SOCIAL NOTES

Monday evening of this week Mrs. J. L. Smith entertained the members of the Monday night Bridge club at her home on South Henry street. For the evening's play, Mrs. Greenough was honored by receiving high score prize. Those present were Mesdames Bert Folsom, Hal W. Pierce, J. A. Lamb, L. H. Hazard, George Lorenz, Frank L. Greenough, Edward W. Lorenz and R. F. Miller.

Saturday a number of Coquille ladies drove over to the home of Mrs. W. H. Lyons at Marshfield, where they were entertained by Mrs. Lyons and her daughter, Miss Helen, at a one o'clock luncheon party. Sewing and conversation was the afternoon's diversion. For decorations which were beautiful in the rooms, mixed flowers were used. Those from Coquille were Mesdames J. A. Lamb, A. J. Sherwood, C. J. Fuhrman, H. A. Young, J. L. Smith, Paul Van Scoy, Miss Jean Young and Marshfield ladies included were Mesdames J. S. Lyons, C. McC. Johnson, C. W. Endicott, L. W. Oddy and L. A. Liljeqvist.

A lovely children's garden party was given Saturday by Mrs. J. E. Norton at her home on North Heath. The affair was for the pleasure of the children who so nicely assisted Mrs. Norton at her musical afternoon. Also a number of others were included. The day was so delightful that tables were placed in the garden where the refreshments were served. The table was attractively decorated, having many favors and surprises on it for each little guest. Misses Marilyn Compton, Esther Peterson and Martha Carrier assisted in the serving. In the games played Isabelle Unsoeld and Aileen Perry won prizes. Those present were Beverly Jean and Joy Norton, Isabelle Unsoeld, Aileen Perry, Marilyn and Doris Compton, Patsy Norton, Esther Peterson, Martha Carrier, Shirley Price, Clarabel Watson, Donna Getz, Martha and Patsy Berg, Patricia Peart, Louise Woodyard, Rhea Walker, Bonny Jean Elliott, Margaret Rose Covalt, Norma Baell, Elaine Gray, Marion Addison.

Mrs. William Zosel was hostess to the En Rapport Bridge club at her home on East Second street Monday evening. Mrs. Aasen won the prize and will also entertain the club in two weeks. Those attending were Mesdames M. J. Hartson, James Brady, A. B. Collier, H. S. Norton, John L. Aasen, W. V. Glaisyer and E. M. Kay.

One evening last week Dr. and Mrs. P. M. Drake entertained their two-table bridge club at their home on Knowlton heights. Honors went to Dr. and Mrs. Johnson. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Julius Ruble, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Walker, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Johnson and the hosts, Dr. and Mrs. Drake.

A delightful party was given Friday evening by the losing side of the attendance contest which has been recently concluded by the Sunday School classes of the Church of Christ. The affair was held at the church parlors and the entertainers put on a lively program of musical numbers, readings, solos and stunts which furnished lots of fun for the evening. Games were played until refreshments were served the eighty persons who attended. All agreed that the losers were royal entertainers.

Wednesday afternoon the Women's Guild of the St. James Episcopal Church met for their weekly meeting at the parish house. Mesdames C. J. Fuhrman, James Watson, W. V. Glaisyer and Hale B. Eubanks served tea. A number of the Bandon Guild ladies drove up for the afternoon. Those from Bandon were Mesdames E. B. Hill, G. O. Lowe, E. Manciet, C. W. Linn, Anna Gauntlett, J. H. Dalen, Claire Briedwell, Louis D. Felsheim and Paul W. Treadgold. Coquille ladies attending were Mesdames A. J. Sherwood, Harry H. Slack, L. H. Hazard, O. T. Gant, E. A. Walker, J. W. Laird, J. S. Barton, C. D. Walker, W. H. Mansell, C. K. Norcott, George W. Taylor Sr., E. L. Vinton, W. V. Glaisyer, H. E. Hess, W. S. Sicksels, Bert Folsom, James Watson, C. J. Fuhrman and Rev. and Mrs. Hale B. Eubanks.

