

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Coleman and son, Lester, left Sunday morning for their home at Forest Grove, after a week's visit at the James Guerin home.

Bill Donald returned home from Dallas where he spent several months working in a garage. He is engaged in the logging business with his father on Sandy creek.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Shaw, of Aberdeen, Washington, are visiting friends and relatives in Myrtle Point this week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Coleman and daughter, Betty Lou, and Ray Guerin left Monday morning for Portland. They plan to return the last of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Coleman will make their home on a farm at Broadbent for the next few months and may decide to remain here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heard and daughter, Charlotte, of Los Angeles, California, arrived Monday and are visiting at the home of Reuben Rouppe. Mr. Heard and Mr. Rouppe are cousins.

Adrian Bowen and Miss Pauline Johnson, of Roseburg, called on friends in Myrtle Point Sunday. They spent the afternoon on the Bandon Beach.

Mrs. Arnold went to Powers the first of the week for a week's visit at the home of her son, Dick, and family.

Mrs. Frank Spencer, of Reedsport, is spending this week visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Albert Carver.

Mr. and Mrs. Morris Witheman and daughter, of Portland, arrived the last of the week for a visit at the home of his brother Frank Witheman. On Sunday the two families and the Richard Haughton family spent the day on Bandon Beach.

Mrs. Andrew Culver, of Portland, is spending this week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Owens.

Mrs. Nellie Millbury went to Marshfield the first of the week for a visit with her friend, Mrs. Audrey Hodson.

The 4-H club spent a pleasant afternoon Wednesday at the home of Priscilla Deyoe. Part of the afternoon was spent crocheting, after which games were enjoyed. A delicious lunch was served. Club members present were Juanita Huff, Edith Redell, Joan Morris, Loree Randleman, Josephine Deyoe, Wilma Rodell, Marianna Steel was a guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Mood Eckley are visiting this week at the home of Mrs.

Eckley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ray.

Mrs. P. W. Laird delightfully entertained the Past Matrons' Club of the Easter Star order Tuesday afternoon at her home on the Roseburg highway. The rooms were beautifully decorated with bouquets of mixed flowers. The afternoon was spent in playing bridge. High score went to Mrs. C. Moller. Mrs. Lester received guest prize. Those who enjoyed the afternoon together were Mesdames T. D. Guerin, Belle Whitaker, W. Lundy, R. Lemon, Bud Emery, A. C. Chase, R. Dement, Lester Dement, Chas. Harlocker, C. Moeller, Mrs. Claud Giles, of Marshfield; Mrs. Nan die Giles, of San Francisco, and Mrs. Minnie Lester, of Corcoran, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Airey and two children, Elizabeth and Wilford, left the first of the week for their home at Forest Grove after a few days' visit at the home of Mrs. Airey's sister, Mrs. B. Bennett.

Katherine Bollenbaugh, of Marshfield, is spending this week visiting at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Huntley.

Miss Audrey Wagner entered the Mast hospital Tuesday and was operated on for appendicitis. She is reported getting along nicely.

Mr. Mann made a business trip to Portland this week.

A. Peak, of Jamestown, New York, was a Myrtle Point visitor Tuesday. He left Wednesday morning for San Diego, Calif., where he will visit relatives.

Elwood Carrey, of Long Beach, California, is visiting this week at the home of his niece, Mrs. Charles Bellshaw.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Kenyon and Al den Deyoe spent Sunday at Gold Beach.

The Appolo male quartette, of La Verne, Calif. College, gave an entertainment at the Brethren Church Monday evening.

A. J. Radabaugh arrived home last week from Eugene where he visited a brother and family.

Arriving home Monday from an automobile trip that took them half way across the continent and back another route, Mayor Chas. Harlocker and Mrs. Harlocker are convinced that for comfortable climate Coos county has a little bit the edge on the rest of the country, says the Myrtle Point Herald. They left about the first of June intending to go east only as far as Denver, but visited Detroit, Chicago, and other points on their seven weeks' trip.

