

LIBERTY THEATRE

Sunday and Monday, Nov. 23 - 24

Warner Baxter and Mona Maris in
"The Arizona Kid"

A real great guy with wimen and song and a real bad man with guns and gats. He is a lion among men, a lamb among ladies and a brilliant story of the west when bandits found time for love-making at the risk of their lives.

Matinee Sunday 2:00 P. M. Adm. 35c, Child 10c

Night 6:30. Adm. 50c, Child 10c

Tuesday and Wednesday, November 25 and 26
Norma Shearer and Marie Dressler in "LET US BE GAY." A gay comedy for gay folks, a picture designed to kill the blues. More fun than a cage of monkeys.

Thursday, November 27

Buster Keaton in "DOUGH BOYS." Buster brings out war's laughs and retains its thrill without its horrors. A battle of laughs. Take a tip—here is the scream of the trenches, the laughing gas of the big fight, the war comedy of comedies! Matinee 2:00 p. m.

Friday and Saturday, November 28 and 29

William Boyd in "OFFICER O'BRIEN" with Ernest Torrence and Dorothy Sebastian. An amazing under-world drama that will thrill you through and through. CROOK! His father a criminal and his son a policeman.

SOCIAL NOTES

A pleasant evening was spent at the home of Mrs. L. H. Hazard Monday when she entertained the members of the Monday night Bridge club. Honor prize went to Mrs. George Lorenz. Those attending were Mesdames J. A. Lamb, Bert Folsom, Hal W. Pierce, Edward W. Lorenz, R. A. Wernich, J. L. Smith and Geo. Lorenz.

The Just-a-mere club members and their husbands enjoyed a no-host dinner party last Tuesday evening at the Coquille Hotel and later all went to the Playmore golf course where they played a round of golf. Those enjoying the pleasant affair were Messrs. and Mesdames W. S. Sicksels, J. A. Lamb, O. C. Sanford, C. J. Fuhrman, Bert Folsom, J. L. Smith, R. A. Wernich, L. H. Hazard, H. A. Young and Lyman Carrier. Low scores were made by Mrs. W. S. Sicksels, with 49, and O. C. Sanford with 51.

At her home on East Second street, Mrs. Julia Ruble was hostess to the Entre Nous club ladies. Guests for two tables of Bridge were present. A delicious lunch was served to the following: Mesdames H. H. Oerding, Roy Watson, E. L. Vinton, Donald Estes, C. D. Walker, Kenneth Kistner and Walter Litzengerger.

Mrs. Roy Watson gave a lovely children's party Friday, November 14th, in honor of her little daughter, Phyllis Jane, who had just reached her ninth birthday anniversary that day. A color scheme of green and yellow was used on the table where the children were served. A pretty centerpiece of small yellow chrysanthemums and green tapers added much to the colorful decorations along with the lovely birthday cake, fancy place cards and candy baskets. The occasion was much enjoyed by the following: Margaret Stewart, Marion Hess, Margaret Smith, Rheo Walker, Louise Woodyard, Barbara Leslie, Phyllis Mae Litzengerger and Phyllis Jane.

Tuesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Leach were hosts to their Bridge club at their home on East Second street. Three score prizes were given. Mrs. Slagle and Mrs. Zosel received high score prizes, while Mrs. Thrift consolation. The hostess served delicious refreshments after several hands were played. Those enjoying the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thrift, Mr. and Mrs. George Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Zosel and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slagle.

The Women's Guild of the St. James Episcopal church met Wednesday afternoon at the parish house for their regular weekly meeting. Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman and Mrs. James Watson served tea to the following: Mesdames Neils Osmundson, W. H. Mansell, C. C. Evland, Bert Folsom, L. H. Hazard, George W. Taylor Sr., C. T. Selbig, R. L. Stewart, Sanford Archibald and Sarah Wickham.

The Women's Missionary society of the Pioneer Church held their monthly silver tea Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lyman Carrier on Spurgeon Hill. Instead of the regular missionary lesson a Thanksgiving program was given. The meeting was opened by all singing, "All hail the power of Jesus' Name." Mrs. S. D. Walters read the 147 psalm as the scripture lesson. Mrs. W. S. Smith lead in prayer. Mrs. Walter Oerding told of the origin and purpose of Thanksgiving day and Mrs. R. B. Rogers talked on the question, "Do we observe Thanksgiving day in the same spirit that the Pilgrim fathers did." Quite a discussion followed. Mrs. James Richmond gave an interesting talk on "What does Thanksgiving mean to me." Mrs. Paul Walker sang two delightful solos. At a previous meeting the members were asked to earn a dollar and at this gathering they told their experiences in earning the money.

A social hour followed and later the hostesses, Mesdames Lyman Carrier, Henry Ellis, J. W. McGuffin, served delicious refreshments to the following members and guests present: Mesdames S. D. Walters, R. T. Slater, Ernest Purvance, J. L. Aasen, S. M. Nosler, A. T. Morrison, William Ireland, Walter Oerding, J. A. Houdyshell, James Richmond, J. N. Jacobson, W. E. Thompson, B. C. Minard, R. B. Rogers, Lee Neeley, George Wilkins, Orvil Haga, W. S. Smith, Kennett Lawrence, E. A. Johnson, Henry Belloni, L. A. Brown, George Wimer, P. A. Davis, Paul Walker, Carl Ensele, F. G. Leslie and Lee Peterson. It was voted that their next meeting which falls on December 18th will be the annual Christmas exchange party.

