Coos Bay Lumber Co. Announces 10% Wage Increase

A 10 per cent increase in the wages of all its employees in logging camps was announced by the Coos Bay Lumber Co. last Monday, the new schedule going into effect that day. Lions Club Yesterday

Chas. Childs, of Albany and Grant Corby, city attorneys, were guests at the Lions Club luncheon yesterday noon. The latter had been invited by Dr. J. B. Gillis, whose duty it was to furnish the day's entertainment, and he spoke principally on city affairs. He also commended the club's efforts to secure a hospital for Coquille.

Dr. Gillis spoke of the urgent need for a general hospital at this place and pointed out that the industrial plants would be compelled to arrange for injured employees elsewhere unless so greatly needed an institution was secured. The Lions are still working on the project.

Delegates chosen to the state Lions convention, to be held in Tillamook, May 17-18, were N. C. Kelley, J. L. Stevens, F. B. Osmond and Lyman Carrier. The alternates are S. M. Nosler, J. E. Norton, Lafe Compton and J. S. Erwin.

Attention was called to the fine which will attach to all Lions who fail to attend, with their ladies, the dinner at the Pioneer church next Monday evening, and the "Four Sons" picture, sponsored by the Woman's Club at the theatre afterward.

Was Not the J. E. Paulson's

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Paulson returned last Friday evening from Superior, Wis., where they went to attend the funeral of Mrs. Paulson's mother. They were accompanied home from Eugene by their daughter, Miss Maxine, who spent the week-end at home. The cyclone which occurred near Superior while they were there, in which a Mr. and Mrs. John Paulson were fatally injured, did not touch Superior, but the report caused uneasiness here until a wire from Mr. Paulson appraised his children of their safety. The injured couple were not relatives of the local residents.

Send Your Cleaning
to a Cleaning Plant for satisfaction

The art of cleaning is a very highly specialized profession based on a multitude of things which must be known to produce satisfactory work. Every cleaner is not a cleaner merely because he presents his card and solicits your work.

Your duty to yourself is to know that he maintains an actual plant and if the plant is one properly equipped to do the work you entrust to him.

Your attorney will explain to you a law covering the Bailees in Trust which means that when he accepts your garments, you expect them to be returned in finished and acceptable condition and if they are injured and spoiled that responsibility must be assumed.

A real plant does the work under one management and assumes full responsibility, far as they are able in each instance and should disputes arise, an adjustment will promptly be made, and the advice that should be accepted is, KNOW YOUR CLEANER.
