B. & P. W. Club Notes

The meeting of the Business and Professional Women's Club next Monday, February 15th, is to be in charge of the International Relations committee. A program will be given consisting of an address by Honorable J. T. Brand, judge of the Circuit court, on "Relations between the Pacific Coast and the Orient;" a pageant on the World Court; an explanation of Disarmament and musical numbers. The public is cordially invited to attend. The meeting will be held in the club rooms at 8 p. m.

Missionary Society Meets

The Church of Christ missionary society met for their monthly meeting Wednesday with Mrs. Geo. Swinney. Mrs. C. C. Farr had charge of the program which opened with a short devotional period conducted by Mrs. Mary Weighill and Mrs. W. A. Sloan. A study of Religious Educational Institutions followed, these colleges being located in Tennessee, Oklahoma, Ohio, California, Kentucky and Oregon, each a separate college and doing a splendid work for a large group of students.

The Pacific University of Long Beach, California, is the newest of these institutions and has for its dean, George W. Taubman, famous for his large class of men who meet each Sunday morning on the Long Beach pier for study. This is the largest men's class in the brotherhood.

An offering was voted, to be sent to aid work among the mountaineer people of Grayson, Kentucky. A fine discussion of missionary and relief work followed, each member having a definite part on the program.

Those present were: Mesdames A. S. Bean, Martha Custer, A. N. Foley, C. C. Farr, Chas. Hill, Arthur Hooton, F. W. Hawk, Lewis Lewellyn, Ora Maury, Grover McQuigg, Gene Nosler, Geo. Swinney, Joe Stanger, Will Wimer, Mary Weighill, Minnie Clinton, Fred Schaer, Rose Yarbrough, Geo. Matney, W. A. Sloan, Miss Jennie Lafferty. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Custer and with Jennie Lafferty, leader.

Call Farr & Elwood for transfer and fuel.

Social Notes

The Senior "500" club members, also several extra guests, enjoyed Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Lorenz. The prizes for the evening were won by Mrs. Pierce who held high score for the ladies and Mr. Paulson for the gentlemen. At the close, refreshments were served to those present: Messrs. and Mesdames Bert Folsom, F. L. Greenough, H. W. Pierce, J. E. Paulson, M. J. Hartson, Geo. Lorenz, Mesdames Muri Pettit, C. C. Eiland, A. J. Sherwood and Miss Eleanor Folsom.

Mrs. B. A. Davis entertained the Good Samaritan class of the Pioneer Church Sunday School at her home Tuesday afternoon. At this meeting the ladies held their monthly business meeting, after which the hours were spent in conversation and sewing. Mrs. Maud LeRoy, Mrs. S. R. Purvance and Mrs. Cora Wimer, also Rev. Philip D. Hartman, were additional guests. Members attending were Mesdames W. S. Smith, J. S. Houck, Margaret Brown, Chris Terres and M. W. Way.

At the Parish House Wednesday the Women's Guild held their regular weekly meeting. Mrs. W. E. Couper, of Marshfield, was present and talked on the Episcopal Church convention held in Portland a few weeks ago, at which she was present. During Lent, as heretofore, a book review will be enjoyed, with a chapter given at each meeting. The title of the book that will be presented this year is, "Building a Christian Nation." Mrs. Edward W. Lorenz gave a review Wednesday on the beginning chapter, "The Call of Service." Next week it will be carried on by Mrs. W. S. Sickels. Present for the afternoon were Mesdames C. J.
