club, and guest prize to Mrs. Litzberger. Those present were Mesdames E. L. Vinton, E. A. Walker, Donald Estes, Otto Davis, Julius Ruble, Roy Watson, Kenneth Kistner, Harvey S. Hale, Georgianna Van Ness, R. F. Miller, Walter Litzberger and Harry Oerding.

"The Merry Makers" sewing club recently met at the home of Mrs. Bert Davis and organized with Mrs. Ella Dyer, president, and Mrs. J. D. Bell, secretary. This week the members met with Mrs. Bell on North Hall street for their social afternoon and sewing. A dainty lunch was served during the late afternoon hours to Mesdames George Burr, Ira Chase, George Goodman, Eva Worthington, Ella Dyer, Albert Burch, Bert Davis and hostess, Mrs. Bell. The members will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Burch.

Mrs. Harvey S. Hale, Miss Maxine Gentry and Miss Patricia Buckley were very delightful hostesses over last week end to a series of three bridge parties for former students of Oregon State Agricultural College and to a number of other friends at the home of Mrs. Hale on South Elliott street. The college colors, orange and black, were used in decorations, also bouquets of beautiful marigolds added to the school colors. Friday evening the guest list included Misses Helen Roseman, Idyle Wilde, Georgianna Johnson, Elizabeth Luttrell, Messrs. William Oerding, Bob Johnson, Harry Godard, Albert Oerding, Wm. Barrow and Wallace Dement, of Myrtle Point, Frank Bryan, of North Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Watson and Mr. Hale. For the evening of bridge first and second high scores went to Mrs. Watson and Miss Wilde. Saturday afternoon guests were Mesdames Henry Hess, Ambrose Chapin Jr., Glenna Wilbur, Julius Ruble, Georgianna Van Ness, Misses Vera Booth, Idyle Wilde, Hazel Adams, Mary Druley, Lavinia Voelker, Elsie Strauss, Esther Casto, Beatrice Peters, Helen Roseman, Marjorie Grant and Alice Pressnall. For the afternoon of bridge high score prize went to Miss Voelker and consolation to Miss Adams.

Again in the evening of the same day the hostesses entertained guests for six table of bridge in which Mr. and Mrs. Buckingham were honored by holding high score, while Mr. and Mrs. Hackett were low. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames C. C. Archibald, O. K. Beals, Wade Arstall, W. V. Ferguson, Roy Watson, Otto Davis, Harlan Buckingham, Mrs. Georgianna Van Ness and Mr. Hale. Out of town guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Rupert Coffman, J. F. Hackett and Frank Bryan, all of North Bend.

Today Mrs. R. F. Miller was the luncheon hostess to the Friday sewing club at her home on South Henry street. Covers were laid for Mesdames T. B. Currie, Fred McNelly, A. B. Collier, Hal W. Pierce, G. Earl Low, A. O. Walker, James Brady and the hostess, Mrs. Miller.

A No-host affair was enjoyed Saturday evening at the Myrtle Lodge by a number of Coquille people. Following the repast, dancing was the entertainment during the evening hours. Those who motored out were Messrs. and Mesdames H. E. Hess, J. Arthur Berg, G. Earl Low, George Chaney, C. D. Walker, A. B. Collier, Hal W. Pierce, C. W. Kline and Dr. W. V. Glaisyer.

At her home on the Marshfield highway Mrs. Maggie Simmons entertained the Laf-a-lot club very delightfully yesterday afternoon. The ladies spent the enjoyable hours in sewing, which was followed by refreshments. Those present were Mesdames B. B. Sanders, Jack Arnold, Ed Oetlefsen, Joe Neilsen, Pete Jacobsen, Charles Kime, W. E. Cross, Judith Collier, Dave F. Thompson, E. A. Wimer, Ralph Lucas, Misses Eva Sherwood and Lodena Cross. The next club gathering will be at Mrs. Sanders' home on the Fishtrap road.

Mrs. George Swinney entertained the twelve boys in her Sunday school class of the Church of Christ Monday with a social evening which she holds regularly for them, the first Monday of each month at the church parlors. Games furnished ample amusement until Mrs. Swinney served refreshments of cake and punch. The boys were Francis Arrell, Donald Stevens, James Schaefer, Donald Graham, Gilbert Gaslin, Lloyd Graham, Junior Bailey, Alton Schroeder, Cecil McQuigg, Donald McClellan, Marcus Shelley and Orvil Clinton.

Mrs. J. A. Lamb and Mrs. Nels Osmundson who entertained together at the Lamb residence yesterday afternoon, were charming hostesses to the Just-a-mere club and a few other guests at a one o'clock luncheon. The hostesses used decorations in keeping with St. Patrick's Day, centering the table was a lovely bouquet of daffodils and tall green tapers also graced the beautifully appointed table. After the delicious course repast sewing was enjoyed. Covers were laid for Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, Paul Van Scoy, George Lorenz, Sarah Wickham, Frank L. Greenough, Edward Lorenz, Bert Folsom, H. A. Young, Tracy Leach and hostesses.

Their 32nd Anniversary

A surprise party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gardner Saturday evening, March second. The evening was pleasantly spent in games and a mock wedding ceremony was held in honor of their thirty-second wedding anniversary. A beautiful floor lamp was presented to them by their many friends present.

A lovely luncheon was served the following: Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Bell, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ruble and daughter, Tessie; Mr. and Mrs. B. Stewart, Mrs. E. Fitzhenry and son, Billie King; Mr. and Mrs. E. L.
