

LIBERTY THEATRE

Sunday and Monday, Jan. 19 and 20
Owen Davis' Stage Sensation

"Tonight at Twelve"

With Madge Bellamy, Hallam Cooley, Margaret Livingston, Robert Ellis, Vera Reynolds, George Lewis, Norman Trevor. It's a chock full of the modern ideas of "smart" society. It's sophisticated entertainment wonderfully presented. It's the story of a jealous wife whose dramatic announcement uncovered more scandal than even she believed existed. By all means—SEE IT!

Matinee Sunday 2:00 P. M. Adms. 35c, Child 10c
Tues. & Wed., Tom Tyler and Frankie Darro in "IDAHO RED," a superb and hair-raising mixture of virility and lawlessness on an Idaho Ranch.

Thurs., Ladies' Golden Pheasant China Nite, Leatrice Joy in "THE BLUE DANUBE," an intensely human, colorful story of love, intrigue and revenge. Also Charles Chaplin in "A DOG'S LIFE." Charlie is back again in his Comedy of Comedies.

Fri. & Sat., Double Feature Nights, Reginald Denny in "ONE HYSTERICAL NIGHT," a speedy and clever comedy of mixed identities that will keep you howling with delight. Also Buffalo Bill, Jr., in "THE VALLEY OF HAUNTED MEN." Watch him ride into trouble and fight his way out.

Silent Pictures every night with a beautiful organ score by Miss Lucile Lore

About Sound Equipment Coming

Over thirty-eight hundred theatres in America and theatres in twenty foreign countries are equipped with Western Electric Sound System which is coming to the Liberty Theatre February 16th for the initial opening.

Coquille is rather small at this time to justify the installation of Western Electric Sound System, owing to its great expense, but the management of the Liberty has faith in the community and believes its patrons are entitled to the best; for the enjoyment of talking pictures depends upon their correct reproduction. To assure you of the highest degree in Sound Picture entertainment we have gone to the outstanding authority for our theatre equipment.

You can count on hearing the BEST SOUND on Western Electric Sound System, The Voice of Action.

Oldtime Fiddler's Contest

Tuesday and Wednesday

Special added attraction to the regular Picture Program The Management of the Liberty Theatre has made arrangements to have all the Oldtime Fiddlers contest for cash prizes, each playing his own selection of Oldtime tunes in his own style. It is going to be a lot of fun and a hot time. Some of the best in the County have promised to be on hand. You will see and hear fiddles valued at $50.00 to $5000.00, rare, mellow-toned ones, several hundred years old. It's an event you can't afford to miss. Contest open to all Oldtime Fiddlers. The admission is 40c, Child 10c.

SOCIAL NOTES

Wednesday afternoon the Women's Guild of the St. James Episcopal church met for their weekly meeting. Mrs. Wm. Mansell and Mrs. R. C. Schott served refreshments in the late afternoon to Mesdames Ert Polson, C. C. Evland, L. H. Hazard, A. J. Sherwood, G. Hermansen, Sarah Wickham, Nels Osmundson, C. J. Fuhrman, James Watson, J. B. Gillis, E. A. Walker, J. S. Barton, A. W. Chapin Sr., and Rev. and Mrs. Hale B. Eubanks.

Mrs. Levi Wilson was a delightful luncheon hostess at 1:30 o'clock at her home on Spurgeon Hill Wednesday afternoon. The living room was attractively decorated with pussy willows and greens for the occasion. After the luncheon, two tables of Bridge were played, honors going to Mrs. Houck and Mrs. Staninger. Those invited were Mesdames Lowell Simpson, Kenneth Staninger, Lawrence Houck, Carl L. Knitter, Harold Gould, A. O. Walker, C. D. Walker and John Holman. Mrs. A. O. Walker assisted in the serving.

Tuesday evening the Senior "500" club were pleasantly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Hal W. Pierce at their home on South Coulter street. Mr. Barton and Mrs. Glaisyer each received a gift for high score during the evening's play. Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Frank L. Greenough, Edward W. Lorenz, H. E. Hese, L. H. Hazard, George Chaney, Bert Folsom, C. C. Evland, J. E. Paulson, A. O. Walker, J. S. Barton, and Dr. and Mrs. W. V. Glaisyer.

The ladies in the Just-a-mere club enjoyed a one o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. R. A. Wernich on Schroeder street. Sewing was the diversion following the delicious repast. Mrs. Greenough assisted the hostess in serving the guests: Mesdames L. H. Hazard, O. C. Sanford, A. J. Sherwood, Paul Van Scoy, Frank L. Greenough, W. S. Sicks, J. L. Smith, Lyman Carrier, H. A. Young, C. J. Fuhrman, Nels Osmundson, Bert Folsom and J. A. Lamb. In two weeks the club will be guests of Mrs. Sanford.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Ferguson were hosts to their dinner club at their home on 340 South Beach street Wednesday evening of the week. Dr. and Mrs. P. M. Drake and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble were extra guests for the evening. The members present were Mr. and Mrs. Keith Leslie, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Griener and Mr. and Mrs. Henry H. Hartley. Bridge was enjoyed following.

Mrs. E. G. Opperman invited a few ladies in last Thursday afternoon for the pleasure of Mrs. Alice M. Stark, of Boise, Idaho, who has been visiting for the past month at the J. E. Norton home. This is Mrs. Stark's first visit in this part of the county and she is thoroughly enjoying her stay. The guests were Mesdames Alice M. Stark, John E. Ross, E. D. Webb, O. C. Sanford, J. Loy Stacer, Sanford Archibald and J. E. Norton.

