

PHIL METSCHAN

WILL MAKE OREGON A SPLENDID GOVERNOR

Few men know Oregon better than Phil Metschan, republican candidate for governor. He has had a broad experience all his life to fit him to understand the problems of the State and its people. He is one of the people—successful in his business by hard work and forethought.

Phil Metschan has always been closely connected with the masses of the people. He has been a bank clerk, a traveling man, a clerk in a fish market, and he has done every job in a hotel from cooking to clerking at the desk.

Serving in many capacities with honor to himself in public and civic affairs Phil Metschan has the reputation of doing his best unselfishly. He has been a director in the Portland Chamber of Commerce; has been for 12 years a member of the Port of Portland Commission; has always been active in the Republican party organization; was during the war a captain of liberty loan drives and active in raising funds for Knights of Columbus overseas work; was chairman of a committee to raise funds for the new Portland Masonic Temple; and is at the present time a trustee of Willamette University.

Phil Metschan has his own ideas for the good and development of Oregon, and will use his best judgment for the good of all regardless of the vote-catching methods of demagogues whose practices and preachings are decidedly different.

He is progressive without being radical, and is a capable administrator—patient, tolerant and just.

Our Governor should possess those qualifications which will permit him to work in peace and harmony with the legislature and with other elective state officials for the upbuilding of Oregon. PHIL METSCHAN POSSESSES THESE QUALIFICATIONS TO A MARKED DEGREE.

Honest, sincere, industrious, quick of wit, and easy as an old shoe, Phil Metschan will make Oregon one of the greatest Governors we have known in many years. He is for:

1. Free Text Books in Public Schools.
2. Old Age Pensions.
3. Minimum Wages for Girls working in Stores.
4. Strengthening Workman's Compensation Act.
5. Ratification of Child Labor Amendment.
6. Enforcement of Prohibition Laws.
7. Development of Oregon by Utilization of Power Resources by both Public and Private Enterprises.

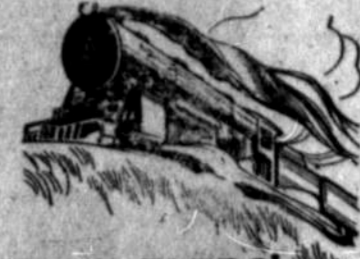

The administration of Phil Metschan will be an administration of which the whole State will be proud. Oregon will go forward under the direction of Phil Metschan.

William E. Walsh, Chairman Coos County Republican Central Committee. Paid Adv.

John D. Carl Endorsed By His Neighbors

Arago, Oregon, October 20th, 1930
This letter is to remind you that we voters have a most important county officer to elect at the November general election and in the election of the man best fitted and qualified to fill such office depends the economical, honest, efficient and progressive administration of county business.

The election of the proper man for county commissioner for Coos county is more important directly to the citizens of the county and they will be more directly affected by the election of such a man than by the election of a governor of the state of Oregon, which appears to be uppermost in the minds of the voters.

Let the voters not lose sight of the fact that John D. Carl was nominated by the republican primaries in May in a contest of three worthy republican candidates for the office; the election of Mr. Carl will mean the saving of thousands of dollars to the taxpayers of Coos county and a fair deal for everyone.

In a letter as neighbors of Mr. Carl to the voters of the county before the primaries, the public was advised that Mr. Carl is a pioneer, born at Norway near Myrtle Point, in 1881, and is now past 48 years of age, of a pioneer family of nine, all respected citizens; his father was August Carl, a civil war veteran, an early settler; Mr. Carl is the father of four boys whose help on the farm allows the father to participate in public affairs; he is the owner and manager of a large dairy farm and pays between $800 and $900 in taxes to Coos county; manager of Arago Creamery, formerly owner, the operation and management of which he has directed for 12 years; school clerk of Arago... Consolidated School and former school clerk of Arago School District and now director of said district, which positions he has held for 12 consecutive years, and was for approximately ten years a director of the Bank of Myrtle Point; his experience in all manner of business has been very extensive; he is a public spirited man and stands for education, honesty, integrity and morality, and all that is best in the home, and public affairs, a leader in his community in education and civic enterprises, he holds the sincere and earned confidence of all who know him.

With his broad vision, conscientious mind, coupled with energy, industry, progressiveness, good judgment and business ability, he has all the attributes necessary for an efficient conscientious officer.
No person, clique, organization or faction can rufe John Carl, he has no pre-election promises to fulfill, other than those made to the whole people pledged in the primary campaign to which he will adhere without equivocation when elected county commissioner, his convictions and actions will be based upon the needs and interests of the county at large and all districts of the county will receive just and impartial consideration at his hands.
The election of John D. Carl to the office of county commissioner of Coos county will mean progressive, economical, honest administration of county affairs over which the County Court has jurisdiction.
Respectfully submitted,
J. E. Burtis, merchant; George E. Hampton, H. E. Watkins, George Gillespie, C. E. Schroeder, H. A. Fish, Price Robison, C. A. Keltner, J. D. Root, J. E. Moomaw, R. F. Munford, C. T. Robison, W. B. Farrier, J. D. Barklow, G. A. Collier, Joe Biani, J. A. Yates, O. H. Assen, Wm. H. Stauff, Geo. F. Robison, W. T. Woodward, A. C. Halter, J. B. Lamb, farmers.
