

LIBERTY THEATRE

Sunday and Monday, Feb. 9 and 10
"The Golden Clown"

Fortune smiled. All Paris hailed him as the Golden Clown—but Fate frowned. A heart-stirring drama with humor, pathos and beauty

Matinee Sunday 2:00 P. M. Adms. 35c Child 10c

Tuesday and Wednesday, Buzz Barton in "FALS OF THE PRAIRIE." The Boy Bronco Buster in a whirlwind of action. Added attraction Wednesday, Chapter No. 5 of "TARZAN THE TIGER."

Thursday, Ladies Golden Pheasant China Night. Harold Lloyd in "GIRL SHY." Again we bring you the Prince of Merry-makers at his best.

Friday and Saturday, Double Feature Day, Glenn Tryon in "SKINNER STEPS OUT." We were all poor once, but see Skinner Steps Out and makes a million, and you'll forget all your troubles. Also Bill Cody in "GOLD FROM WEEPAH." Made in Weepah during the most hectic days of its Gold Fever.

This is the last week of all-silent pictures at Liberty. Miss Lucile Lore playing a beautiful score to each feature.

Western Electric
SOUND SYSTEM

Soon your favorites of the screen will speak to you at the Liberty—great musicians will play to you, sing to you—you can hear the words of famous people spoken from the screen—hear the actual roar of an airplane—the howl of a storm! Western Electric Sound System was chosen by the Liberty for its clear, natural reproduction of voices. Just as near like the person in person talking to you as it is possible. You'll hear the Best Sound Pictures at their Best.

SOCIAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Rubie were hosts on Thursday evening of last week, having as guests the members of the little evening bridge club to which they belong. Honors went to Mr. and Mrs. Walker. Those enjoying the evening were Dr. and Mrs. P. M. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Walker. Next Thursday they will meet at the Johnson home on East Second street.

Dr. and Mrs. C. A. Rietman entertained delightfully their dinner club members for seven o'clock dinner on Wednesday evening at their lovely home at 390 East Second street. Bridge was in play following. Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames Harry H. Slack, Keith Leslie, Muri Pettit, Rev. and Mrs. Hale B. Eubanks, Miss Beatrice Peters and Homer Gant. The prize for high score was won by Mr. and Mrs. Slack.

A delicious six-thirty o'clock dinner was enjoyed by the Hiking club members at the home of Mrs. Grant Wilcox, 557 North Henry street, Monday evening, February 3rd. Two tables were prettily arranged and decorated with red carnations and greens as a centerpiece where covers were laid for Mesdames Anna Rooney, J. P. Beyers, Mary Corthell, J. J. Geaney, Bertha Smith, Misses August Hoyendahl, Bess Maury, Myrtle DeLong, Edna Asplund and the hostess, Mrs. Wilcox. This was the last meeting that Mrs. Corthell will be able to be with the members as she is leaving to make her home at Bandon.

Mrs. Frank Schram was a luncheon hostess yesterday to the "Laf-a-lot" club ladies at her home on the Myrtle Point highway. Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. George Sherwood assisted Mrs. Schram in serving the delicious repast to the following: Mesdames Pete

Jacobsen, George Gilman, B. B. Sanders, Joe Nelson, W. R. Simmons, A. B. McLeod, W. E. Cross and son, Wallace, J. N. Jacobsen, D. F. Thompson, Lou Kime, Ed Detlefsen, George Sherwood and daughter, Jessie. Mrs. Gilman invited the ladies to come to her home in a fortnight.

An enjoyable afternoon was spent by the "Mothers of the Roy District" club on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Allie Miller on the Fishtrap road. The afternoon hours were pleasantly spent in conversation and sewing. Those attending were Mesdames Lou Kime, Ed Detlefsen, Rock Robinson, Aurora Willard, E. W. Cross, Harry Aber, Matilda Willard, Sadie Weber, Elmer Shull, Roy Tennant, Frank Lane, Wanda Wilcox and Mrs. Aber and Miss Ida Weber.