The "Entre Nous" club members spent an enjoyable evening at Bridge Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Walter Litzberger at the Nosler apartments. Mrs. Walker received high score prize. Those attending were Mesdames Roy Watson, Julius Ruble, Donald, Estes, Kenneth Kistner, C. D. Walker, Harry H. Oerding and extra guests were Mrs. F. C. Hudson and Mrs. Leatha Hale.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Slack entertained their dinner club at seven o'clock Wednesday evening at their home, 200 W. Front street. The guests were served at small tables, where they later played Bridge, Dr. and Mrs. Knitter receiving high score prize. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Luckey L. Bonney, Dr. and Mrs. Carl L. Knitter, Dr. and Mrs. Carl A. Rietman, Rev. and Mrs. Hale B. Eubanks, Miss Beatrice Peters and Homer Gant.

At her home on the Fishtrap road Wednesday afternoon, Mrs. Lou Kime was hostess to the "Mothers of the Roy District" club. The ladies sewed on their fancy work and thoroughly enjoyed the hours. Mrs. Allie Miller has invited the ladies to meet with her in a fortnight. Those attending were Mesdames Ed. Detlefsen, W. E. Cross, Elmer Schull, Thomas Anderson, Harry Aber, Aurora Willard, John McNair, Rock Robison, James Avery, Ithamer S. Robison, Roy Tennant and Sadie Weber.

Mrs. Ed Detlefsen entertained charmingly at luncheon at one o'clock Thursday afternoon at her home on the Fishtrap road, having for her guests the Laf-a-lot club. Bouquets of marigolds added a touch of color in the living and dining rooms, where the following were served: Mesdames D. L. Thompson, Lou Kime, George Gilman, B. B. Sanders, Maggie Simmons, W. E. Cross, Pete Jacobsen. Mrs. Frank Schram will be hostess in two weeks.

The Honorary Society group of the Coquille High School enjoyed a no-host waffle supper given at the home of Miss Grace Ellingsen, who is one of the members, on Tuesday evening. It was a most enjoyable affair and after partaking of the delicious waffles, the party enjoyed playing games and cards. Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Griener and Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Ferguson were special guests at the affair. The members present were Misses Martha Jane Webb, Marjorie Knight, Gladys Williams, Geneva Agostino, Katherine Jane Hassler, Helen Belloni, Grace Ellingsen, Gertrude Mehl, and Keith Holverstott; Tallant Greenough, Ray Griffith and Donald Farr.

Misinformation at Eureka

Just another proof that the Roosevelt Coast Highway is not receiving an even break in northern California, which recently came to our attention. A lady bought a round trip ticket, by bus, to San Francisco, with the Pacific Highway designated for the south-bound trip and the Coast Highway for the return.

When she reached the Eureka Inn, northbound, and asked when the stage left next morning for Coos Bay, the clerk told her there was none, that she could not come up the coast, but would have to go from Crescent City to Grants Pass. It was impossible to get through from Crescent City to Bandon was the gist of his misinformation. And when she told him her ticket was for the coast route he still expressed doubt.

And this, too, when the roads in all directions from Grants Pass were practically blocked with snow, while cars and busses were running daily from Crescent City to Bandon, Coquille and Marshfield.

Needless to say the lady came up the coast and was very enthusiastic in her praise of the Roosevelt Highway scenery.

Mrs. Woodyard's Pupils' Recital

The voice and piano pupils of Mrs. E. A. Woodyard presented a recital in the Christian Church last Saturday evening at 7:30 which was attended by a large number of the relatives and friends of the young people. Mrs. Woodyard and her pupils were congratulated and applauded for the excellence of the program rendered.

Edward E. Dickson Passes

Funeral services for Edward E. Dickson, who died at his home half a mile beyond Coaledo last Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, were held in the chapel here at 2 p. m. Tuesday, and were conducted by Dwight L. Hackett. Interment was in the Masonic cemetery.

The deceased was past 67 years of age, having been born at Albany, Ore., June 16, 1862. He had lived in this section for many years and was a charter member of the Woodmen of the World here.

Besides his widow he leaves a son, Roy, living at home, and a daughter, Mrs. Mary Hall, of Oakland, Calif.; a sister, Mrs. Anna Clem, of Lebanon, Ore.; and three brothers, James Dickson, of Portland; Fred, of Salem; and Stafford, of The Dalles.

Death was due to pneumonia.

Would-Be Robber Leaves Car

Chas. A. Baer, manager of the Tower Ford agency here, is expected back from Portland Sunday. He has been up there a week and expects to bring a Ford sedan back with him. The Ford was purchased at Myrtle Point a short time ago on contract. The buyer drove it to Portland, where he attempted to rob a store. The proprietor grabbed a gun and the would-be robber fled, not even trying to take the car which was standing nearby. He escaped but the police seized the car.

U. O. LAW STUDENTS PASS STATE BAR EXAMINATION

University of Oregon, Eugene. — Five of the 77 men who successfully passed the state bar examinations at Salem recently graduated from the University of Oregon Law school last June, it was reported upon investigation into the personnel of the successful list. All were members of Phi Delta Phi, international honorary law fraternity.

The five Oregon graduates who passed the test are: William Adams, Milwaukie; John Bell, Jr., Eugene; Lester Oehler, Salem; Chris. Boesen, Eugene, and Orval Yokom, Eugene. Adams is now practicing in a Portland law office; Bell is with the Lane County Title and Abstract company, and Boesen is practicing in Marshfield.