Live News From Arago

Mr. and Mrs. Adrien Halter, Mrs. Alma Halter and children took a trip to Silver Falls last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burbank and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lockhart spent last week end on an outing at Floras Lake. They returned home Monday.

The ladies missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Maude MacDonald Wednesday afternoon. The contest is ended and the Rose side, of which Mrs. Mac Carl is captain, lost and paid the forfeit, by entertaining the Pansy side Wednesday. Mrs. Bernice Gulstrom is captain of the winning side. A very pleasant afternoon was spent, exploring the woods, visiting and doing stunts, after which a delightful luncheon was served.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schroeder, Lois, Mrs. Emily Hickam and son, Kent, Mr. and Mrs. Price Robison attended the Masonic picnic at Lee Sunday.

The Arago store is progressing very fast, in spite of a few holdbacks. The cement was all poured for the basement Monday.

Practically all the 4-H club members of Arago attended the club picnic at Broadbent Sunday. A splendid crowd was present from all parts of the county, nearly every club being represented. A very enjoyable day was spent, swimming, playing games and sports of all kinds. Each club was held responsible for some part of the day's program.

Rev. W. S. Smith, of Coquille, will preach the third Sunday of the month and Rev. Jesse Barnett will preach the first Sunday, until different arrangements are announced.

Misses Bertha and Zada Tyrrell, of Pasadena, Calif., are visiting their sister, Mrs. Edith Woodward.

LaVaun Aasen, Winnie Paul and Aerial MacDonald returned Sunday evening from San Francisco where they have been attending the National Christian Endeavor convention the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Frazier Hoffman met them at Roseburg. They all reported a fine trip and a very enjoyable time while in the city. They will give their special report to the Endeavor next Sunday evening.

Leon Paul has the foundation laid for his new house.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Hollenbeck have moved on to his father's ranch on upper Fishtrap.

Mrs. J. B. Moomaw Jr. is enjoying a visit with her mother, Mrs. Johnston, of Myrtle Point.

Miss Rosa Knight and Mrs. Chas. Stallard, of Powers, were visitors at the Wendell Robison home last week. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Lockhart visited

Busy Corner Grocery

FOLLOW the gentleman with wings on his feet to the JOY store if you would help your wife by putting wings on laundry day, the thrice-daily battle with the dishes and all her housework.

Follow him to a la carte bathing (as you wish and when you wish); he'll lead you to shaves that make your face say "many thanks;" he'll show you a new way to delightful personal comfort without equal.

Come now if you wish hot water rushing at airplane speed from every faucet, never-slow... never-stingy... never-disappointing... never-failing.

Come so you may have a true picture of gas-heated water, its small cost, its perfect service and the greatest water heater bargain offer ever made.

Put wings on your feet—and come!

Natural Gas Corporation of Oregon

Coquille Hotel Bldg.

Phone 205

last week at the C. E. Schroeder home.

Mrs. Marvin Shaw returned home Saturday from Ashland, where she has been attending summer school.

Mrs. Lucille Hewitt is visiting this week with her sister, Mrs. Wendell Robison.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Myers and Mrs. Stanley Halter made a business trip to Marshfield Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Barklow have moved to Lakeside, where Mr. Barklow is employed driving truck on the road work.

John Haberly returned to his home in Portland Saturday, having spent a week visiting his sisters, Mrs. O. H. Aasen and Mrs. Cleve McAllister, and camping at Bandon. Mrs. Haberly and the children remained at Bandon for a longer outing.

Mrs. Maude MacDonald returned home Saturday from a week's outing at Silver Falls. She accompanied Mrs. Martha Mulkey and Mrs. Nina Nosler, of Coquille, on a camping trip there. All reported a very pleasant time.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodward made a business trip to Salem Monday. They returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Collier, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Robison, Frank Sinko and Antio Sinko enjoyed a picnic supper on the beach at Bandon Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Aasen, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve McAllister and children, Shelby and Mary Jean, spent Sunday on the Bandon beach.

