A SQUARE DEAL

We guard our good name, and our reputation for protecting our customers. We are determined to speed up business. We make this adjustment NOW, not later. We take our loss gracefully. We are reducing the price on every garment in stock. Only our unwavering fidelity to our customers' confidence and our square dealing policy could influence us to make such a drastic reduction. We have to readjust our stocks owing to the drop in the present market conditions. Every single garment must be sold. Our stocks are absolutely all new merchandise, but we must sacrifice them and take our loss—to our customers' benefit.
