

LIBERTY THEATRE

Sunday and Monday, Dec. 15 and 16

Joseph Schildkraut and Louise Dresser in
"A Ship Comes In"

A gripping drama, human to the core, packed with pathos and sprinkled with comedy. Story of a family of immigrants who come to America and give their boy to the cause of their adopted country. Parental love, patriotism for a new country, the struggle of an immigrant to achieve citizenship are all finely interwoven into the story.

Matinee Sunday at 2:00 P. M. At Night 7:00 and 9:00
 Adm. 35c; Child 10c

Tuesday and Wednesday—Charles Hutchison in "HIDDEN ACES," a thrilling mystery of Scotland Yard. Also Chapter No. 12 of "TARZAN THE MIGHTY."

Thursday—Ladies Golden Pheasant China Nite. Lois Moran and Nick Stewart in "JOY STREET," paved with good intentions, puts the whoop in WHOOPEE!

Friday and Saturday—Double Feature Nights, Ted Wells in "THE BORDER WILDCAT." Red-blooded action for Red-blooded People. Also Florence Vidor in "THE MAGNIFICENT FLIRT," presenting a jazzy mother and her ingenue daughter.

Each picture is backed with an organ score by Miss Lucile Lore that makes them talk for themselves.

Girl Reservé Notes

At the regular monthly meeting of the executive committee of the eight grade group of the Girl Reserve a constitution was adopted and the name of "Early Birds" chosen. Their colors are Nile green and silver gray. For a motto they chose, "The early bird catches the worm." The Girl Reserve groups presented three Thanksgiving baskets. At the regular meeting of the club Thursday the constitution, colors and name were adopted. A Christmas party was discussed but no definite action was taken.
