

Bank your last dollar on this:

The tires which the largest single group of car-owners in the world are buying, year after year, are giving the best value and the most satisfaction. If that isn't reason enough to put on Good-years, THE leading make, come in and we'll show you two more reasons!

"—the smartest thing in rubber"

New 1932
Goodyear
Standard
All-Weather

TUNE IN Wed. Sat.
Goodyear Coast - to - Coast N. B. C. Radio Programs

Coquille Service Station

Coquille, Oregon
Phone 133

STRANG'S GARAGE
Day and Night Service

HOOKE'S GARAGE
Open Day & Night

Live News From Arago

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Fish, of Bandon, were visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fish, of Fichtel, on Saturday.

LaVaun Aasen, Melden Carl, L. M. Aasen and Turner B. MacDonald attended the Missionary Rally at the Christian Church in Coquille Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. C. E. Schroeder entertained as dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Aasen, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lillie and children, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burbank, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Ayers and little daughter, Dorothy, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gustrom and sons, Junior and Darwin.

The grade basket ball teams of Bridge and Arago battled on the local floor Saturday evening. The Bridge girls marched to victory with a 31 to 4 score, while the boys' game was not so one-sided but proved to be the most interesting game of the evening. Each side scored alike with Bridge one point ahead as the final whistle blew, the score being 9 to 10.

Frank Sinko is having his orchard pruned and grafted. Henry Fredenburg, of Halls Creek, is doing the work.

J. B. Moomaw and George Hampton started their farming this week. Mr. Moomaw's tractor ploughed for J. D. Carl last week. Arago farmers are late with their farming, owing to the continued wet season.

A very pleasant evening was spent by the two adult Sunday School classes Thursday at the gymnasium. Ten tables were placed and every one took part in a hilarious game of progressive "cootie." Mrs. Emily Hickam scored high honors for the evening. Refreshments were served at a late hour and every one reported a pleasant evening. Those attending were Messrs. and Mesdames J. L. Burtie, J. D. Carl, Cleve McAllister, Wayne Woodward, Stanley Halter, Walter Farrier, Gus Schroeder, Arthur Farrier, Tyrrell Woodward, C. C. Robinson, Roy Robinson, G. W. Ayers, David Root, Mrs. Emily Hickam, Misses Lilah Dement and Ruth Woodward.

Mrs. A. Bayles, of Portland, is visiting over the week end with her daughter, Miss Gladys Bayles, who is a teacher in the local high school.

B. S. Wallen, of Myrtle Point, and Buster Sullivan, of Marshfield, threatened bent grass several days on the Smith place on Fichtel last week. They finished it Saturday and returned the machine to Marshfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fish are enjoying a visit with their son, Chauncey, who has been attending Bible School at Los Angeles the past six months. He expects to return there soon.

The Arago Bull Dogs added to their percentage last week by winning two league games on the home floor. On Tuesday evening they met with the Lakeside squad and won the game easily, the final score being 32 to 6. The Arago girls came out victorious also with the score of 26 to 10. Friday evening they met the Bridge day evening they met the Bridge teams. The Arago girls overwhelmed the Bridge sextette 36 to 16. Scoring started early in the game. Bridge kept changing positions but could not meet the onslaught of the Arago girls. The boys' game followed and was by far the more interesting. Arago started first string men and built up a score of 17 to 9 at the half. With this lead they thought it safe to put in the second string and did so. During the third quarter the Bull Dogs failed to score while their opponents scored six points. Coach Ayers immediately rushed in the first team and built up the score to 31 to 19 as the final whistle blew. In another year Bridge will have a team worth while.

The 200th anniversary of George Washington was observed at Arago School by a splendid program in keeping with the day. Beginning at nine o'clock the following program was presented: America by the audience. Recitation, "Lesson to America," by Laura Bernice Lillie. Essay on Washington by Cecil Patrick. Song, "U. S. A. Forever," third, fourth and fifth grade boys. Recitation, "A Modern Washington," Joseph Fitch. Exercise, "Little Historians," first and second grades. "Gettysburg Address," Freddie Vetter. Song Flag Drill, fifth and sixth grades. Playlet, "Washington or Lincoln," third and fourth grades. Recitation, "His Country," Lawrence Barnett. Exercise, "February's Famous Birthdays," first and second grades. Song by girls' quartette. Essay on Lincoln, Jean Watkins. Recitation, "The Minuet," Violet Dornath. "The Minuet," third and fourth grades. Recitation, "The Flag Says," Virginia Barnett. Recitation, Donald Hollenbeck. Playlet, "Memories," fifth and sixth grades. Recitation, "The Glory of Washington," Fred Miller. "Star Spangled Banner," Flag Salute and "America, the Beautiful," by the audience. A number of parents came out and enjoyed the program.

