

THE BEST TIRE BUYS IN 30 YEARS

.. and we can prove it!

We won't waste words here. Come in and see why this tire is one of the world's best sellers.

Latest Improved
GOODYEAR
PATHFINDER
Supertwist Cord Tire

$4.98
4.40-21
(29x4.40)

$9.60 per pair
Lifetime Guaranteed
OTHER SIZES EQUALLY LOW

Size	Each	Pair
4.50-20 (29x4.50)	$5.60	$10.90
4.50-21 (30x4.50)	5.69	11.10
4.75-19 (28x4.75)	6.65	12.90
5.25-21 (31x5.25)	8.57	16.70
30x3 1/2 Reg. Cl.	4.39	8.54

Size	Price	Size	Price
30x5	$17.95	32x6	$29.75
6.00-20 (32x6.00)	15.35

TUBES ALSO LOW PRICED

COQUILLE SERVICE STATION

Phone 133

Hooker's Garage
Open Day & Night

Strang's Garage
Day and Night Service

Live News From Arago

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carl left Wednesday morning on a trip to Portland. Judge D. F. Thompson and wife accompanied them. Mr. Carl and Mr. Thompson will attend the judges' and commissioners' convention, being held in Portland this week. Mr. and Mrs. Carl will also visit his brother, Herman, at Hubbard, and stop over at Corvallis Saturday to attend the football game and visit their son, Kenneth, who is attending school there.

Mr. and Mrs. Cleve McAllister enjoyed a visit Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Wannamough, of Bandon.

Mrs. M. B. Mix is enjoying having her son home again. He has spent the last few months in a California sanitarium.

Mrs. Alma Halter entertained as dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Danielson, of Bridge; Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Halter, of Arago; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Halter and Mrs. Sanders, of Coquille.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Fleming returned home Saturday from Yakima. They have spent the past two months there picking fruit. They are visiting at present with Mrs. Fleming's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Schroeder.

Shelby McAllister had the misfortune to be badly burned Friday. While trying to start a fire with gasoline, the can of gasoline caught fire with it in his hand and in trying to carry it out his shirt caught fire and he is nursing some severe burns about his arms.

The Arago Cheese Co. had an offer from a California buyer to purchase the factory and a business meeting was held Friday evening to talk over such a possibility but the majority did not wish to sell so it was decided to continue as before.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gulstrom are rejoicing over the birth of a nine pound boy, born Sunday evening. This is their second child.

Mrs. Fred Lafferty and little daughter, Janice, took a trip to Corvallis last week end with Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Guerin, of Myrtle Point. They visited friends while there.

home on Fishtrap the past year. Clarence Schroeder and Lester Clinton made a trip to Roseburg Monday to purchase a load of grain.

C. A. Keltner is having his barn repaired with a new roof. Frank Lane and John Everson are doing the work.

Mrs. Goldie Lawrence has returned from Los Angeles, California, and will spend the winter with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Tenn Robison.

Miss Gladys Bayles was ill on Monday and unable to teach school.

Melden Carl returned to school Monday after a week's absence, owing to infection in his foot.

J. A. Yates had the misfortune to lose his house and all household goods when his house caught fire and burned to the ground Tuesday evening. The origin of the fire is not known at this time.

Albert Lillie made a business trip to Bandon Tuesday.

Mrs. Leon Paul is caring for Mrs. Albert Gulstrom and infant son for a couple of weeks.

Mrs. C. C. Robison, Mrs. Albert Lillie and Mrs. C. E. Schroeder spent Tuesday with their mother, Mrs. Price Robison, it being her birthday. A bountiful birthday dinner was served with the members of the immediate family present.

Two divisions of the 4-H club were organized in the Arago school last week. Division I sewing club and handicrafts will have Mrs. Marvin Shaw as leader of the sewing club and Leo Hearing for the handicrafts. The sewing club elected their officers as follows: president, Iris Barklow; vice president, Annie Deardorff; secretary, Mary Helen Watkins. The officers of the handicraft club: president, Fred Miller; vice president, Cecil Patrick; secretary, Freddie Vetter. Their meetings will be held each Friday afternoon.

Riverton News
Mrs. J. D. Donaldson, of Leneve, left for Mentone, California, Wednesday, where she will visit for some time with her brother and family. Her brother and wife were visiting here in Coos county during the summer.

Mrs. A. C. Dye had for guests Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bean, A. E. Haan, music instructor in the school, and Mr. and Mrs. C.

M. Hartwell and daughter, Cherie Mae. The evening was spent in singing and music. The hostess served as refreshments delicious cider and mince pie.

E. A. Smith and son, Eugene, made a trip to Coquille Thursday.

The high school freshman boys played a basket ball game last Friday afternoon with the seventh and eighth grade boys and lost with a score of 20 to 23. This was about the first practice game and all of the boys showed up well. Ansel Hayward coaches the grade teams and Mr. Beck, the principal, coaches the high school athletics.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin L. Kathan, of Coquille, visited Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Smith Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bailey and two little sons, of Hinkley, California, visited at the C. M. Hartwell home Sunday afternoon. Mr. Bailey was a school-mate of Mr. Hartwell thirty-five years ago in eastern Oregon and Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Hartwell attended high school together in Mountain Home, Idaho, twenty-five years ago. Mr. Bailey is here to rent or buy a dairy farm in the Coquille valley.

The freshmen girls will play a game of basket ball with the grade girls Friday afternoon.

Eugene and Ralph Smith and Howard Smith, of Coquille, made a trip down the coast last week and returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Dewey were Coquille visitors Saturday.

Lessons of Movie Classroom
Betrayed by his gang, which, according to a Gloucester (Mass.) dispatch to the Boston Herald, he had led in more than fifty robberies in the last few months, "Smoky Joe" told the police he got his ideas "from the movies."

