NOSLER & WALKER.

Entertained for Daughter

Mrs. E. A. Walker invited a number of children to her home Wednesday afternoon to celebrate her daughter, Rheo's, eighth birthday anniversary. The large table that was used in serving the dainty luncheon was attractively decorated with red roses and other flowers of the same color, also red candy baskets at each guest's place. Mrs. Wm. Mansell and Mrs. Walker's mother, Mrs. Mary Meagher, assisted in serving the following: Rheo Walker, Barbara Leslie, Mary Lou Nosler, Marion Hess, Carol Haga, Leah Rover, Phyllis Jane Watson, Dorothy Bell Newton, Margaret Smith, Donna Getz and Marjorie Rowe.

Rhue Repairing Rohrer Place

Walter W. Rhue this week received the deed to the former W. B. Rohrer place, located beyond the J. N. Jacobsen place on the Myrtle Point highway. He had made a deal for that 120 acre ranch, with a half mile of frontage on each side of the highway, a year ago. The old house, opposite Lon Smith's garage, is being painted and repaired.

There are some excellent building sites on the ranch and a great deal of running water.

Hooton Family Picnic

A Hooton family reunion was held at Bridge last Sunday, participated in by the M. O. and A. O. Hooton families, the C. H. Hooton family from Marshfield, Mo., and O. D. Hooton, of Seattle, who came down last Saturday for a week's visit. There are four more brothers and sisters of the Hootons, who live in the east, whom M. O. says he has not seen for 40 years.

Repairing as well as cleaning and pressing is a specialty with the City Cleaners. Phone 108-L and they will do the rest.

NOSLER & WALKER.

E. F. Postal on Highway Work

E. F. Postal, formerly a Coquille resident, who was here during war days, was a Coquille visitor Wednesday. He is superintendent in charge of the highway operations for Joplin & Eldon, Portland contractors, who have the contract for filling the Haynes and Larson Slough sections, and the Russell Point section of the Roosevelt Highway. The latter is the place where the new ferry slip is to be located.

Mr. Postal says there is about 60,000 yards of earth to move and that fifteen or twenty men will be needed, working two shifts. They will use local labor only, paying 50 cents an hour.

Street Dance Netted Over $60

The street dance three weeks ago for the benefit of the baseball club netted something better than $60. It is proposed to hold the first dance on the new floor in the Community Building for the benefit of the ball park, to make needed improvements there. The date for the dance has not been set.
