

GOODYEAR
ALL-WEATHER

TRADE
YOUR OLD TIRES
NOW
FOR NEW 1932
GOODYEAR
ALL-WEATHERS

Better than ever. Better in mileage, better in tread-wear, better in protection against blowouts, better in puncture-proofness. First-choice tires, yet they cost no more than second-choice tires. Get our trade-in offer.

Coquille Service Station

Coquille, Oregon
Phone 133

STRANG'S GARAGE
Day and Night Service

HOOKE'S GARAGE
Open Day & Night

BLACKSMITH SHOP
ADDED

A blacksmith shop has been added to the Coquille Machine Shop equipment and those needing that kind of work will find Fred Schaefer in charge of the department.

Let us figure with you on your requirements.

COQUILLE MACHINE SHOP

PHONE 46-J

COQUILLE

Live News From Arago

Mrs. Fred Lafferty and little daughter, Janie, spent several days this week visiting with her mother, Mrs. T. D. Guerin, of Myrtle Point, while Mr. Lafferty was away on business.

Mrs. Dan Miller spent Tuesday visiting with her daughter, Mrs. Jesse Robison, of Fishtrap.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Sailer and family moved to Fairview this week. They have resided on the Hammock place on upper Fishtrap the past six months.

The Arago Bull Dogs will play the Lakeside squad up there to night.

Mrs. Albert Gustrom, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lillie transacted business in Marshfield on Monday.

Fred Lafferty and his mother, Mrs. S. L. Lafferty and Clifford Knight returned Sunday morning from a trip north, going as far as Portland. Mrs. Lafferty enjoyed a visit with her sister, Mrs. Herman Carl, at Hubbard, while Fred looked around in search of a purebred Jersey sire. The trip home was very disagreeable, as it snowed the entire way.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Halter enjoyed a visit Tuesday with their aunt, Mrs. Alma Halter, of Coquille, and her daughter, Mrs. Russell Danielson, of Bridge.

Arago fans enjoyed three games of basket ball again Friday evening. Coos River girls and Arago girls met first in one of the best girls' games ever witnessed here. The first quarter was nip and tuck with both teams only scoring two points. At the half Coos River had gained a lead of one point, the score being 3 to 4 at that period. In the third quarter Arago scored four points, holding their opponents to one point. Only one point was made in the last quarter and that by the home team, so the game ended with the small score of 8 to 5 in favor of Arago.

The game between Coos River Indians and the Bull Dogs proved to be the most thrilling and exciting of the year. The first quarter was, give and take, each team scoring four points. At the half the Bull Dogs had gained a lead of five points, the score being 10 to 5 at that period. They were still in the lead, 13 to 8, at the end of the third quarter. In the last quarter the Indians got several good breaks of the game and won by the small margin of 14 to 13. Jim Rice, Coos River center, who started to school there the past week has strengthened their team a great deal. The independent teams closed the evening with a slow one-sided game, Arago leading by several points the entire game, ending in the final score, 26 to 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Farrier and little son, Jack, returned home Monday after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Doyle at Eugene.

Mrs. J. D. Carl, Mrs. Edith Woodward, Mrs. C. E. Schroeder, Mrs. George Gillespie, Mrs. Tyrrell Woodward and Mrs. C. C. Robison attended the Ladies Aid convention at the Methodist church in Myrtle Point on Thursday.

Clara Deisman received a pleasant surprise Wednesday evening when she went to basket ball practice at the gymnasium. She was invited to go home with Laura Milani until ball practice in the evening. In the meantime her mother was busy making arrangements for the surprise party. When she arrived at the gym a group of young people greeted her and on the table stood a beautiful birthday cake with candles lighted. It was her sixteenth birthday. The surprise was complete and all spent a very pleasant evening playing "Cootie." Iola Robison won ladies' high honor. Joe Sinko took first prize for the boys and Willie Sinko the consolation. Dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake were then served.

Mrs. George Hampton enjoyed a visit Wednesday with her mother and sister, Mrs. B. S. Wallen and Mrs. Chester Root, of Myrtle Point.

