News from Powers

Lulah R. Fullerton, art and music instructor of the Powers school, gave a lovely program and exhibit on Monday at the high school. The art work was carried out according to the Oregon course of study, based upon the art books as selected by the state board of education and consisted of free hand, cut paper and lettering, water colors, crayola, black and white ink work and spatter work, which were worked out in animal pictures and designs, also soap carving. This work was done by the grades from the third to the eighth. This is the third year for art and music and the children have shown wonderful improvement. These grades have done over 1,000 pieces of art work this year.

Mrs. W. G. Goodwin and son, Howard, of Eureka, spent the week end in Powers, visiting at the home of their daughter and sister, Mrs. Homer Robinson.

Letitia Hemphill, senior adviser, entertained the senior class at a ten o'clock breakfast Sunday morning. Covers were laid for the following: Tenobis Knight, Frances Crawford, Thomas Erickson, Lester Rowers, and Edward Bohmie. Everyone had a very enjoyable time.

Miss Marion C. King, of Coquille, spent the week end in Powers with Mrs. Littler and Mrs. Hemphill.

Ray Williams, who has been sick for some time, is at the Wesley Hospital and will undergo an operation very soon.

Don Noah is wearing a patch over his left eye as the result of being hit with a choker button while working at Camp 2.

Roxie Remick, a miner from Rusty Creek, a tributary of the south fork of the Sixes river, spent the week end in Powers and dazzled the eyes of his friends with the lovely gold nuggets he has found. One contained $23 worth of gold.

Doe Morgan went to Portland, where a case is in litigation, in which they are trying to involve him. His car was stolen and driven to Portland and he was not out of Powers at the time.

Any one interested in mountain trips should go to Johnson Mt. some time within the next three weeks. Mere words cannot describe the wonderful beauty and wild flower by the billions. You can ride for five miles through a continued flower garden. If possible spend the day on the trip, for you miss so much by hurrying. There are twelve miles one has to walk or ride horseback, for cars can only go about two and a half or three miles above Powers. The trail is open and in good condition.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Stewart, of Coquille, accompanied by Wade Aretil, spent the week end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Stewart.

The ninth annual Baccalaureate address of the Powers high school, was held Sunday night in the gym, with a capacity crowd. The graduates were: Tenobis C. Knight, Frances T. Crawford, Thomas F. Erickson, Lester R. Powers and Edward M. Bohmie. Mrs. Letitia Hemphill was class adviser and E. S. Gamwell, superintendent.

Mrs. Eva Preston and son, Billie, left Sunday for Portland, where Mrs. Preston represents the Powers Rebekahs at grand lodge. Mrs. Preston will also receive the Degree of Chivalry at grand lodge this year. Mrs. Morris Lewis and son, Earl, accompanied the Prestons as far as Roseburg.

The P. T. A. met Friday at the Fellowship hall, with the new officers in the chairs. Prizes were awarded to the winners of the essay, contests. Ora Sinnott, Margaret Smith and Rose Milburn, who read their essays. Dr. Ralph Milne gave a wonderfully instructive talk to the mothers on "Teeth," and their relation to the rest of the body, care, eating, building, etc. Lois Hillia gave two lovely solos, accompanied by Marjorie Tillotson. The sixth grade gave a playlet, "Our Neighbors of South America," written by that grade, which was more than good and praise goes not only to the children but to their able instructor, Gladys Morrell. This is the last meeting of the P. T. A. till August 15. Mrs. F. A. Beatty is slowly improving and the doctor says it will take at least a month for recovery.

John Purvis, popular engineer of Powers, is working for E. Hall Chaney. The Powers school closes today and the staff of instructors will scatter for the summer. Many are returning. Mrs. Ethel Littner will go to Portland for a week's vacation, when she will return to Coquille to take up county nursing for the summer and will return here in the fall. Miss Helen Wright will attend the U. of O. and will also study music. She expects to return in the fall to teach the kindergarten. Miss Lenora Webb whose engagement was announced to Mr. Warren Frick, of Hood River, will not return to Powers next year.

Miss Saidee Monroe and Miss Medora McMullin will leave Wednesday for southern Texas, near Brownsville, where Miss Monroe will visit her sister. From there they will go to St. Louis, Mo., and will return by way of Yellowstone Park, arriving in Powers a week before school starts in September. Edward M. Bohmie, Miss McMullin's nephew, will accompany them.

Miss Ruth McCorkle will attend Berkeley University, taking an English course. Miss Wisley will attend school in San Francisco. Mr. Gamwell is undecided as to his summer plans. Gladys Morrell will attend Monmouth Normal. Roscoe Murdock will finish her master's degree at Stanford. Esther Jones will attend school probably in California. Jack Greiner will remain in Powers. Miss Tillotson will teach Juneau, Alaska.

The school exhibit Wednesday was a decided success, about 150 visitors going through the rooms. We will tell you more about it next week.
