Monthly Meeting of Woman's Club Held Tuesday

Tuesday the Coquille Woman's Club met for their monthly business meeting at the Guild hall with the president, Mrs. J. E. Norton, presiding. Committee chairmen made reports on activities accomplished during the past month. Mrs. Boober, who heads the membership committee, with her helpers are all the time securing new members. Mrs. C. V. Smith of the public welfare committee, which is a new department in the club, stated that on December 4th and 5th a film will be shown at the Liberty Theatre in connection with the Red Cross program. Mrs. George Chaney was appointed to have charge of securing bed linen to have on hand in case of emergency, the request being made by Mrs. Iris Elrod, county health nurse. These linens include bed linens, clothing, etc., and will be used in needy cases, supervised by Mrs. Elrod. Miss Pauline Chase offered to take charge of the linens, putting them in shape again after use. In the historical research work, Miss Inez Rover has been named to take the place of Mrs. O. C. Sanford.

The evening musicale which will be sponsored by the music department, is to be given November 19th at the home of Mrs. C. T. Skeels.

The president reported on her visit to the convention of club presidents, held in Salem a few weeks ago.

After the business meeting adjourned, Mrs. Homer C. Gant announced the program. Mrs. George Bryant, who has been president of the Business and Professional club and has been very active in club work for the past few years, gave a very complete report on Oregon events, including the early-day government and the Progress of our state and its rating with other states in the Union. Mrs. J. W. McInturff, of Marshfield, talked on Oregon laws affecting women. She also started her subject in the early days. Laws made than were not of much protection to the women. She also told how women have received more and more protection by new Oregon laws, which put them on a basis more equal to that of men.

After enjoying both of these talks, Mrs. Geo. Leach, Mrs. J. A. Lamb, Mrs. C. V. Smith and Mrs. George Lorenz served refreshments to the following attending: Mesdames J. E. Norton, C. D. Walker, Paul Van Scoy, P. P. Whitmore, H. E. Hess, John E. Ross, L. P. Maury, Ed Detlefsen, R. E. Boober, C. A. Rietman, Sanford Archibald, Dan C. Brown, Leo J. Cary, Wm. Candlin, F. S. Emery, Nels Osmundson, C. T. Skeels, H. C. Gant, Lafe Compton, S. H. Stockhoff, Kenneth Lawrence, R. B. Rogers, O. C. Sanford, E. A. Woodyard, C. J. Fuhrman, Lyman Carrier, George Bryant, E. D. Webb, E. G. Opperman, Mrs. LeForce and Mrs. J. W. McInturff, of Marshfield, Miss Pauline Chase and Miss Inez Rover.

Calling cards 100 for $1.50.

SOCIAL NOTES

The Senior "500" club enjoyed the evening on Tuesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Chaney, with honor prizes going to Mrs. Evland and Mr. Paulson, who both held splendid scores. Attending were Messrs. and Mesdames H. E. Hess, Bert Folsom, J. Arthur Berg, Frank L. Greenough, Hal W. Pierce, J. E. Paulson, Lafe Compton, J. S. Barton, Mrs. C. C. Evland, Mrs. Edward W. Lorenz and Miss Eleanor Folsom.

A pleasant afternoon was spent Thursday at the home of Mrs. Sadie Jayes when the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. Church met for their devotional and business meeting. The meeting opened with a scripture reading and prayer, also the beautiful song, "Oh the good we may do while the days are going by," was sung by the ladies. After the business was attended to, sewing of quilt blocks was the diversion of the afternoon. At the close the hostess served a delicious lunch to those present: Mesdames G. A. Gray, A. H. Oden, Augusta Nosler, Stanley Fitzgerald, D. C. Krantz, Jno. Elwood, Flitcroft and O. A. Mattoon.

Honoring Mrs. H. C. Getz who was celebrating her birthday Thursday, a number of her friends gathered at her home for luncheon and afternoon which was spent in bridge. The ladies presented Mrs. Getz with a lovely gift. Present for luncheon were Mesdames Frank Thrift, A. O. Walker, W. V. Glaisyer, John L. Aasen, Wm. Zosel, E. M. Kay, Ed McKeown, E. L. Kay, James Brady, Theodore Clinton, Geo. Johnson, Earl Nosler, H. S. Norton, Willard Bosserman, Fred McNelly, Hal W. Pierce, A. B. Collier, E. A. Walker and T. B. Currie.

Mrs. H. A. Young surprised her daughter, Miss Carol, with a dinner party last Friday evening at their home on South Beach street. The guests included were the members of the Pirate club. This group of girls enjoy many such pleasant affairs. In serving Mrs. Hal W. Pierce and Miss Jean Young assisted the hostess. After the dinner, bridge was played. Provided for were Misses Betty Glaisyer, Beryl Unsoeld, Elizabeth Pierce, Sarah Margaret Nye, Anne Barton, Audrey Aasen, Margaret Paulson and Carol Young.

Yesterday Mrs. Bert Folsom was hostess to the Just-a-mere club at her home on South Henry street with covers laid for Mesdames W. S. Sickels, Frank L. Greenough, O. C. Sanford, Paul Van Scoy, H. A. Young, J. A. Lamb, C. J. Fuhrman, M. O. Hawkins, Lyman Carrier, C. C. Evland, Nels Osmundson and J. L. Smith. The next meeting of the club will be held December 3rd at the home of Mrs. H. A. Young.

In compliment to Mrs. J. L. Jessup, who is leaving Coquille soon, Mrs. R. E. Boober entertained with three tables at a Bridge luncheon Wednesday afternoon.
