Social Notes

Mrs. Kirk Shelley entertained yesterday in her new home on South Heath street, having as guests the Y. M. W. club members. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in sewing. During the late afternoon the guests were served dainty refreshments. Those attending were Mesdames Henry Tiedeman, Alton Dungey, William Nelson, Everett Overton, Paul Brinkley and Sheldon Von Pegert. Mrs. Dungey invited the ladies to meet with her in a fortnight.

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. Lou Kime on the Fishtrap road when the La-fa-lot club were entertained at a one o'clock luncheon. The rooms were very attractively decorated with Japanese quince. Sewing was the diversion of the afternoon hours. Those present were Mesdames George Gilman, O. T. Nelson, R. P. Lucas, Ed. Detlefsen, E. A. Wimer, D. F. Thompson, Frank Schram, Joe Nilsen and two extra guests, Mrs. Lee Hand and Mrs. Aurora Willard.

The Just-a-mere club ladies were entertained most delightfully at luncheon on Thursday of this week at the home of Mrs. Lyman Carrier on Spurgeon hill. About the living rooms attractive bouquets of Japanese quince were used, while on the beautiful luncheon table the decoration were of pink, being centered with pink Japanese quince and tall tapers of the same color. After the luncheon the afternoon was spent pleasantly in conversation. Places were provided for Mesdames L. H. Hazard, O. C. Sanford, Paul Van Scoy, C. J. Fuhrman, J. A. Lamb, W. S. Sickels, R. A. Wernich, Frank L. Greenough, A. J. Sherwood, J. L. Smith, Bert Folsom and Nels Osmundson. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Fuhrman. For their next club day which will be in two weeks, Mrs. Van Scoy will be their hostess.

Mrs. J. P. Beyers was the charming dinner hostess to the Hiking Club members at her home on 261 N. Willard street on Monday evening. Mr. Beyers also joined the ladies during the delightful dinner hour. Those seated were Mesdames Anna Rooney, Bertha Smith, J. J. Geaney, Grant Wilcox, Misses Bess Maury, Myrtle DeLong, Edna Asplund, Aagot Hoyendahl and Mr. and Mrs. Beyers. After the much enjoyed repast sewing was the diversion.

Yesterday evening Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Walker were hosts to their twofold Bridge club at their home on South Coulter street. At this pleasant affair guests for an additional table were included. The home was attractively decorated with rhododendrons and early spring flowers. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Solbig, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Boober, Mrs. M. H. Hersey. Members attending were Dr. and Mrs. P. M. Drake, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Johnsen and Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Watson are planning an enjoyable affair at their home on East Second street this evening when they have invited guests for four tables of Bridge. Pink carnations and ferns will be used for decorations both in the living and dining room. Those included for the evening are Messrs. and Mesdames R. L. Stewart, E. L. Vinton, Harry Oerding, C. D. Walker, W. V. Ferguson, Donald Estes, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Johnsen and Mrs. Letha Hale.

Mr. and Mrs. James N. Jacobsen were a very happy couple yesterday, March 6th, when they received many hearty congratulations on their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Jacobsen are well known residents in Coos county and have a host of friends who extend their best wishes on this happy occasion. A big family gathering was held at their farm home a mile and a half out of Coquille on the Myrtle Point highway. Many of their relatives from Ferndale, California, motored up for the occasion. A big dinner was served at one o'clock and a gathering of friends and relatives were present during the afternoon and evening. Those who were seated at the dinner table were Mr. and Mrs. James N. Jacobsen and son, Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cross and family, Mr. and Mrs. Pete Jacobsen and family, Mrs. Maggie Simmons. Those from Ferndale were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Glenden, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tonini and
