Frances Oddy a Fine Student

The following from the Marshfield Hi Times concerns a former Coquille school girl who has many friends here who will be interested in learning the splendid record she is making. She is the daughter of former County Clerk and Mrs. L. W. Oddy:

Frances Oddy has the distinguished record of being the only student to receive a red card this six-weeks and the only student to receive a red card consistently this school year. This achievement is especially remarkable since Frances has been able to make this record while carrying a well rounded load of activities.

She has been particularly active in music. She is a saxophone player in the band and has made several appearances before the student body and other organizations in special programs. Her other activities at the present time consist of the following: Chairman of invitation committee for Junior-senior banquet; chairman of refreshment committee for Girls' league; Hypocrite; member of the typing team which competed in the county meet in Coquille last Saturday.

Mrs. Irwin, Mrs. David Fox, and Mrs. Amos Payne were appointed on that committee. The judges are to be Dr. Milne, Mr. Gamwell and Mrs. Otis. Mrs. Otis in behalf of the P. T. Each year the P. T. A. has accomplished more and more. At the close the following program was given: Old fashioned school girl Etha Dorham. Modern school girl Alyce Kay Roberts. Old fashioned girl Margaret Smith. Flapper - Margaret McNeill. Athletic girl of yesterday - Jean McAdams.

Charles W. Haines, 68-year old pioneer of Eckley, passed away April 18 at the Mast Hospital in Myrtle Point. The deceased was in the live stock business virtually all his life and had just returned from a long cattle drive in Curry county which had kept him in the saddle for several hard days riding. He is survived by his daughter, Mrs. Verie Reillae, of Oakland, Calif.; Mrs. Mrs. Cook, Ashland, Oregon; Mrs. Etha Vales, Tidewater, Oregon; and a son, Oscar, of Klamath Falls, Oregon; and five grand children.

Charlie was the first one of the Haines children born on the old Haines place at Eckley, at that time known as the old Union Ranch.

The services were at nine Sunday morning at the chapel in Myrtle Point. The casket was brought to Powers in the hearse, where it was transferred to the Mack truck which took the crowd of friends and the family to the top of the incline on the railroad near the Coos & Curry line. It was there placed on a wagon and taken to the last resting place. There was a large escort of saddle horses which followed the casket to its last resting place, which was beside his wife, Hannah, who died in 1900.

Loads of beautiful flowers paid silent tribute to one of the best-hearted men that ever lived.

Glenn Wagner, one of the fallers at Camp Two, had the misfortune to fall with his saw and cut the fingers on his right hand quite badly, necessitating a lay-off of several days.

The Thursday Bridge Club met with Mrs. Noble Rovang at the Fellowship Hall. Three tables of Bridge were in play. High score went to Mrs. Clarence Moe and consolation to Mrs. Earl Royer. At the end of a very pleasant afternoon the hostess served a lovely lunch.

Ed Dunsen went to Myrtle Point Saturday evening where he met his brother, Elmer, and family, for a week-end visit.

The R. N. A. held a special meeting Tuesday afternoon to make final arrangements about the convention which will be held in North Bend April 29.

Saturday the Powers school was represented in Coquille at the typing contest by Josephine Crawford and Rosa Knight, first year; Georgia Stallard and Sylvia Lewis, second year. Powers won first in accuracy and fifth in speed.

The Fellowship club was delightfully entertained on Wednesday by Mrs. C. F. Otis and Ethel Littler. High score went to Mrs. E. F. Kellar and Letitia Hemphill was consoled. Mrs. Ralph Milne was elected president. Mrs. Dan Thomas first vice pres.; Mrs.

G. P. Stewart, sec.; and Dorothy Jackson, treas.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Carey attended the marriage of their daughter, Rae, in Coquille Saturday to J. A. Johnston, of Berkeley, Calif. Best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Johnston.

B. F. Reed drove Mrs. Dillard Wilson and her mother to Gervais last Thursday. Mrs. Wilson Sr. remained at her home in Gervais, while Mrs. Wilson Jr. and her sons and baby daughter returned Saturday.

Telephone and trail repair work has started by the Forest Reserve under Arthur Borigo, forester. Leo Frye, Ray Sloan, Bob Rowland and Mr. McCracken have all gone to Johnson Mt. to begin work. The fire season opens May 1st.

Mrs. Dave Carey was honored by her friends on Tuesday with a surprise party. She was 67 years old Friday. There was such a crowd that a count or list of those present was impossible. Mrs. Carey, as Alice McBride, came to Port Orford as a young girl and lived at Garrison Lake. Mrs. Carey is one of the most popular pioneers of the west. And we wish her many more happy birthdays.
