Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Wilson are visiting their son, Edward, and family in Camas Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kellar, or Arago, visited at the Elmer Wilson home Sunday.

Mrs. Julius Benham, from Winchester Bay, visited at the J. D. Laird home over the week end.

Christian Science Churches

"Christ Jesus" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 31.

The Golden Text was, "We have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world." (I John 4:14.)

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly." (John 10:10.)

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Our Master fully and finally demonstrated divine Science in his victory over death and the grave. Jesus' deed was for the enlightenment of men and for the salvation of the whole world from sin, sickness, and death." (p. 45.)

Any Woman May Compete

In order to enlarge records which ultimately will have historical value, the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs is announcing a nation-wide contest for women for the best stories of the achievements of business and professional women submitted within the next two months. Word of the competition which is being held in co-operation with the Exposition of Women's Arts and Industries, of which Mrs. Oliver Harriman is chairman, has been sent to the 1,200 clubs comprising the federation which has a membership of 60,000 women throughout the United States.

According to Miss Emily Kneubuhl, executive secretary of the National Federation, the purpose of the competition is to add to the large fund of material on the progress of women in the business world already assembled by the federation as part of its service as a business women's organization.

The finest individual story of the achievement of a business woman submitted by October 1, will win the first prize of $50. The next best story will be given honorable recognition and a prize of $25.

The contest is open to any woman in the United States whether or not she is a member of the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs. The contestants may write of their own business success, or may tell of the enterprise of some other woman.

Manuscripts must not exceed 1,000 words in length. To be accepted, manuscripts must reach the offices of the federation, 1819 Broadway, New York City, prior to midnight on the evening of September 31. Entries must be addressed to the Women's Achievement Contest. Two copies of each manuscript must be submitted.

55 Teachers Attend Meeting

Fifty-five teachers, most of whom were from the one and two room schools in the county, attended the pre-school meeting held Saturday, August 31st, at the Pioneer Hall in Coquille.

The teachers have come back to the county with a great deal of enthusiasm which was evidenced at the meeting by their hearty entrance into the discussion and their singing of their respective school songs.

The speakers as arranged previously were: Mary E. Thompson, of Beach View; Lester Gardner, of Valley View; Rosabel Shone, of Coquille; Cora Mackey, of Roy; Effie K. Shindoll, Bald Hill; and Dr. P. M. Drake, public health officer.

At noon a very delicious lunch was served by the ladies of the Pioneer Church. After the meeting the teachers visited the office of the county superintendent where they collected posters, supplies and library books leaving the office with laden arms.

F. G. Leslie,
3422 City Recorder.

Schools Furnish Supplies

That many rural school districts in Coos will this year furnish supplies to pupils is evidenced from the budgets of many of the districts. These materials will be selected by the teachers and will be bought in lots, thus affording considerable saving of money as well as pupil time, for it has been noted that where pupils are responsible for their own supplies that there is a loss of much time due to pupils being out of papers, pencils, etc. Although the law in Oregon does not allow the district to furnish the texts, it does allow the buying of supplies.

Parents coming into Oregon from sister states note the tremendous expense involved in getting children provided with texts and other supplies.
