J. A. Berg Chosen Secretary

J. Arthur Berg, of this city, was chosen by the Coos County Bar Association Wednesday as secretary to succeed his former partner, G. Russell Morgan.

The association also adopted an amendment to its constitution to provide for the selection of officers to fill vacancies.

A committee, consisting of Ben Fisher, W. U. Douglas and J. J. Stanley was named to make arrangements for the county association to affiliate with the State Bar Association.

J. B. Bedfordfield, president of the association, presided at the meeting, held in the law library at the court house.

The Oregon Farmer can now be secured in connection with the Sentinel for 25 cents a year; 25 copies a year.

Cutting Affray Monday

Thos. O'Brien, tent man with the Toby Nord show, paid a $75 fine in Justice Stanley's court Wednesday, after pleading guilty to an assault and battery charge. His offense was cutting the arm of Roscoe McKee to the bone with a pocket knife.

O'Brien had staked McKee to a meal at Roseburg Sunday evening and given the latter permission to ride over here Monday morning. McKee was working on the lot and mistook O'Brien's bawling out as directed at him. He picked up a stake and started for O'Brien, and the latter used his knife.

McKee is a former inmate of the state's institution for the feeble-minded, and no one knows how he happens to be out.

Toby Players Please Lions

Jim Erwin, who provided the entertainment at the Lions Club luncheon yesterday noon, was most heartily commended by the members for the class of entertainment provided. He prevailed on five musicians from Toby Nord's Comedians, who are showing in Coquille this week, to be present. With Miss Helen C. Wood, pianist and musical director, Misses Marcia Morris, Dorothy Randall and Mary Alice Arnold, singers, and the latter also a reader, and Raymond Jacobs, left-handed violinist, the quintet gave a most pleasurable half hour of feature numbers.

Miss Arnold's interpretation of the pair whose accomplishment was "spitting, both in and out the window," brought down the house. They are a clever bunch of artists.

Other guests were C. G. Caughell, C. E. Schroeder, of the Bandon den, and Ray Endicott, Myrtle Point Lion.

Nominations for the coming year's officers were presented, but further nominations may yet be made from the floor. Those whose names were presented yesterday were:

For president—Frank Osmond, Wm. Zosel.

For first vice president—C. C. Archibald, J. E. Norton.

For second vice president—W. V. Ferguson, J. L. Smith.

For third vice president—Dr. J. B. Gillis, C. C. Williams.

For secretary-treasurer—Ned C. Kelley.

For tail twister—R. A. Jeub.

For Lion Tamer—H. C. Gant.

For director—D. F. Thompson, H. A. Young, J. L. Stevens.

The annual election will be held June 13. Next Friday and Saturday the state Lions convention will be held in Tillamook, and the three dens of this county—Myrtle Point, Bandon and Coquille—met at Bandon last evening to decide what costume should be worn and what stunt should be presented there by the Coos county delegates.

Filipino Songs in Concert

Sixteen Filipino folk songs have been gathered and prepared for orchestra by Dr. Alexander Lippoy, a prominent musician of Manila. They were played recently by the augmented Philippine Constabulary band at Manila, and met with such enthusiastic approval that they may be introduced into America and Europe. Doctor Lippoy, who is thirty-four years old, gathered his material by visiting the Filipinos in all parts of the island and has included the songs of the Moros, the Igorrotes, the Bagobos and other tribes. In one number he introduced native instruments, including the gabangs and gongs of the Moros and Bagobos and the devil-sticks of the hillmen.

High Hat Crosses Seine

The left bank of the Seine is to have its Champs Elysees, writes the correspondent of the Christian Science Monitor. This is the name given to the park which is being completed on the Champ-de-Mars. A few years ago this corner of Paris was a dreary waste. Then fine houses and avenues were erected. The central part of the ground remained rather desolate, but gradually there has been a transformation. Gardens have been laid out and building plots have been sold.

It is hoped that during the year the work will be finished, and from the Trocadero to the Ecole Militaire there will be a pleasant thoroughfare which will truly deserve the name of "Champs Elysees of the Left Bank."

Monkey Jazz Leader Elusive

Franko, the monkey leader of a jazz band, is still missing since his escape with others from the Underground station of London, and a reward of $250 has been offered for his return. Franko was valuable as a performer, and as a leader of the other simians. "Since he has been gone the monkeys are all out of hand—obstinate and sulky," his trainer said. "Whatever he did they would do; whatever pleased him, they were content with. Monkeys and men, they're both alike in this. Some fellows are born to lead, some to follow."