Members of the gang admitted that they robbed homes, stores and boats under the guidance of their movie-struck leader, who, in the words of the dispatch, said "it took him weeks to teach his gang up-to-date methods used by 'big shots.'"

"Smoky Joe," by the way, is eight years old.

—Christian Science Monitor

Delicious Food at LOWEST PRICES

SUNBLEST TOMATOES Solid Pack 2 1/2 Cans - - - 15c	SATURDAY SPECIAL Wellman Coffee 1 pound Tin - - - 40c 2 pound Tin - - - 79c
SUNBLEST SPINACH 2 1/2 Cans - - - 15c	WHITE FLEESE KRAUT 2 1/2 Cans - 2 for 25c
Success STRING BEANS Extra Quality 2 for - - - 35c	Rose Brand GOLDEN BANTAM CORN 2 Cans - - - 27c
JERGEN'S TOILET SOAP A dandy toilet soap at a real price 9 Bars - - - 29c	SMALL WHOLE CLAMS Excellent quality. Free from sand. Per Can - - - 15c

COOKED FOOD SALE

The ladies of the Christian Church will hold a cooked food sale in this store Saturday, Nov. 14

Phone 69

Busy Corner Grocery

Free Delivery

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Fred Lafferty spent two days this week in Roseburg on business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Coleman and Miss Crystal Guerin were Marshfield visitors Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Guerin and Mrs. Fred Lafferty and little daughter, Janice, returned Sunday evening from Corvallis, where they spent the week end with Mrs. Ella Guerin and Mrs. D. Kelker.

Dr. Reynolds and family returned home Sunday from Eugene, where they spent the week-end.

James Hall, of Forest Grove, arrived Thursday. He was called here by the serious illness of his mother, Mrs. W. S. Hall.

A lovely birthday dinner was given at the home of Mrs. B. Bennett Sunday in honor of her son, A. B. Bennett, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Bennett. Mrs. Bennett's birthday was Sunday, Nov. 8, and Mr. Bennett's was the day before on Nov. 7. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breuer and four children, Paula, Eleanor, Helen and Bernice, Mrs. Elizabeth Bennett and daughter, Dorothy, Mrs. J. V. Loop, Mrs. Florence Guerin, Miss Goldie Childs and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Benthart and two children, of Coquille, Mr. and Mrs. Nagle, of Arago, and Mrs. B. Bennett.

Clarence Rickard was a Myrtle Point visitor Tuesday and Wednesday. He is from Coos River.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Barker are on a trip in Idaho. They report by mail as having a very wonderful time.

Rube Morris and Ray Wilkins are on a business trip to Goldendale, Washington, and The Dalles, Oregon.

Al Miller, who suffered a heart attack some weeks ago, is able to be up and around.

Rev. E. G. Ranton returned home Sunday from a trip to Yakima, Wash., where he had taken his brother, who had been visiting him and who has been giving evangelistic services in their Methodist church.

Mrs. C. A. Butler is receiving medical attention in the hospital at North Bend.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gamble, of Marysville, California, are visitors at the home of Mrs. Gamble's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis.

Miss Veva McCulloch has returned to her home in Myrtle Point after an absence of several months, during which she was employed in Port Orford.

Donald, of Sacramento, California, left the first of the week for their home. Mrs. Miller visited her brother, John Belloni, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James Mast left Tuesday for Portland to bring back some Ford units for the Mast Motor Co.

The Myrtle Point high school gave their school carnival Friday evening. Everyone reported a wonderful time. A very good program was given the fore part of the evening.

A baby boy was born last Thursday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leland McNair on the North Fork. This is their first child.

Mrs. Flentge Perkins is in the Mast hospital receiving medical treatment.

News Notes From Powers
Born to Rev. and Mrs. Adams of the Bible Standard Church, a daughter on November 8th.

Brooks Walker, of Coquille was seriously burned in a gasoline explosion at Camp Two Monday.

The Coos Bay Lumber Co. burned the old speeder sheds Saturday to make room for the Western White's new spur track, which they are building this week.

Lee Gerber was in from the Rogue river for several days.

Eight set of fallers are working at Eden ridge at the present time. Only old employees are being hired and so far they are not all at work.

Dillard Wilson took a small pack string to the Rogue river Tuesday morning for some miners.

The eighth lesson of the First Aid class was held Wednesday night. This has been a very enjoyable as well as instructive class, under the direction of Ethel Littler, R. N.

Mrs. Archie Boone, formerly of Powers, spent the week end at the home of Jim Boone.

Get one of these "Wear-Ever" ALUMINUM ROASTERS

Small Size $3.95
Medium Size $4.95
Large Size $5.95

"Wear-Ever" Round Roaster - Ovenproof $3.95
"Wear-Ever" Self-basting - one-piece - $2.75
For small turkey or chicken. Holds 5 jars as a canner.

For sale by Gould Furniture Co.
Coquille, Ore.

quille hotel by the following: Meadames Albert Powers Jr., Jess D. Jones, Bob Morrell, Kenneth Murdock, G. P. Stewart, Ethel Littler, E. O. Sempert, R. E. Milne, and Roy Frey. They reported a very successful meeting.

Pythian Sisters to Celebrate
Pythian Sisters of Justus Temple No. 35, Coquille, celebrate their annual Home Coming next Wednesday evening at their regular assembly hall.

Besides a specially prepared program, talks will be made by members present and messages read from those who find it impossible to attend.

Another interesting feature of the evening will be generous contributions of canned fruits and vegetables brought to the hall by members of the Order for packing and shipping to the Oregon-Washington Pythian Home at Vancouver, Wash.

All Pythian Sisters and Knights of Pythias are expected to attend.

Insure your car with Ned C. Kelley.