

SLIPPERY ROADS AHEAD

Protect Yourself

FREE! Let us inspect your tires for safe winter driving. It's dangerous to have punctures or blowouts on slippery roads; it's disagreeable to change tires on cold, nasty days; smooth treads with no traction are like "banana peels"—they don't grip the road. Get our advice—no charge.

News from Powers

A. M. Cooper from the Myrtle Greenhouse spoke at the Woman's Club Wednesday on the "Care of Houseplants," after which he answered questions, all of which was very instructive. Mrs. Henry Moe exhibited a plant grown from the seed of a Jerusalem Cherry, which has a tomato vine, yellow blossom and a small fruit resembling a tomato. No one present could classify the plant. After the regular business Mrs. John Hewitt gave two vocal numbers, which were much enjoyed, and Mrs. Charlie Taylor gave a very clever reading and a vocal number. Later refreshments were served during the social hour.

The South Fork Logging Co. opened their cook house Tuesday at Sugar creek near Eckley. Mike Summers is chef. It will probably be a month before actual logging begins, when they will employ about 18 men.

Solo class, under the direction of Mrs. Hoover, entertained parents and friends Friday afternoon with an hour's program given at the regular meeting of the class which occurs once each month. The following took part: Donald Littler, Betty Stewart, Bobbie Lewis, James Hoover, Alys June Fox, Fay Stewart, Geraldine Davis, Carol Briggs, Frances Ellen King, Bonnie Crew, Ima Hubbard, Helen Lewis, Opal Barton, Jack King, Frances Jones, Earl Hoover.

A clever little health program and tea furnished entertainment for the mothers of the fifth grade pupils under the direction of Esther Jones, their teacher, on Friday at the grade building. Upon completion of their community health work these very appropriate plays were prepared. A silver offering was taken to buy library books which are badly needed. Lloyd Wilson and Allan King drove to Gervais Sunday, returning the same evening with Mrs. Dillard Wilson's mother, Eliza Wilson, who will remain in Powers for the winter.

A right of way fence from the river bridge to the Salmon creek trestle is being built this week by men employed by the Western White Cedar Co. This is where the railroad crosses Dillard Wilson's ranch. Willis Varney attended Dada' Day at the U. of O. as guest of his son, George, who is a senior at the U. of O. Mrs. Olin Lay, president of the local P. T. A., and Roscoe Murdock, delegate, left for Portland Sunday to attend the P. T. A. regional convention. They drove to Portland with Mrs. Chas. McCready who will visit her daughter, Cecil, who is studying music with Ellison-White.

Jim Clinton, of Myrtle Point, was attending to business in Powers Tuesday. Lawson Thomas, an old-time Powers resident, returned Sunday evening to make this his home.

Brewster Valley

Mike Obermar and Miss Noyse, of Coquille, visited at the P. A. Alford home on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Krewson were Myrtle Point shoppers Tuesday. Lester Kerto and Lela Groat shot a large panther up Lost Creek on Monday evening.

Mrs. Wanda Volck with Mrs. Myrtle Noah and son were visitors at the Perley Crowley home over the week end. Mrs. Volck gave the school children a very interesting talk on Yellowstone Park.

On Monday the Dora cemetery association spent the day in platting the new piece of land adjoining the cemetery on the south. A new fence will be built also.

Perley Crowley is building a new double garage on his ranch.

Gravel Ford News

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Bothwell went to Marshfield Monday.

L. Watson, Ben and Fred Watson and Mrs. Arthur McMillan were Sunday visitors at the E. L. Culbertson home.

Mrs. J. S. Clinton, Iris, Marie and Ralph Clinton were Sunday visitors at the Lorenzo West home.

Mrs. Bob DeBoer was a visitor at the Culbertson and Billings' homes Monday.

Grandpa Weaver, who has been in Arizona and Nebraska for the past year, returned last week for a visit with his daughter, Mrs. L. West.

Elton Clinton went to Hood River last week to visit his sister, Mrs. J. R. Flater. His friends hope the change of climate will be beneficial to his health.

Mrs. Laura Culbertson and Mrs. Dorothy Weekly were visitors at the Severt Iverson home Tuesday.