Ira Wilson made a business trip to Reedsport on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Merle Poland, of Myrtle Point, spent Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Robison and attended the Coos River - Arago game that evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carl, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Aasen, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hampton, Mrs. C. E. Schroeder and Mrs. L. R. Hampton attended Myrtle Grange at Myrtle Point on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Robison were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schroeder on Sunday.

Dan Brown of the West Coast Telephone company repaired the lines in the Arago district Tuesday. All lines were out, owing to the snowstorm Saturday night.

The Arago Freshman team played the Bridge Freshman team at Bridge Saturday evening in a fast game of basket ball. The final score ended 12 to 6 in favor of Arago.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Davis, of Halls Creek, passed away Monday night. Funeral services were held Wednesday. Interment was at the Norway cemetery.

Safety First! Use Cow Bell Dairy's Pasteurized Milk and protect your health.

Call Farr & Elwood for transfer and fuel.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Mrs. S. L. Lafferty, Fred Lafferty and Clifford Knight returned Sunday from Hubbard where they had been on a business and pleasure trip.

About twenty couples of young people were entertained Saturday evening in the Broadbent community hall, the Misses Aileen Dement and Cornelius Clausen acting as hostesses. Two tables were provided for those who wanted to play cards but most of the crowd spent the evening in dancing. Music was provided by Mrs. Ella Dement and Frank True, relieved at intervals by Austin Hall and Basil Smith. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

George Halsey Guerin passed away in the Mast Hospital Friday night, having had a complete stroke that morning. He was born in Factoryville, Penn., June 20, 1872, and came to Oregon with his parents in 1876. He has resided in Coos and Curry counties since that time. He has been engaged in cattle raising and he owned and operated a cattle ranch near Myrtle Point. He leaves to mourn his loss, one sister and three brothers: Mrs. W. W. Deyoe and Thomas D. Guerin, of this city; Eckley C. Guerin, of Juneau, Alaska; and Chas. V. Guerin, of Los Angeles, California. He has been preceded in death by his mother, father and five brothers. Services were held at the Schroeder chapel, Rev. E. V. Ostrander officiating. Music was provided by Mrs. Ellis Dement, Mrs. Paul Breuer, Mrs. Ed Lewellen and Tom Summerlin, with Charlotte Brosius at the organ. Interment was at the Langlois cemetery.

Mrs. Minnie King, of Powers, was a Myrtle Point visitor Monday.

The teachers who room at the T. G. Summerlin home were given a pleasant surprise Friday night when two of the number, the Misses Gertrude Sick and Faith Lindros invited them into the living room. There the girls found a table set with delicious refreshments, and all preparations made for a slumber party. The girls who enjoyed the evening were Helen Russell, Charlotte Brosius, Grace Linn, Alice Alverdes, Pearl Dodele, Gertrude Sick and Faith Lindros. The refreshments had been sent from Idaho by Miss Sick's mother.

Miss Caroline Schneider spent the week end at her home here. She is attending the Willamette University and was exempt from all exams for the past six weeks' term.

Olas Perkins, of Canby, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. W. Perkins.

Word has been received that John Spaulding, uncle of Mrs. J. W. Hall, passed away January 18th at Yontville, California. He has visited here a number of times and will probably be remembered by many in this vicinity.

Mrs. L. M. Aasen, of Halls Creek, was a week end visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. Fraser Hoffman.

Mrs. Emma Herman has been confined to her home on account of illness for several days this week. Mrs. A. MacDonald, of Norway, is spending the week with her.

It has been decided that the Junior High School basketball teams of Coos county will hold their annual tournament to decide the championship in the local Junior High School auditorium. Nine teams will participate and the games will start at 10 a. m. Saturday, February 6. On that date there will be four preliminary games and two semi-finals. The final championship game will be played February 13.

Miss Velma Austin, local teacher, spent the week-end at her home on Coos River.

Twenty-four teachers of the grammar and junior high schools and Mrs. Floyd Summers were entertained by S. Breuer at a dinner prepared by Mrs. Paul Breuer and Mrs. Tommy Root and served by the Misses Paula and Eleanor Breuer.

