SOCIAL NOTES

The St. James Guild met at the Parish House Wednesday afternoon for a business meeting. This was the last meeting until September 4th. Mrs. Evland and Mrs. Folsom served the members present: Mesdames Eubanks, Wm. Mansell, Woodyard, Sherwood, Hazard, Taylor, Folsom, Evland, Lyons, Watson, Owen, Barton and visitors, Mesdames Wm. Perry, Treadgold, Atkinson, Alpine, Hermanson, Miss Delia Sherwood and Miss Lucile Lore.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred True, of Broad-bent, entertained guests Tuesday evening at their home for the pleasure of Mrs. Annie Knowlton and Mrs. True's sister, Mrs. Owen Knowlton, who have been visiting their many friends in this vicinity. Both these ladies are leaving today for their home in Oakland, California. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Leslie, Mr. and Mrs. P. O. Lund and daughters, Billy and Helen, of Myrtle Point.

At the home of Mrs. Bert Davis, the ladies belonging to the Merry Makers Club met for their social afternoon and sewing. Those attending were Mesdames J. D. Bell, M. Morrot and daughter, Betty Jean, George Goodman, Ira Chase, and Ella Dyer. Next Wednesday the ladies will meet with Mrs. Goodman.

Mrs. A. M. Fish and Mrs. Earl Nosler entertained jointly at the home of Mrs. Fish on South Beach street both Wednesday and Thursday afternoon with one o'clock luncheons and Bridge following. The rooms were attractive and colorful with bouquets of roses and marigolds. Those invited were Mesdames Tracy Leach, Wm. Zosel, H. C. Getz, Fred Hudson, Nels Osmundson, T. B. Currie, W. V. Glaisyer, Roy Neal, Bert Kay, F. L. Davis, Jack Lefevre, Geo. Johnson, Wm. Gilbert, John Aasen, C. A. Riet-man, Ray Miller, G. Earl Low, A. O. Walker, E. A. Walker, Wm. Mansell, Lefe Compton, James Brady, H. S. Norton, Harry Oerding, John Belloni, Ed McKeown, A. B. Collier, E. A. Kay and Mrs. Albert Panter, of Bandon.

Members of the Senior "500" club enjoyed a no-host dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Folsom Tuesday evening. Sweet Peas were used in decorating the tables and rooms. For the evening play the high score prizes went to Mrs. Pierce and Mr. Caney. Those partaking in the affair were Messrs. and Mesdames H. E. Hess, L. H. Hazard, Hal W. Pierce, J. E. Paulson, Frank L. Greenough, A. J. Sherwood, C. C. Evland, Edw. Lorenz, T. B. Currie, George Chaney, Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Glaisyer and Bert Folsom.

The Study Club members enjoyed one o'clock luncheon which was followed by their study course Monday at the home of Mrs. C. W. Kline on East Second street. Yellow California poppies were beautiful and colorful as decorations in the rooms and on the small tables used in serving. Through the summer months the ladies will meet only once a month. Those attending were Mesdames P. M. Drake, C. A. Rietman, George Chaney, J. Arthur Berg, George Taylor, Hale B. Eubanks and C. D. Walker.

Today Mrs. R. B. Collier is the luncheon hostess to the Friday sewing club at her home on the Myrtle Point road. Centering the table was a large bouquet of choice sweet peas. Covers were laid for Mesdames James Brady, A. O. Walker, T. B. Currie, R. F. Miller, Fred McNelly, G. Earl Low, Roy Neal, Hal Pierce and Mrs. H. A. Wells, of Marshfield.

Tuesday evening Mrs. Julius Ruble was hostess to the Entre Nous club at her home on East Second street. Mrs. Ruble had the living room prettily decorated with rosebuds. The high score prizes went to Mrs. Estes and Mrs. C. D. Walker. Extra guests for the evening were Mesdames C. D. Walker, E. A. Johnson, P. M. Drake and members were Mesdames Donald Estes, Roy Watson, Walter Litzenger, Kenneth Kistner and Otto Davis.

Mrs. E. M. Wilson, who was assisted by her sister, Miss Grace Cox, of Marshfield, entertained Thursday afternoon, June 6th, for her daughter, Elois, in honor of her eleventh birthday. The table was attractively decorated in a pink and pale green color scheme, over the center of which was a large paper rose with streamers

Screen Grid ATWATER KENT

ALL-ELECTRIC RADIO

Important Announcement to Radio Fans in Coquille:

I am now the authorized Atwater Kent dealer in Coquille and am therefore the only one who can offer you the NEW SCREEN-GRID ATWATER KENT RADIO.

Remember this and don't be fooled by buying an old model set because the new screen grid Atwater Kent is so far ahead of the old style set that there isn't any comparison. You'll know when you hear this new set that it is the greatest achievement in radio since the house current set.

FRED'S RADIO SHOP
by Fred A. Wimer.

Outstanding Features of this New Atwater Kent

1. Quietness of Operation.
2. Beauty of Design.
3. New Illuminated Dial.
4. New Tone Quality.
5. Greater Selectivity.
6. Greater Power.
7. Greater Range.
8. Less Static (due to new volume control)
9. Greater Operating Satisfaction.
10. Lower Operating Costs.

NOTE:—It is significant to note that in reality the Model 55 Atwater Kent is not a seven tube receiver (counting rectifying tube) but the equivalent of a ten tube receiver due to the tremendous selectivity and amplification obtained by the use of screen grid tubes.

See it and hear it before you buy.
