

What The Examiners Will Ask Auto Drivers

Ward McNeely, examiner of the operator's division of Hal Ross' office, was in Coquille Wednesday conducting examinations and was a caller at the Sentinel office.

Asked about the enforcement of the new automobile brake law he stated that if the brakes on the car driven by one he was giving an examination to, were ineffective that he stopped the examination right then and ordered the candidate to come back after the brakes were adjusted. He also said that he expected to see the traffic squad make the same kind of a brake test before long as has been given lights for several years.

There are 97 questions in the list, any 30 of which may be propounded in an examination for driver's license, making it necessary for a person to know them all. To facilitate the work of the examiners as well as to possibly aid those being examined, the Sentinel expects to publish the questions and answers of a certain number each week and to those who are coming up for examinations, as all must in the next three years, it is suggested that the queries be filed for future reference:

The page number and section number following each answer refers to page and section in the Motor Vehicle Laws.

1. Q. What persons are exempt from buying operators' licenses?

Ans. Persons driving or operating a road roller, road machinery or any farm tractor or implement of husbandry, temporarily drawn, moved, or propelled on the highways.

Persons in the service of the army, navy or marine corps, furnished with a driver's permit and when operating an official motor vehicle in such service.

Nonresidents over the age of 16 who have been duly licensed elsewhere, and have said valid license in their immediate possession. (Page 86, section 3.)

2. Q. Can a nonresident, whose operator's or chauffeur's license has been revoked in another state, operate in Oregon?

Ans. No. (Page 87, section 4, subdivision c.)

3. Q. How old must a person be to obtain:

(a) Student's permit?

Ans. 14 years. (Page 87, section 5.)

(b) Operator's license?

Ans. 16 years. (Page 87, section 5.)

(c) License to drive a school bus?

Ans. 18 years. (Page 89, section 6.)

(d) Chauffeur's license?

Ans. 18 years. (Page 87, section 6.)

(e) License to drive a public passenger bus?

Ans. 21 years. (Page 89, section 6.)

4. Q. Can a nonresident operate a car licensed in this state?

Ans. Yes, if he has in his immediate possession a license issued to him in his home state.

No, if his state requires a license and he has never obtained one. Except, any nonresident over 16 years of age, from a state not requiring a license, may operate a car which has been duly registered for the current calendar year in the state or country of which the owner is a resident, for a period of not more than 90 days in any one year. He may be required to prove lawful possession or the right to operate such motor vehicle and establish his proper identity.

No, if his license is suspended or revoked.

Example: A friend from a state that does not require a license may operate your car if your car is properly licensed by you in the state where you reside.

Can a resident of Oregon use in Oregon a car licensed in another state? No. (Page 40.)

5. Q. Who is a nonresident?

Ans. Every person who is not a resident of this state.

6. Q. What is a student permit?

Ans. A special permit issued to persons over the age of 14 to operate over the highways as a means of transportation to and from any school, college or other educational institution. (Page 87, section 5a.)

7. Q. May an operator or a chauffeur whose license has been suspended or revoked obtain a new license?

Ans. No. Not during the period for which the license is suspended or until the expiration of one year after such license was revoked. (Page 88, section 5b, and section 27, page 98.)

8. Can an habitual drunkard or a person addicted to the use of narcotic drugs obtain a license?

Ans. No. (Page 88, section 5c.)

9. Q. Can a person afflicted with, or suffering from, any physical or mental disability or disease which might affect the operation by him of a motor vehicle, obtain a license?

Ans. Not unless the applicant can demonstrate personally that he is a proper person to operate a motor vehicle. The secretary of state may require a certificate, signed by a proper authority; a restricted license may be

10. Q. Can any person who is unable to understand highway warning or direction signs in the English language be granted a license?

Ans. No. (Page 89, section 5e.)

11. Q. How may a person who does not know how to drive gain the necessary experience to get a license?

Ans. Upon application for an operator's license by an inexperienced driver, the examiner may issue a 60-day permit which will permit the applicant to operate a car when accompanied by a licensed operator who is actually occupying a seat beside the driver. (Page 90, section 7.)

12. Q. How and where must application be made for an operator's license?

Ans. Upon approved form of application furnished by the secretary of state and before an authorized examiner at designated points in the state. (Page 90, section 8a.)

13. Q. What would you do if you lost your operator's or chauffeur's license?

Ans. A duplicate will be issued upon furnishing satisfactory proof to the secretary of state that such license has been lost or destroyed and upon the payment of a fee of 25c for duplicate operator's license and $1.00 for duplicate chauffeur's license. (Page 93, section 14.)

14. Q. Where must you keep your operator's license while driving?

Ans. In your immediate possession. (Page 93, section 15.)

15. Q. When does a chauffeur's license expire?

Ans. On June 30 of each year. (Page 94, section 16b.)