A six and one-half pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ted Dunwoodie, of Marshfield, on Friday, Feb. 19. Mrs. Dunwoodie was formerly Lena Wallen and a student of Arago high school a few years ago.

Knife Hospital Notes

Ed. McKeown, whose home is on East First street, underwent an operation for hernia at the hands of Dr. Richmond, Monday. He is recovering nicely.

T. C. Zosel was brought to the hospital last Friday for treatment for an injured foot and shoulder. He was injured by a rock slide on the North Bank road while engaged in county road work.

Mrs. Bert Ocheltree, of Powers, who had been unconscious for several days, passed away at the hospital last Sunday at one p. m.

Call Farr & Elwood for transfer and fuel.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

W. H. Bunch went to Gravel Ford Monday afternoon to spend a week at the home of his brother, F. S. Bunch, and family.

Ray Morrison was given a birthday dinner at his home Saturday evening in honor of his birthday. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Watzling, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Watzling, June Baker, Katie Guerin, M. J. Morrison, Frank and Ray Morrison and J. Watzling.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Sunstrup returned the last of the week from Corvallis, where they spent several days attending the butter-makers' convention and short course offered by the college.

Chas. Schroeder, of Bandon, and Tom Gurney are on a business trip to points in California.

Ann Harlocker was a Coquille visitor Sunday.

Mrs. H. Watzling, Donald Druliner, June Baker and Frank Morrison spent Sunday in Bandon.

The Oregon Products dinner sponsored each year by the Woman's Club will be held on Friday, March 4th. Arrangements are being made so that those who wish may enjoy a social evening afterwards at no extra cost. Tables for various card games, anagrams, etc., will be supplied. Everyone is urged to come, for this is the main financial project of the year.

The Rebekahs and Odd Fellows enjoyed a potluck supper at 6:30 p. m. in their hall Monday night. The Rebekahs held their regular meeting at 8:30 p. m.

Members of the Garden Club went to Coquille Tuesday evening to meet with the Coquille Flower Lovers club.

Rev. H. F. Irvin returned to Myrtle Point the first of the week. He and Rev. J. R. Wiley are having a debate on the doctrine of the baptism of the holy spirit and the speaking in unknown tongues. The debate started Tuesday evening, Feb. 23, and will end Sunday, Feb. 28th, in the Foursquare Gospel church of Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCloskey entertained Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lewellen and son, Jim, Stanley Furman, Delores Belloni, Lila Dye, Janet Martin, and Lyle Carver.

Anslem Johnson, of Marshfield, has leased the Josephine Neal ranch of 180 acres, south of Broadbent on the South Fork.

The Mann Electric shop has been sold to two gentlemen, one from North Bend and the other from Klamath Falls. Mr. Shaekly is from North Bend and Mr. Newton from Klamath Falls. The new firm will go by the name of the Myrtle Point Electric.

A program was given at the Broadbent school house Monday in honor of Washington. Following the program trees, supplied by O. S. C., were planted.

"The Four Flushers," a three-act comedy by Caesar Dunn, will be presented Friday by the faculty of Myrtle Point high school.

The Myrtle Point Bobcats met the Marshfield Pirates Friday evening in the armory at Marshfield and Myrtle Point won, the score being 19 to 9. This will place Myrtle Point among the first for the county championship. The line-up was: Carver and Shelton, forwards; Ray, center; Felscher and Woods, guards. The second team game was also played at seven o'clock.

Word has been received that Miss Thelma Howe, of Creswell, formerly a teacher in the Myrtle Point grade school, was recently united in marriage to Harvey Wright of Portland.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Gilpatrick, Friday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Hoffman, the baby's grandparents. They have named him William James.

Mrs. Frank Wittman passed away at the home of relatives in Portland last Tuesday. Her body was shipped here and the funeral service was Friday. She was buried in the Coquille cemetery.

Members of Mrs. Hazelwood's Sunday School class in the Presbyterian Church entertained members of Miss Laird's class at a party Friday night, as the result of a contest which the latter class won.

Miss Dolores Barklow, of Norway, was a week-end visitor at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Charlie Butler.

The Cliff Wilson family is in quarantine, their little son having measles. The Hiland Theatre re-opened Sunday, after having been closed for several weeks.

