Riverton Girls Good at Track

The Riverton high school girls' track team defeated the Port Orford girls' team in a joint meet with the boys' teams last Saturday, at Port Orford. The final score was 33 1/2 to 15 1/2.

The Riverton team consisted of seven girls, all but two of which made points enough to earn their letters. The events and winners were as follows:

Hundred yard dash—First, Grace Kight, Riverton; Second, M. Snyder, Port Orford; Third, Doris Williams, Riverton.

High Jump—First, Iva Ward, Riverton, four feet four; Second, M. Tichenor, Port Orford, four feet three; Third, Ardeth Smith, Riverton, four feet three; Second, M. Johnson, Port Orford, four feet three.

Baseball Throw—First, V. Anderson, Port Orford, 176 1/4 feet; Second, Edith Philpott, Riverton, 165 1/4 feet; Third, Doris Williams, Riverton, 167.8

feet.

Fifty Yard Dash—First, M. Snyder, Port Orford; Second, Grace Kight, Riverton; Third, Doris Williams, Riverton.

Broad Jump—First, Iva Ward, Riverton, 13 ft., 4 1/4 inches; Second, Ardeth Smith, Riverton, 12 ft., 3 1/4 inches; Third, Veva Anderson, Port Orford, 12 ft., 3 inches.

Relay—Ardeth Smith, Iva Ward, Maxine Rogers, Doris Williams.

A very nice lunch was served by the members of the Port Orford community to the members of both teams and the officials of the meet.
