News Notes From Powers

King's pack train took 900 lbs. of supplies to Iron Mountain for Geo. Sutton, Willis Coy, Hal Baxter and George Smith, who have quartz mines there. Sutton stated Saturday that they have all the equipment contracted for, except mill, for putting in a cyanide outfit in the spring. Sutton had his winter supplies all in early in the fall but was burned out about ten days ago, while he was working in the tunnel and everything was a complete loss.

Brownie Atkinson, who attended school in Powers several years ago and has been living in Klamath Falls since, has been in Powers for several days greeting his old school pals.

Powers high school played their opening league game Friday night at Lakeside. Line-ups and points were:

Lakeside	Powers
T. Simpson	F
Jacobson	F
Bowron	C
Menegat	G
W. Simpson	G
	2 Warner

Powers subs: Grant, Otis and Powers.

It was a good fast game, Lakeside holding Powers down, the score standing 4-2 in the first half. Powers gained in the second half, finishing with a victory of 14-4. Coach Griner accompanied the team.

Julian Rebecca Stewart, wife of Charles W. Stewart, passed away Thursday night at the age of 58 years, nine months and 25 days. Services were held at the Schroeder Mortuary January 11, 1931 at 11 a. m. with Rev. E. G. Ranton in charge. Pall bearers were Jim Collier, Harold Man-waring, John Purvis, T. S. Zimmerman, E. O. Sempert and Bob Liggett. Mystic Chapter, O. E. S., were in charge of the beautiful services at the grave at Sunset cemetery. Julian R. Giles was born at Myrtle Point, Oregon. She was married to Chas. W. Stewart July 3, 1893. To this union were born Fay Nash, of Portland, and Ray, Harry and Hillis Stewart, of Powers. There are three grandchildren. Three half brother, William and Clarke Giles, of San Francisco, and Claud, of Marshfield, survive her. There are also her step-mother, Mrs. Nannie Giles, of Herford, Arizona; sister, May Harris, Myrtle Point; Daisy Short, Biebee, Ariz.; Ann Dickey, Herford, Ariz.; and brothers, John, of Ventura, California, and Sam, of Herford, Ariz. Mrs. Stewart was a beautiful woman with a true, loving character which endeared her to all who knew her.

Mrs. Kenneth Murdock gave a delightful little bridge party Monday evening. High score went to Mrs. Wes. Appleton. Those enjoying the evening were Mrs. Hadley Curtis, Mrs. W. A. Winn, Florence Stewart, Mrs. C. E. Otis, Maecel Barton, Mrs. David M. Fox, Ethel Littler, Mrs. Wes. Appleton and the hostess, Mrs. Murdock. A lovely lunch was served at the close of the evening.

Schiller B. Hermann, an old pioneer of Coos county, was in Powers last week and took a trip out to the nugget patch where E. L. Vinton, Ernie Schneider, John Wilson and Alvan King were surveying claims and water. It is estimated that Johnson creek will run a three foot pipe of water for seven months of the year.

The Divilbliss mines on upper Sixes near the old Avery place have been sold to J. A. Marshall, of Tonopah, Nevada, who took in 800 lbs. supplies last week and has a crew of five men at work, getting the trail ready to ship in machinery.

Curtis Rolf passed away Saturday morning at his home in Powers at the age of 77 years. He was born at Southham, Quebec, Canada. Later he moved to Minnesota, where he engaged in farming until seven years ago when he retired and he and Mrs. Rolf moved to Powers to be near their children. Mrs. Rolf passed away last February. He leaves four children: Lyman, of Coquille; Allan, of Powers; Francena Murray, of Williamstown, Vt.; and Rowena Monroe, of Powers. There are ten grandchildren. Services were conducted by Rev. S. C. Adams, of Powers at the Schroeder Mortuary at Myrtle Point, burial at the Norway cemetery.

The R. N. A. Valley Camp held their regular meeting Monday night. Lizzie Erickson transferred from Camp 1018, Chisholm, Minn., and was welcomed to the camp room. Minnie King acted as installing officer assisted by Eleanor Griner as ceremonial marshal, and installed the following:

O. Pearl Aubin; P. O. Esther Stewart; V. O. Molly Stevens; Marshal, Myrtle Crew; A. M. Alsie Royer; Recorder, Rosa McAdams; Receiver, Adryl Davis; I. S. Evelyn Stock; O. S. Alie Hunt; Mgr. Marie Mortensen, E. E. Royer; C. Mabel Enyert; Chan. Leila Allen; V. Elba Epperson; M. Gladys Boles; E. Vera Carty; F. Viola Frye; Flagbearer, Bonnie Frye. The camp presented Past Oracle Esther Stewart with a beautiful R. N. A. pin. During the social hour Neighbors Mortensen, Lewis and McAdams served a delicious supper. There will be no camp meeting January 26 for that is rally day at Coquille.

treatment. I had to take some kind of laxative almost every night to get relief from constipation and this kept my stomach upset. I had indigestion after every meal and was always bilious and dizzy headed.

"My appetite picked up as soon as I started on Sargon and I never have indigestion now. The Sargon Pills regulated me in a natural way and for the first time in fifteen years I don't have to take laxatives. I just feel like a different woman."—Mrs. Chas. Pierce, 298 Buffalo St., Portland, Oregon.
