Junior Hi Notes

The present enrollment for Lincoln school is 304; 122 of whom are in the Junior Hi. Five new students have joined us, Jean and Wade Rice, Laura Harrison, Thelma Dennis and Virginia Hartson. All have been in our school before but were late in entering for various reasons.

Only two of the Jr. Hi rooms have organized thus far. The 8B class in Miss Shone's room has elected Raymond Williams, president; Margaret Belloni, vice president; Robert Waggoner, secretary; Norman Ricketts, sergeant-at-arms, and Doris Compton, representative at the student council.

The 7 A's in Mr. Thompson's room elected John Hickam, president; Charlotte McNair, vice president; and Ella Arneson, secretary. Other officers will be elected later.

News Notes From Powers

The Mt. Baker trail crew have been laid off for the winter. All funds for trails for this season have been spent. The Forest Service still have all lookout men at their stations and if this weather continues there will be another fire season.

High school students initiated the Freshman class Thursday evening with the usual jokes. Friday evening the upper classmen gave the Freshmen a lovely party.

Thursday evening the Gilbert boy was put in jail on a drunk and disorderly charge. He had not been locked up long when he set the jail on fire. The alarm was turned in and the fire did not do any damage.

The Powers Parent-Teacher Association met Friday for their first meeting of the year. A large crowd attended. Ruth Ann Crawford played a piano solo. Ethel Littler spoke a few minutes about the Red Cross First Aid course, in which a class was later organized and Mrs. Robt Stevens was appointed chairman. The class will meet September 30 in the Fellowship hall at 7:30 p. m. On October third the P. T. A. will give an informal party in honor of the teachers. They are also sponsoring a Powers community booth at the Coos-Curry Fair. The Powers booth shows home products, gardening, canning and fancy work. A few old pieces will be on exhibit.

Christian Science Churches

"Matter" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 20.

The Golden Text was "Heaven and earth shall pass away, but my words shall not pass away." (Matt. 24:35.)

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted." (Ps. 46:6.)

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Spirituality lays open siege to materialism. . . . The conventional firm, called matter and mind, God never formed. . . . This suppositional partnership is already obsolete, for matter, examined in the light of divine metaphysics, disappears." (pp. 216, 274.)

Rebekahs Celebrate 50th Anniversary of the Order

Last Wednesday evening the members of the Rebekah Degree celebrated their 50th anniversary with a potluck supper and program. There was a large attendance and the tables were loaded with a variety of delicious eatables.

After the regular business session, the members and guests enjoyed the following program: Piano solo, Margaret Staninger; dance, Virginia Oerding; vocal solo, Ruth Beyers; piano solo, Donna Dean Bosserman. Mrs. Maury gave a very interesting talk on Rebekahhood. Song by trio, Effie Johnson, Amy Aasen, Birdie Skeels.

Mrs. Martindale, past state president of Washington, gave a brief history of the Rebekah Degree, saying that it was through the personal efforts of Schuyler Colfax, co-operating with others, who had long advocated the admission of women to the activities of Odd Fellowship, they formulated a plan which resulted in the institution of Rebekah Fellowship in Sept. 1881, although it was not until 1888 the law was passed placing Rebekah lodges in an independent position and enabling them to exercise the exclusive right to confer the degree. We are justly proud, for to Odd Fellowship is due the credit of being the first order to admit women. Mrs. Martindale also spoke of the wonderful teachings of the Rebekah work and of how much good can be accomplished if we live up to its teachings.

After a few minutes of social talks the members adjourned feeling they had spent a very enjoyable and profitable evening.

In the "Flower Grower" for September, 1931, I note in an article on Iris that three principal diseases of the iris are Leafspot, Rhizome Rot and Iris Borer. "The leafspot appears about flowering time, lasts until the end of the summer. On the young leaves the spots are minute and brown with a water-soaked margin which later turns yellow. On older leaves the spots have a grayish center dotted with black fruiting tufts of the fungus. The parasite over-winters in old leaves. On these are produced, in the spring, a crop of spores which causes infection of the new leaves. In localities having very mild winters, spore production and infection of party green leaves may be scarcely interrupted. In regions where the foliage dies completely during the winter it has been found that thorough removal and destruction of the old tops by burning before the new leaves appear in the spring, prevents recurrence of the disease. In milder sections, however, it may be necessary to remove the tops in the fall, so as to prevent the disease remaining more or less active all the winter." Better look to your iris now, friends, as I have seen a number of stands of it in town. The other diseases mentioned are more common and you probably all know how to combat them.

"Bonemeal is one of the best general fertilizers for flowers because it contains not only nitrogen but phosphorus. It is useful for all sorts of flowers and may be scattered over the soil-so that it is white. Cultivate this into the soil and the value of this fertilizer will last through the season. There is no danger in applying too they were not very successful, F. W. Prohaska and a hunting party from Marshfield reported a very good time.
