The fair this year will be better than ever before. A greater number of exhibits is assured and the entertainment features will eclipse anything of the past.

4-H Club Work

4-H Club Work is again to be one of the outstanding attractions. With a year's longer experience in club work, and a corresponding increase in projects, as well as improvement in each line, there will be shown the finest display of livestock, poultry, handwork, canning, etc., that has ever been on exhibition at the Coos & Curry Fair.

Exhibits

Dairy cattle, sheep, hogs, poultry, everything raised on Coos and Curry county ranches, has been and will be entered for exhibition in the pavilions at the fair. The interest in these agricultural exhibits, in past years, and the improvement in grades will cause keener competition than ever before.

All products of the soil—grain, grasses, root crops, etc.—are expected in profusion.

Entertainment

Racing is the biggest of all entertaining features at any fair and this year's Coos and Curry program will be the best ever given in southwestern Oregon. There will be more strings of high class race horses on the track than in recent years, the good purses attracting more owners than heretofore.

Novelties

The Browning Amusement Co., with its multitude of novelty attractions will be on hand again this year.

Prominent Speakers

Two of the three candidates for governor of Oregon have promised to attend the fair and address the people, and it is possible that all will be present.

Something doing every minute! It's a Big Fair! No one can afford to miss it! Friday, the 19th, is School Day!
