

First Choice Tires

—yet they cost no more than second-choice!

NEW 1932
GOODYEAR
ALL-WEATHER

They are better tires this year than ever before. Better in mileage; better in tread-wear; better in protection against blowout; better in puncture-proofness.

TRADE IN YOUR OLD TIRES!

TUNE IN Wed. Sat.
Goodyear Coast - to - Coast N. B. C. Radio Programs
Also over KOOS Saturdays

Coquille Service Station

Coquille, Oregon
Phone 133

STRANG'S GARAGE
Day and Night Service

HOOKE'S GARAGE
Open Day & Night

WHEN YOU WANT HAY Oats & Vetch
$18.00 a Ton

Phone 16
FARR & ELWOOD

Six Kinds of Coal
Forest Wood

Live News From Arago

Mrs. C. C. Robison, lecturer of Myrtle grange; Mrs. S. H. Stockhoff, lecturer of Coquille grange, and Mrs. Frank Culver, lecturer of Bridge grange, left Tuesday morning for Eugene in company with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cross. The ladies will attend the lecturers' convention at Eugene Tuesday and Wednesday, while Mr. Cross is attending to some business matters. The intermediate Christian Endeavor enjoyed a valentine party at the community kitchen Saturday evening. The evening was spent playing games and having a good time in general. Dainty refreshments were served and all returned home after a very pleasant evening.

Professor Ayers, Ernie Milani, Walter Moore and Joe Sinko made a business trip to Salem last week. They left after the game at Lakeside Friday night and returned home Saturday evening.

Mrs. E. J. Myers is enjoying a visit this week with her sister, Mrs. Frank Lane.

Sandy Ellis returned home last week from a month's prospecting tour through the mountains near Glendale. He reports finding some very rich pay dirt but was unable to remain longer because of the severe snow storm and the shortage of provisions. He intends returning there as soon as weather conditions will permit.

Rev. Mr. Flenner, of Gaylord, filled the pulpit at Arago community church Sunday morning.

Mrs. B. E. Watkins, of Halls creek, returned home Thursday. She has spent the past four weeks visiting friends and relatives at Bandon.

Marie Hicks, the nine-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hicks of Fishtrap, underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis at the Mast hospital in Myrtle Point Wednesday morning. She is recovering satisfactorily.

Mrs. Emily Hickam and Mrs. Frank Burbank are confined at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schroeder, this week with an attack of influenza.

The ladies' missionary society will observe world prayer day, Friday, at the Kitchen. Everyone is invited. The program will be in keeping with the day.

The Halls Creek mill was moved to Brewster Valley last week and will be in operation there as soon as arrangements can be made. Russell Hill and D. C. Hayworth who operated the mill here will also have charge of it in the new location.

Mrs. Wayne Woodward, Mrs. Stanley Halter and Mrs. Lawrence Barklow made a business trip to Marshfield on Saturday.

George Gillespie is a victim of the influenza this week. He is some better at this time.

Letha Munford is confined at home with the chickenpox this week.

Arago basketballers played five games of basket ball Friday evening. The two Bridge freshmen teams met the Arago freshmen teams on the local floor in return games. The Arago girls were defeated by the outstanding score of 26 to 1 which means that they certainly need some practice in basket shooting. The boys' game proved to be a one-sided one also, but in favor of Arago, the score ending 24 to 5.

The Bull Dogs, the girls' first team and the Independents went to Lakeside and played the respective teams there. The Arago girls won their second game of the season, only allowing their opponents to score one field basket, and breaking through their defense scored 13 points for themselves. The Bull Dogs played mostly second string men and scored two points to their opponents' one, the final score ending 24 to 12.

The independent game proved to be the most interesting of the evening. The competition was close and ended in the final score of 23 to 21 in favor of Arago.

The annual meeting of the Arago Cheese company was held Saturday afternoon and new officers were elected for the coming year. The board members are O. H. Aasen, Clarence Schroeder and Joe Milani. Clarence Schroeder was appointed chairman and Joe Milani vice president. Lynn Burtis was elected secretary-treasurer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carl, Mrs. L. R. Hampton and Mrs. C. C. Robison visited Bridge Grange Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Miller, of Portland, are the proud parents of an eight pound baby girl born February 1st. They have named the little miss Vanita Maxine. Mr. and Mrs. Miller are both graduates of Arago high school. Mr. Miller is employed as civil engineer by the government. Mrs. Miller was formerly Christina Vetter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Burtis, Mr. and Mrs. George Hampton, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carl, Mrs. C. C. Robison and Mrs. L. R. Hampton visited the Coquille Grange Thursday evening.

John Myers and Willis Hoover, of Myrtle Point, are laying the foundation for Tyrrell Woodward's new house this week.

Carr's Annual 9c Sale

Brand new merchandise at 1932 prices. See our windows. Values to 35c for 9c. Sale starts Saturday. Carr's Store. Postoffice Block.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

John Snyder, of Shasta Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Burch, of Rink Creek, were Myrtle Point visitors Saturday.

Miss Lillia Fish returned home Thursday evening from Portland and Seattle, where she has been the past six weeks visiting friends and relatives.

Miss Gertrude Watling, of Medford, spent the week-end in Myrtle Point visiting relatives and also to be with her father, who is in the Mast hospital here.

Roy Wilkins and Rube Morris made a business trip to Portland and Salem over the week-end.

T. A. Dickinson, father of Geo. R. Dickinson, is a visitor at his son's home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Nelson made a business trip to Roseburg Thursday.

The stockholders of the Coos and Curry county fair association met in the city hall Saturday afternoon at two o'clock for the purpose of electing a board of directors to serve for the ensuing year. They also transacted other business.

