Mrs. Edith Moe had an emergency operation Friday at the Wesley hospital. She was taken to Marshfield that morning in the ambulance, accompanied by Ethel Stewart and Dr. Parker, Mr. Moe following in another car. At last reports she was doing nicely.

The Powers school starts Monday morning with the following teachers: E. S. Gamwell, principal; E. J. Griner, manual training and coach; Bertha Alm, music and art, of Silverton, Oregon; Maceel A. Barton, mathematics, of Eugene; Russel V. Mordock, home economics; Medora McMullin, eighth grade; Elizabeth Wisley, seventh; Gladys Morrell, sixth; Esther E. Jones, fifth; Martha M. Lindley, fourth; Florence Stewart, third; Lillian L. Frick, second, of Hood River, Oregon; Saidee B. Morse, first. Miss Helen Wright has resigned as kindergarten teacher and that vacancy has not yet been filled. Ethel Littler will be school nurse and W. A. Doak, janitor.

Powers Chapter of the Eastern Star will be hostess Friday, August 29, to the Natal Day association and 350 guests are expected. At noon the Powers chapter will serve a dinner, followed by a session at the school gymnasium in the afternoon, at which time the secretaries will give their reports and there will be an election of officers. In the evening the Woman's Club will furnish a 6:30 lunch and at eight o'clock the evening program will begin.

Mrs. Carrie Jackson, of Baker, Ore., was entertained at the home of Hazel Lewis while playing an official visit to the Powers chapter of the Eastern Star.