The Y. M. W. club ladies enjoyed the afternoon on Thursday of this week at the home of Mrs. Sheldon Von Pegert, 961 West Fourth street. Sewing was the diversion until the hostess served refreshments, which were enjoyed by all present: Mesdames Alton Dungey, Kirk Shelley, Henry Tiedeman, Paul Brinkley, Everett Overton, William Nelson, Ivan Gregory and Mrs. Day of Myrtle Point.

Mrs. O. C. Sanford was the charming hostess yesterday afternoon to the "Just-a-mere" club ladies at her home, 491 South Elliott street. The luncheon table was lovely, being decorated with pink candles and asparagus fern, while in the living room clusters of laurestina were most effectively used. During the afternoon Mrs. Sanford read a short outline of the history and purpose of the club which was organized in 1924 and has been very active since that time. Mrs. Sherwood invited the ladies to meet with her for their next club day. Those enjoying the afternoon were Mesdames

Nels Osmundson, J. A. Lamb, H. A. Young, Lyman Carrier, Paul Van Scoy, C. J. Fuhrman, Frank L. Greenough, Bert Folsom, L. H. Hazard, W. S. Sickels and A. J. Sherwood.

Mrs. John L. Aasen entertained the En Rapport club with Bridge Monday evening at her home on South Coulter street. Those attending were Mesdames E. M. Kay, M. J. Hartson, H. S. Norton, A. M. Fish, H. C. Getz, W. V. Glaisyer and James Brady.

Dan Wilson Buried Tuesday

Dan Wilson, who has been a resident of Coquille and vicinity for the past quarter century, passed away at his home in the north part of Coquille last Saturday, at 2 p. m. Cancer of the liver was the cause of death.

Funeral services were conducted at the chapel here Tuesday morning at ten o'clock by Elder Chas. Barklow, of Myrtle Point. Interment was in the Fairview cemetery.

John Daniel Wilson was born in Illinois, June 22, 1860, and had lived in and near Coquille for years, having a small farm near the city limits.

He is survived by the widow, Mrs. Bertha L. Wilson, and five children, Mrs. Loretta Nodine, of Langlois; and Ralph E., Andrew J., Carl E., and Susanne, who live at home. He leaves besides three sisters—Mrs. Margaret Clark, of Coupersville, Wash.; Mrs. Sarah McKinnon, of Prineville; Mrs. Emma Johnson, of Portland—and four brothers—Edward Wilson, of Prineville; and Chas., Wm., and Bert Wilson, who live in California.

Chevrolet and Star Collide

Sunday morning the Chevrolet sedan of Macy Anderson and the Star touring car of Jas. Brockman met head on at the Geo. Gilman place on the upriver road across the Coquille. Both cars were badly damaged in front, radiators, frames, fenders, axles and headlights. Mr. Brockman assumed entire responsibility for the accident, for he was on the wrong side and did not see the Chevrolet approaching.

This Week We Feature

Our Nationally Advertised

PORCH FROCKS

$1.79

This year our Porch Frock Event is of special significance to every woman, for in addition to their utility around the home, the styles and fabrics are so smart and new as to make these frocks appropriate for almost any occasion. Thrifty-wise women will be seen wearing them to market, to the country club and to parties, all Summer long.

You may choose from many patterns and designs—each one absolutely fast color—neither soap nor brilliant sunshine will dim their fresh beauty. Seams are closely stitched and hems turned and finished—not basted. And their generous length follows the line of all smart new dresses—well below the knee.

Party frock . . . porch dress and a smart ensemble . . . ALL IN ONE

Choose the porch frock you like best. Make a bright little jacket to wear with it—we have many pretty prints very reasonably priced. Then with a clever little hat and a pair of our 98c full-fashioned silk hose, your costume is complete and it costs much less than you have often paid for a dress alone.