Mrs. A. C. Chase attended the wedding of her niece, Miss Thelma Howe, in Creswell last Saturday.

Mrs. Henry Huntley returned home Sunday after spending a month at the home of her sister, Mrs. Farmer, who recently underwent an operation.

A group of local young people attended the County Christian Endeavor Rally in Coquille Sunday. A missionary playlet was given by the local group, which consisted of Delbert and Robert Steele, Eugene Kinnicut, Eleanor Breuer, and Mrs. E. V. Ostrander.

Mrs. B. Ocheltree passed away Sunday at the Richmond hospital in Coquille. Mrs. Ocheltree was formerly a resident of Myrtle Point but at the time of her death was living at Powers.

PLANT That Garden NOW!

and enjoy fresh vegetables out of your own garden this summer.

Our Stock of GARDEN SEEDS

both in packages and bulk is complete and now is a good time to make your selection.

Beautify Your Home

By planting flowers. Look over our flower seeds. You can find about anything you want.

FERTILIZER

Both Garden and Flowers

Don't Forget—The Foursquare Commissary Campaign for Clothing and Foodstuffs—March 1st to 5th

Phone
69

Busy Corner Grocery

Free
Delivery

WHEN YOU WANT HAY Oats & Vetch $18.00 a Ton

Phone 16

FARR & ELWOOD

Six Kinds of Coal
Forest Wood

Florence McMullen. Song, by six members of the Octave Club. Play, "Birth of Old Glory," by 3rd and 4th grades.

James Morrison, who is employed at Mike Morrison's camp on Roland creek, spent the week-end with his family here.

The Grange meeting was not as well attended as usual Friday evening. Several topics of interest to Grangers were discussed and the Lecturer, Beth Culver, gave a detailed report of her trip to the recent Lecturers' conference in Eugene. Plans were made to give a play this spring. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening by Nellie Culver, Beth Culver and Alice Evernden. Irene Hatfield, Ruth Brown and Ionella Curtiss were appointed to serve at the next meeting.

A jolly Plantation Jubilee is to be given in the high school auditorium Saturday by members and friends of the Octave Club. The cast of characters is as follows: Eucalyptus, Earl Ramsey; Mose, Clarence Clayton; Uncle Rastus, Henry Brownson; Andy, Glenn Hutton; Amos, Orin Lett; Bones, Oliver F. Clarke; Sambo, Karl Ehrig; Snowball, D. S. Brode; Lightning, Harry Brownson; Madame Queen, Alma Larkins; Ruby Taylor, Ionella Curtiss; Miss Shady, Mrs. D. S. Brode; Aunt Caroline, Mrs. Earl Ramsey; Miss Lily, Elsie Lamp; Miss Liza, Marvel Brode; Melinda Lee, Helen Pancoast; Miss Sally, Mildred Ramsey. There will be four delightful speciality numbers between acts.

Joe Huff and his sister, Dollie West, went to Terrebonne to attend the funeral of Harvey R. Inks, of that place, Monday. Mr. Inks died of heart trouble. The Inks family lived at Bridge for a number of years and have many friends here who extend their sympathy to Mrs. Inks, Herbert, Robert and Beatrice, all of whom live in the vicinity of Terrebonne.

The Sunday School attendance numbered 68 again last Sunday.

W. J. Large, of Eugene, filled the pulpit both morning and evening. Mrs. Henry Carver, who began a series of meetings here a week ago Sunday, announced that she would continue to hold services each evening this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Culver entertained Mrs. Elsie Lamp, Mrs. Ruth Brown, Miss Alma Larkins and Mrs. Lucy Culver at dinner Sunday.

About twenty ladies met at the Grange Hall Friday afternoon to hear Mrs. Zelta Rosenwald's lecture on "Planned Kitchens." She plans to be here again on the afternoon of March 4th, for another lecture.

The boys' basket ball team from Coos River will be here tonight (Friday) for the last League game of the season. The Bridge teams were both defeated in the games at Arago last Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hooton and daughters, Lou, Maude and Dorothy, were among a group of guests entertained at dinner at the G. M. Parker home near Myrtle Point Sunday.

W. J. Large was a guest at the W. A. Lett home during his visit to our community this past week-end. From here he went to Brewster Valley, where he will spend a few days in the interests of the Sunday School work there.

Miss Nina Warner, of Bancroft, is ill with flu.

Safety First! Use Cow Bell Dairy's Pasteurized Milk and protect your health.