Catholic Church Activities
Announcement has been made by Rev. Fr. Toher, supply pastor of the Coos-Curry Catholic Missions, that the time of Mass has been changed to 9 and 11 a. m. instead of 8 and 10:30, as has been the rule heretofore and that two Sisters from the Bay will be present at the 11 o'clock Mass in Coquille next Sunday for the purpose of instructing the children. Parents are urged to have their children in attendance at this Mass. All members are asked to bring basket lunches, as immediately following Mass at Coquille a parish reunion is to be held at Bandon beach, all day Sunday. Committee in charge of the affair is composed of Leo J. Cary, Ed McKeown and J. Arthur Berg, of Coquille, and Mr. Best, of Bandon.
The card party and social evening held in the hotel banquet hall last Saturday evening was a social success, some 80 or more being in attendance. Plans are now being made for a card party to take place at the parish house in Bandon next Wednesday evening, September 24th, and all Catholics and their friends are urged to be present.
A letter has been received this week from Father LeMiller, who is touring Europe and the Holy Land, stating he had just witnessed the Passion Play at Oberammergau and is leaving shortly for Switzerland. He expects to return home not later than November 1st.
Rev. Father Toher has announced that he expects to commence a Mission in Coquille on Sunday, September 28th. Hours of the beginning of services for the Mission will be announced at Bandon and Coquille next Sunday.

Entertain Shamrock Circle
Monday evening the Neighbors of Woodcraft of Evening Tide Circle 216 met at the Woodmen Hall and entertained Shamrock Circle of Myrtle Point. A program followed the regular meeting: Mrs. Lola Thompson gave a vocal selection. Miss Marjorie McGuffin gave a recitation which was followed by Mr. Bergenhizer and his wax figures. Mrs. Bennett and Mrs. Walter Laird rendered a musical selection, afterwards Mr. Laird accompanied Mrs. Laird with the violin. The program ended with the entrance of Amos and Andy, two clowns. The reception hall was decorated in red and white with the background of ivy, representing the lodge colors. The dining room was decorated very effectively with pink and white chrysanthemums. A delightful luncheon was served.
