Going to Penney District Meet

F. W. Martin, manager of the local J. C. Penney Company store, will leave tomorrow for Portland to attend the annual Spring Convention of the organization he represents.

The meetings will be held at the Multnomah Hotel and managers from approximately 200 stores covering this section of the country, will be present.

Low V. Day, director in charge of personnel, will preside over the convention and other general executives of the company to conduct sessions, will include Earl C. Sams, president, J. C. Penney, chairman of the board, Walter Reynolds, sales manager, as well as representatives of the various buying departments.

The series of conventions total eight which will cover the entire country.

Before leaving, Mr. Martin said, "Two very important subjects will be thoroughly covered at the meetings this year, first will be the matter of merchandising of products at the new low price levels which have been established during the past two years, made possible by the increasing co-operation between manufacturing and distributing organizations."

"The other will be the matter of our relations with the public which should result in a better understanding between the buying public and the retail stores which they patronize."

Mr. Martin expects to have considerable information of interest to customers, upon his return from Portland.

Calling cards 100 for $1.50.

After spending a few delightful weeks with friends and relatives in Echo and Standfield in Eastern Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Atkinson returned home last Sunday.

Several fine dogs died here this week from severe colds or distemper. Mr. Beck lost his beautiful chow dog and Shorty Martin lost all his bird dogs.

A very enjoyable affair of the past week was a musical evening at the A. C. Dye home last Sunday. Besides the host and hostess and their daughter, Marie, there were present Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Johnson and daughter, Doris, from Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Detillion, also of Coquille; M. and Mrs. W. A. Bean, Mrs. Mettie Peterson, Ileen Harris, Cherie Mae Hartwell and Messrs. A. E. Haan, Ansel Hayward, Karl Alpine and Vincent Hunt.

Ansel Hayward spent part of last week end with Vincent Hunt in Myrtle Point.

Three outstanding games of basketball were played on the home floor here last Friday night. Coquille's first and second grade basketball teams, coached by Mr. L. Kathan, a former Riverton instructor, came down and played games with each of our grade teams. Riverton won both victories. The score for the two first teams was 51 to 18 and for the second teams or subs, it stood 11 to 9. As an added attraction that night the Myrtle Point Independent Women's team journeyed down here and won from our high school girls, 17 to 14. The auditorium was crowded to overflowing with an interested and appreciative audience.

Viola Martin was a business visitor to Coquille Monday.

Mrs. Beck was in North Bend Tuesday.

Mrs. C. W. Martin spent Monday afternoon with Mrs. Mettie Peterson.

Mr. Knox, assistant county agent and 4-H club leader, visited school Tuesday forenoon, for the purpose of interesting some of our boys in a pig or calf club.