E. J. Schneider and Geo. Baxter were in town the first of the week from Schneider's home on Rogue river.

The Garden Club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Chas. Rackleff.

The Future Farmers of the Myrtle Point high school gave a banquet for their fathers Thursday evening. Earl R. Cooley, state supervisor, and Kenneth Pettibone, national F. F. A. president, were guests of honor. Mr. Cooley is a former Smith-Hughes instructor in Myrtle Point high school.

Sunday evening the Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church had charge of the evening service. This service was to celebrate the 51st anniversary of the founding of the society. The addresses were given by Cecil Barker, Mary Hoover, Delbert Steele and Eugene Kinnicutt. Miss Billy Lund and Miss Faith Lindros gave a violin duet and Phylidias Morris sang a solo.

V. B. Hendershott, who came here from Eugene, is the new man in charge of the Hub Clothing & Shoe Co. store, which opened for business in its old location Saturday morning.

Dr. R. H. Mast has purchased the D. Earl Wilson home on East Spruce street. Dr. Mast and family moved in last week. The Geo. Hall family which had occupied the house moved into the Lowellen house on Fourth street.

The Junior High basketball tournament was held in Myrtle Point Junior High auditorium Saturday.

J. M. Armstrong arrived home the first of the week from Portland, where he has been for the past few days transacting business.

Mrs. M. E. Wilson, of Coquille, was a Myrtle Point visitor Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Laird and daughter, Marguerite, were Marshfield visitors Thursday.

Lorena, Rachel and Oren Michels, of Olympia, Washington, are spending this week in Myrtle Point visiting friends and relatives. They will go on to Crescent City after visiting here. Virgil Leroy Barklow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Barklow, passed away at the home of his parents February 7th. Bronchial pneumonia was the cause of death. He was born August 13, 1931. Services were held at the Brethren Church Monday, Rev. Charles Barklow officiating. Burial was at the Norway cemetery.

Mrs. Mary Bennett was given a surprise birthday dinner Friday evening, her 74th birthday anniversary. Those who enjoyed the affair were Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Bennett, Mrs. J. V. Leep, Mrs. Elizabeth Bennett and daughter, Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breuer and children, Helen, Eleanor and Bonnie, and Mrs. Mary Bennett.

Leander Barklow moved on the Charlie Barklow ranch in Stringtown last week. The Leander Barklow family had made their home in the Buell house in south Myrtle Point.

Word was received this week by Mr. and Mrs. Lester Dement that their daughter, Elizabeth, who is a freshman at O. S. C., has pledged Alpha Delta Pi sorority.

Mrs. Harry Gamble left Tuesday for her home in Marysville, California, after visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Davis, for some time. She will spend a week in Crescent City in her way home.

Among those from Myrtle Point who attended the Women's Clubs institute last week were: Mrs. Larue LaFlamme, local president; Mrs. E. C. Barker, Mrs. Marlin Evans, Mrs. C. E. Huling, Mrs. Verne Lundy and Mrs. A. C. Chase.

McKinley Notes

Monday Frank Brown, of Camas Valley, brought the news that his nephew, Claude Church, was accidentally shot with a 33 Winchester rifle as he was getting wood near his home. The bullet struck him in the hip while in a stooping position and it is thought shattered the bone above the socket joint. No hopes were held for his life at first but it was later believed he might live and some hopes are entertained of saving the leg. It

TIP TOP COFFEE
1 pound bags	25c
BLUE HERRON SHRIMP
2 cans	25c
HOMINY
No. 2 1/2 cans	2 for 25c
KIPPERED SNACKS
4 for	19c
DUZ WASHING POWDER
large package	10c
small size	5c

SNOWCAP SHORTENING
4 pound pail	47c
8 pound pail	89c

GRAPE FRUIT A good quality
No. 2 tins	2 for 33c

STRAWBERRY PRESERVE
2 pound glass	39c

HOMINY
No. 2 1/2 tins, 2 for	25c

FELDMAN'S NAPHTHA SOAP
large bars	5c

The ladies of the Church of Christ will hold a cooked food sale in this store Saturday, February 13th.

Phone
69

Busy Corner Grocery

Free
Delivery

See your Tubes Tested
Read the Results for Yourself!

NOW you can be sure that your radio tubes are in perfect condition. You need no longer suffer inferior reception because some of your tubes are worn out or defective.

Our new Jewell Tube-Checker will show you the condition of your tubes. Anybody can read tests on this tube tester accurately, because it reads in terms of tube merit. The meter definitely points out whether the tube is Satisfactory, Doubtful or Unsatisfactory.

Poor tubes spoil performance of the finest radio sets. Good tubes cost so little that every inefficient tube in your receiver should be replaced.

Why not keep your radio set performing just like new? Bring your tubes in and see them tested on this big Jewell Instrument. It's a sure way to the most satisfactory results from your radio set!

Taylor's Battery & Service Station
General Electric Radios
Coquille, Oregon

old Borg.
Feb. 3—Portland Mortgage Co. vs. Glenn E. Taber and wife.
Feb. 9—A. E. Seaman vs. T. J. Sullivan.
Feb. 10—State Industrial Accident Commission vs. Milo M. Pierson and John D. Goss.
Feb. 10—A. E. Morten, Trustee, vs.

Empire Cold Storage & Packing Co.

Probate Court Items

Harry A. Winkler was on Monday appointed executor of the will of Mrs. Maggie Wall, who died Jan. 19, 1932, leaving an estate estimated to be worth $6,750.

New Cases in Circuit Court

Feb. 6—Truman Hartley vs. Har-