MYRTLE POINT

We Point with Pride

Patrons of this theatre are advised that the sound pictures now being presented are projected by RCA Photophone sound reproducing equipment. RCA Photophone, Inc., is one of the subsidiary corporations of the Radio Corporation of America and allied with it in the development of sound recording and reproducing equipment are the General Electric Company, the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company and the RCA Victor Company, combining in one group, the world's greatest electrical corporations. We state these facts with pleasure because we are satisfied that RCA Photophone sound reproducing equipment is the best.

Comedy Holds Sway in "The Cuckoos" at M. P. Sunday

Filled with delicious fun and hilarious nonsense, "The Cuckoos," Radio Pictures' wild riot of waggery, opens Sunday at the Hiland theatre. The show brings the talking screen something entirely new in entertainment.

"The Cuckoos" is not a revue. It's not a musical comedy, although comedy and music hold full sway through the production. The show is a distinct departure from the conventional, offering a well-knit story which serves as a background for the antics of the maddest pair of comics ever to grace the screen—Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey, who won picture fame in "Rio Rita."

Romance has not been neglected, and a tender love strain is carried by June Clyde and Hugh Trevor. Wheeler and Woolsey are capably aided in the lunacy by Dorothy Lee and Jobyna

Howland. Ivan Lebendoff and Mitchell Lewis are the "bad men" and Marguerita Padula lends her glorious voice to a number of song hits.

Filmed partly in Technicolor, offering ten hitting hit songs, numbering more than a thousand in its cast and containing the liveliest set of chorus presentations ever brought to the screen, "The Cuckoos" is said to have everything that makes for perfect screen entertainment.

Judging by its record-breaking reception in other cities, "The Cuckoos" is expected to attract capacity audiences during its showing Sunday and Monday.

Mrs. Calvin Ray on Way Home

Mrs. Clifford Kern has heard from her mother, Mrs. Calvin Ray, Gold Star mother, who made the trip to France to visit the grave of her son, Lee G. Ray. She had a good trip across, not being seasick. She sent a picture of the Hotel Lutetia in Paris, where she stayed, also a picture of herself taken by the grave of her son. She returns this week to New York on the S. S. Roosevelt. She will visit in Rockford, Ill., at the home of her youngest son, Glen Ray; also in Grand Island, where a sister of hers lives. She expects to be home by September 1.

Contracting for Blackberries

Forrest and Lackey at Broadbent are contracting evergreen blackberries in this section and have contracts that will enable them to take several thousand crates of berries during the season. They have receiving stations at Myrtle Point and Coquille and also have contracted several of the larger patches in the county and want pickers for these places, who really want to pick.

Mrs. Richardson in France

A card received this week from Mrs. Viola C. Richardson, formerly a resident of Coquille, who is with the Gold Star mothers in France, says: "I had a pleasant trip across the ocean. Will be in Paris for a few days, then at Verdun, and then the Argonne Woods. France is beautiful."

No Damage County Farm Fire

The fire department was called to the county farm about five o'clock last Friday evening but Supt. F. C. McNelly had the blaze out before its arrival. A spark had set fire to the corner of the big house there over the kitchen. The department appreciates the $25 warrant and the letter of thanks sent by the county court in recognition of their efforts.