16. Q. How may your operator's or chauffeur's license be affected by the ruling of a court having jurisdiction over the violation of the motor vehicle laws?

Ans. A record of convictions will be endorsed on the back of the license by the court and a record made in the secretary of state's office. Said court may also recommend the suspension or revocation of an operator's or chauffeur's license. (Page 97, section 30.)

17. Q. For what reasons must the secretary of state revoke an operator's or chauffeur's license?

Ans. (a) The secretary of state shall forthwith revoke the license of any person upon receiving a record of the conviction of such person of any of the following crimes:

1. Manslaughter resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle.

2. Driving a vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating or narcotic drugs.

3. Perjury or the making of a false affidavit to the secretary of state under this act or any other law of this state requiring registration or motor vehicles or regulating their operation on highways.

4. Any crime punishable as a felony under the motor vehicle laws of this state or any other felony in the commission of which a motor vehicle is used.

5. Conviction or forfeiture of bail upon three charges of reckless driving all within the preceding 12 months.

6. A conviction of a driver of a motor vehicle, involved in an accident resulting in the death of injury to another person, upon a charge of failing to stop and disclose his identity at the scene of the accident. (Page 94, section 18a.)

(b) The secretary of state, upon receiving a record of the conviction of any person upon a charge of operating a motor vehicle while the license of such a person is suspended or revoked, shall immediately extend the period or such first suspension or revocation for an additional like period.

18. Q. When may your license be suspended or revoked?

Ans. The secretary of state may immediately suspend the license of any person without hearing and without receiving a record of conviction of such person of crime whenever the secretary of state has reason to believe:

(1) That such person has committed any offenses for the conviction of which mandatory revocation of license is provided in section 18.

(2) That such person has, by reckless or unlawful operation of a motor vehicle, caused or contributed to an accident resulting in death or injury to any other person or serious property damage.

(3) That such person is incompetent to drive a motor vehicle or is afflicted with mental or physical infirmities or disabilities rendering it unsafe for such person to drive a motor vehicle upon the highways.

(4) That such person is an habitual reckless or negligent driver of a motor vehicle or has committed a serious violation of the motor vehicle laws of this state. (Page 95, section 19a.)

19. Q. What recourse does an operator have if his license is suspended?

Ans. He will be afforded an opportunity of a hearing before the secretary of state in the county where he resides. (Page 95, section 19a.)

THE MORE EXCELLENT WAY

In my Vision I glimpse a earth that is new,
And Love is the King in my Heavenly view.
In fulfilling the Law, the more excellent way.
All that is done is not for I, but for they.

Where Life is greater than in earth of old,
When all seemed done for I, and for gold,
A Vision it is of a Millennial Day
Where all shall be done not for I, but for they.

In this World of Love it is understood
That each seeks his own in another's good,
Whatever we do, whether we work or we play,
All that we do is not for I, but for they.

Here Flowers of Affection give fragrance rare,
And Perfume of Gratitude sweetens the air,
And the song birds' warbling seems sweetly to say,
We are voicing our joys for us, and for they.

Here Fields of Thought yield abundant their bread,
The Tree of Life gives fruit, and the hungry are fed,
The showers of blessings are falling each day,
Their bounty is not for I, but for they.

In that bright happy State there are pleasures and health,
None hoard, but all give their abundance of wealth,
O may we be faithful in living today,
To let Love be supreme, the more excellent way.

When we deal with our brother full measure we meet,
To us it returns; as full and complete,
And the Law of True Living works out in Love's way,
When all that is done is not for I, but for they.

Drivers of sixes never want less because it takes six cylinders to give the smooth, silent power that makes driving really enjoyable

CHEVROLET Drivers of sixes are spoiled for anything less. Drivers of sixes are sold on multiple cylinders. They would no more think of giving up "six" performance than any other real advancement of motoring. For them, the whole cylinder question has been settled.

Slip behind the wheel of a Chevrolet Six, and you'll know why these drivers feel as they do. Step on the starter, let the motor idle—and notice its silence. Throw in the clutch, shift into "low"—and feel that smoothness. Change into "second," hit a faster and faster clip, slip into "high," sweep along at top speed—then throttle down to barely a crawl. The smoothness and flexibility you always get are six-cylinder smoothness, six-cylinder flexibility. Annoying vibration is gone!

Over two million owners have tested and proved this six-cylinder Chevrolet engine. They have found that it costs less for gas and oil than any other. They have found that it actually reduces upkeep costs, by holding vibration to a minimum. They know a six is better in every way—and they would never be satisfied with less!

Twenty beautiful models, at prices ranging from $475 to $675
All prices f.o.b. Flint, Michigan, special equipment extra. Low delivered prices and easy C. M. A. C. terms.