Having received word of the serious illness of their father, Mrs. Ryce Wilson and Mrs. Jimmie Byrne left for Pasadena, Calif., to be with him. They were accompanied by Mrs. Wilson's husband.

Six high school students averaging four 1's for the first semester are: seniors, Eloise Crowley and Andy Newhouse; sophomores, Doris James, Helma Olsen and Evelyn Steinhoff; freshmen, Bonnie Summerlin. Those who averaged a 11 or higher are: seniors, Earl Breuer, Priscilla Deyoe, Frances Fearnley, Genevieve Knight, Dencie Foote, Austin Hall, Clifford Jennings, Eugene Kinnicut, Gladys Latham, Charles and Julia Myrl Leatherman, Lila Lewis; juniors, Kenneth Button, Joanne Perrott, Neva McNair, Helen Gill, Frieda James, Selma Latham, Theda Schneider, Leonard Shelton; Robert Steele; sophomores, Kenneth Leatherman, Juanita Watson; freshmen, Mary Jane Barker, Edwin Bigelow, Helen Detwiler, Ann Harlocker, Virgil Harrison, Viola Hoffman, Dorothy Lundy, Phydellias Morris, Leona McConnell, Donald Porterfield, Josephine Schellhammer, Leslie Wilson, Mary Davenport, Lois Robison, Jimmy Ray and Grayce Perry.

Miss Frances Fearnley entertained Wednesday night at four tables of

VALUES for Thrifty
Housewives

SNOWCAP SHORTENING

4 pound pail	47c
8 pound pail	89c

Crystal White Scouring
CLEANSER

6 cans	25c
--------	-----

BISQUICK FLOUR

All ready to use, simply add milk or water

1 package and
1 large baking pan	35c

LUX WASHING POWDER

small size	10c
------------	-----

DUZ WASHING POWDER

large package	10c
small size	5c

Phone
69

Busy Corner Grocery

Free
Delivery

FELDMAN'S NAPHTHA SOAP

large bars	5c
------------	----

SANTA CLARA PRUNES

10 pound box	69c
--------------	-----

HOMINY

No. 2 1/2 tins, 2 for	25c
-----------------------	-----

BULK COFFEE

This coffee will give you satisfaction. We recommend it.

3 pounds	$1.00
----------	--------

PURE LARD

in bulk

3 pounds for	33c
--------------	-----

ANNOUNCING

Opening of the

Coquille Valley
Hardware

Wednesday, Feb. 10

In I. O. O. F. Building

389 First St., Coquille

A CASH HARDWARE STORE

We Solicit Your Patronage

News Notes From Powers

A. T. Morrison, juvenile officer, was in town Wednesday.

Dr. Gregson, county health officer, was in Powers Tuesday.

The Royal Neighbors and Moose and Mooseheart Legion are planning a rather attractive program for February 22.

The ground hog sure saw his shadow in Powers Tuesday when the sun shone brightly for a few minutes.

Andy Brown, of Powers, has won a tentative award of a homestead at Tule lake. Names of 67 ex-service men have been announced by B. F. Hayden, superintendent of the Klamath reclamation project. There were 169 applicants. The awards are tentative until decision on possible appeals from the board's action by the interior department at Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Allyson Roberts and Alya Kay spent the week end on the lower Coquille.

Emma Gessler, who was seriously ill with the flu, was taken to the Mast hospital where she is slowly recovering.

Jess Thompson, who has been ill with the flu, is recovering at his home.

Martha E. Mulkey was attending to school business at Powers District No. 31 on Friday.

Mrs. Elmer Davis spent the week-end in Coquille as a guest of Mrs. Ella O'Brien.

W. H. Kirby, local justice of the peace, suffered a light stroke Monday evening. Mr. Kirby is under the doctor's care with orders to stay in bed three weeks. Walter is taking no chances and has hid his clothes.

Everyone who knows D. Wilson is rejoicing over his moving to Coquille. He is that much nearer to Powers.

Ethel Littler spent the week end with friends in Marshfield.

Calling cards 100 for $1.50.