Thursday afternoon at her home on North Henry street, Mrs. Alton Dungey entertained the Y. M. W. club. Late in the afternoon refreshments were served to those present: Mesdames Ivan Gregory, Leslie Dey, Paul Brinkley, William Nelson, Henry Tiedeman, Everett Overton, L. B. Stewart, L. V. Fry, Kirk Shelly. In two weeks Mrs. Overton will be the club hostess.

This evening Mrs. Willard Bosserman has invited nine little guests to her home on South Henry street for seven o'clock in honor of her youngest daughter, Donna Dean's ninth birthday anniversary. On the dinner table a yellow color scheme will be carried out. Later in the evening Mrs. Bosserman is taking the children down to the Playmore golf course where they are going to play a round of golf. Those provided for are Muriel Hunt, Phyllis Jane Watson, Eileen McLeod, Louise Woodyard, Dorothy Glaymer, Georgianna Johnson, Margaret Smith, Donna Getz, Mary Lee McGuire, of Marshfield, and Donna Dean.

A pleasant afternoon was spent at the home of Mrs. Jack Arnold yesterday when she entertained the ladies of the Needle Workers Club for one o'clock luncheon. Following that the afternoon was spent in sewing and conversation. The members present were Mesdames Josh Ruble, E. A. Wimer, George A. Gilman, E. L. Hand, F. A. Pook, F. B. Osmond, C. J. Elwood, Ray Simpson, W. D. Simmons and Mrs. John Belloni, of Myrtle Point. Guests for the day were Mesdames C. C. Bonniksen, Sam Arnold, W. E. Cross, E. C. Yarbrough and Paul Osmond. For their next meeting Mrs. Belloni has invited the ladies to her home in Myrtle Point.

The hostesses to the Justamere club members yesterday at a one o'clock luncheon were Mrs. L. H. Hazard and Mrs. Hal W. Pierce. They entertained their guests at the home of Mrs. Hazard on East Third street. Pink chrysanthemums and pink candles were used on the luncheon table where covers were laid for Mesdames Frank L. Greenough, H. A. Young, Paul Van Scoy, W. S. Sicksels, R. A. Wernich, Neils Osmundson, C. J. Fuhrman, Addie Hacker, J. L. Smith and Bert Folsom.

Mrs. F. C. Hudson entertained with two lovely evening bridge parties this week at her home at 141 South Coulter street, including guests for several tables Thursday and also this evening. The decorations about the rooms were chrysanthemums and carnations. High and low score prizes were provided for both evenings. Yesterday's guests were Mesdames M. H. Hersey, M. J. Hartson, T. B. Currie, H. H. Oerding, James Watson, Robert Watson, J. E. Paulson, Walter Litzengerger, Ed. McKeown, Hal W. Pierce, Jack Lefevre, R. E. Boober, Edwin L. Kay. This evening's guests are Mesdames R. B. Miller, H. W. Covalt, R. F. Miller, Julius Ruble, C. W. Gano, F. W. Martin, E. L. Vinton, J. D. Gillespie, Misses Elsie Straus, Helen Roseman, Esther Casto, Maxine Paulson, Evelyn Soes, Dean Harding and Charlotte Andrews.

The group of ladies dressed as Hula Hula Girls in the Corn Show parade bought a lovely big turkey with their prize money and enjoyed a no-host dinner, including their husbands at the affair, Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Leach. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Slagle, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Zosel, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Clinton and Mr. and Mrs. Leach.

The second of a series of three dinner dances for young married people of Coquille, Myrtle Point, Bandon and Coos Bay, was held in the banquet room of the hotel here last evening. About forty couples were present and a most enjoyable time was had by all. The next dance will be held after the first of the year.

Clausen-Alpine

Miss Bernice B. Alpine, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Alpine, of River-ton, and Lester K. Clausen, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Clausen, of Leneve, were married at a quiet ceremony at ten o'clock, Wednesday morning, November 19th, at the St. James Episcopal Church, Coquille, by Rev. Hale B. Eubanks. Only immediate members of the family were in attendance.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a combination brown velvet and chiffon dress, with hat to match. She carried a prayer-book. Mrs. Clausen is a graduate of the Riverton High School and until recently was personal tax collector for Coos county.

The young couple left immediately after the ceremony for parts unknown and upon their return will be at home on the large ranch which Mr. Clausen owns near Leneve.

Billings-Bennett

At the M. E. parsonage Tuesday afternoon, Rev. G. A. Gray performed the wedding ceremony uniting Berlin Billings and Ione Bennett, both of Powers. They were accompanied by the bride's mother, Mrs. Pearl Cardwell, and the groom's sister-in-law, Mrs. Maybelle Billings.