The missionary society of the Pioneer Church held their missionary program and tea at the home of Mrs. A. T. Morrison Thursday afternoon. The pleasant rooms were attractive with baskets of mixed fall flowers. Mrs. Henry Ellis had charge of the program which opened with singing. Mrs. Alexander Peterson read the scripture lesson and Rev. S. D. Walters offered prayer which was followed by a song service. In place of the usual missionary lesson Mr. Walters gave a very helpful talk on "Stewardship." The program was concluded by all joining in the Lord's prayer. A social hour followed in which a number of contest games were indulged in. Mrs. R. A. Boober received a prize in one game and Mrs. Boober and Mrs. E. Purvance and Mrs. W. V. Glaisyer tied in another. Mrs. C. H. Hunt also received a prize. Later a very dainty lunch was served by the hostesses, Mesdames James Richmond, John Oerding, J. A. Houdyshell and Alexander Peterson, to the following members and guests: Rev. and Mrs. S. D. Walters, Mesdames Walter Oerding, B. C. Minard, M. W. Way, J. W. McGuffin, W. E. Thompson, Henry Ellis, George Wilkins, Ernest Purvance, Roy A. Boober, Chas. H. Hunt, S. M. Nosler, W. V. Glaisyer, Lyman Carrier, Frank G. Leslie, Romaine B. Rogers, Kennett Lawrence, Henry Belloni, L. A. Brown, R. Morris, C. K. Norcott and A. T. Morrison.

Mrs. William Stewart, who was Miss Jerene Low before her marriage of a few weeks ago, was given a surprise and miscellaneous shower party by Misses Eleanor Folsom and Vera Fortier at the Folsom home on South Henry street Tuesday evening. The evening was pleasantly spent in conversation and in viewing the many lovely and useful gifts received by the bride. Late in the evening delicious refreshments were served to the following: Mrs. Stewart, Misses Mary Ella Cary, Virginia Lefevre, Gretchen Mehl, Frances Nosler, Pauline Pook, Phyllis McCurdy, Doris Kay, Marguerite Agostino, Fredah Baxter, Mary Watson, Florence Cary, Wanda Houdyshell, Laura Davis, Mrs. W. H. Fortier, Mrs. Bert Folsom and the two hostesses, Miss Folsom and Miss Fortier.

About twenty-five of the Coquille teachers enjoyed a picnic supper and party at the Richmond cabin at Bandon Wednesday evening. A short business meeting was concluded, Mrs. Marie Stewart elected as president. They plan to have regular social gatherings each month during the school term.

Former Coquille People Meet on Long Beach Streets

In remitting for another year's subscription to the Sentinel, Mrs. Emma W. Smith, who formerly owned the Title Guarantee & Abstract Co. here, writes from her present home in Long Beach, Calif., as follows:

"I note by the paper at various times of the building activity in Coquille, and suppose I will see a big change there when the time comes that I can make a trip back. Business conditions here seem to be picking up somewhat, but it surely has been very quiet.

"In waiting to cross one of our busy streets the other noon, I happened to be standing by Philip Johnson—knew he was down here but had not seen him until this time. We had quite a nice little visit, and we were both surprised to meet as we did."

To Willamette and Normal

Coquille is to be represented at the Monmouth Normal this year by three young ladies, Misses Gretchen Mehl, Pauline Chase and Pauline Ellingsen, who will leave for there Sunday.

Willamette University has four students from here already enrolled, Clarence Barton, who has transferred from the University at Eugene for his senior year, and Barbara Richmond, Gertrude Mehl and Ray Griffith, all of last May's C. H. S. graduating class.

Adams-Watkins

A quiet wedding was solemnized at "Friendly Woods," the home of T. B. MacDonald at Arago, Tuesday afternoon, when he united in marriage Miss Florence Watkins and Oswald Adams, both of Myrtle Point. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Barker. The best wishes of a wide circle of friends are extended to the happy couple.