Miss Janeth Day and Al Persons were united in marriage at the bride's home below Bandon Sunday afternoon. Rev. T. B. MacDonald conducted the ceremony with only the immediate family present. The happy couple departed immediately after the ceremony for a short honeymoon trip. Miss Day formerly taught school at Arago and Mr. Persons is employed with the Mountain States Power Co. at Marshfield. They will make their home at Marshfield.

Brewster Valley

Percy Krewson gave a very interesting talk after Sunday School on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prohaska are home again. Mr. Prohaska has been fighting fire.

Ernest Krewson and family were Coquille visitors last week.

Mrs. Lester Groat visited Mrs. Ivan Laird on Sunday.

J. D. Laird was in Coquille on Monday of this week.

It being such a warm day last Sun-

Special at Hooker's
Greasing, complete job, on any make of automobile.
$1.00
Done by expert mechanic.
Transmission and differential service extra
Telephone 164
Front St. Coquille

day quite a large crowd of people gathered at the Abernethy place and enjoyed a swim.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Laird and family, also Mrs. C. M. Wilson, started for Portland Tuesday morning. They will be gone for a few days.

Knife Hospital Notes
Dismissals have been the order of the day at the Knife Hospital this week. Mrs. Louise Langenberg was dismissed Tuesday, and Archie Bushnell, of Myrtle Point, who entered last Saturday for treatment, was able to leave Tuesday.

Mrs. Lena Kellenburger, who has recovered from a major operation, was able to leave Tuesday, and Mrs. Ramona Dornath, of Halls creek, was able to leave the same day.

Mrs. J. G. Carpenter was removed to her home yesterday.

Sentinel and Sunset $2.25
Due to a special arrangement with the publishers of Sunset Magazine, the Sentinel is able to offer to new subscribers the magazine and this paper for $2.25. The regular combined price for the two is $3.00.

PILES GUARANTEED TO YIELD TO CHINESE REMEDY
If you suffer from itching, blind, protruding or bleeding Piles you are likely to be amazed at the soothing, healing power of the rare, imported Chinese Balm, which fortifies Dr. Nixon's Chinamoid. It's the newest and fastest acting treatment out. Brings ease and comfort in a few minutes so that you can work and enjoy life while it continues its soothing, healing action. Don't delay. Act in time to avoid a dangerous and costly operation. Try Dr. Nixon's Chinamoid under our guarantee to satisfy completely and be worth 100 times the small cost of your money back.
Fuhrman's Pharmacy

News Notes From Powers
F. A. Stewart and Slim Thompson spent the week-end at the Divilbiss mines. They went in by saddle horse by the way of Tim creek.

Rebekah installation was held Monday evening with the district deputy president, Mae Langston, in the chair. Late in the evening a lovely lunch was served. Those installed were Della Tanner, N. G.; Minnie King, V. G.; J. W. Tanner, Secy.; Mae Langston, treasurer; Clara Lapp, A. S. N. G.; Zeneba Widmark, L. S. N. G.; Ida Mae Matthews, R. S. N. G.; Frankie Duncan, L. S. N. G.; Cora Leggett, warden; Anna Payne, conductress; Russell Murdock, musician; John Widmark, I. G.; Elmer Duncan, O. G.; Nellie Lewis, Chaplain.

B. V. Morrow is a guest at the Sparks home. He is an experienced miner and is preparing to go into the hills immediately.

Ethel Murphy is on crutches, having wrenched her knee.

The Royal Neighbors picnic will be held Sunday at the orchard.

Mrs. C. H. Crew has made several trips to Coquille to visit her sister, Mrs. Lester White, who has been seriously ill. The White family recently moved to Coquille from Bandon.

John Hewett, from the Bradford station, made a business visit to Powers the first of the week.

Kolapla Camp Fire girls met at the Shop swimming hole Tuesday afternoon with their guardians, Mrs. J. W. Gamwell and Martha Lindley. Those present were Frances Ellen King, Bonnie Crew, Helen Lewis, Juanita Murphy, Louise Thorp, Billy Ann Horton, Vivian Goble, Carol Briggs, Clara Quillough and Velda Allen.

Calling cards 100 for $1.50.