

Tire Up! —at record-breaking Low Cost

MILLIONS more people buy Goodyear Tires. Why? Bank on it the reason is, Goodyears are the best values. We can prove this to you, by actual test.

GOODYEAR PATHFINDER

Let us show you the finer quality in these latest type Goodyears—despite lower prices.

Size	Each
29x4.40	$ 4.79
29x4.50	5.35
30x4.50	5.45
28x4.75	6.35
29x5.00	6.65
30x5.00	6.75
31x5.00	7.00
28x5.25	7.55
29x5.25	7.75
30x5.25	7.90
31x5.25	8.15
32x6.00	10.95
33x6.00	11.10

OTHER SIZES
EQUALLY LOW

TUNE IN Wed. Sat.
Goodyear Coast-to-Coast N. B. C. Radio Programs

Coquille Service Station

Coquille, Oregon
Phone 133

STRANG'S GARAGE
Day and Night Service

HOOKE'S GARAGE
Open Day & Night

Live News From Arago

Mrs. Albert Fish underwent an emergency operation for appendicitis at the Kaiser hospital in North Bend Sunday afternoon. She is improving as well as could be expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Gulstrom and son, Junior and Darwin Buri, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robinson, of Norway, on Sunday.

Mrs. Louis English and little daughter, Ruth Louise, returned to their home in Coquille Sunday. Mrs. English has spent the past two months here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fish.

Myrtle Union Christian Endeavor will hold an executive meeting at Arago Sunday afternoon at two o'clock. Everyone is invited.

Mrs. Emily Hickam and little son, Kent, moved Saturday to Dement creek where she will teach school this summer. Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Schroeder took them up in their car.

The Arago Bull Dogs suffered defeat at the hands of the Coos River five on Saturday evening, thereby giving Coos River the "B" league championship, Arago and Coos River being tied for the honor until this game. The Bull Dogs held their own for the first half, being one point ahead at that period. In the last half, owing to the condition of some of their players, Arago gradually fell behind until the score stood 24 to 18 in favor of Coos River as the final whistle blew. Consequently Arago will meet Coquille at the tournament Thursday evening.

The Coos River girls won over the Arago girls by the small margin of 14 to 12.

The independent teams played a very uninteresting game, ending in the top heavy score of 25 to 11 in favor of Arago.

Mrs. J. D. Carl served a birthday dinner Sunday in honor of her sister, Mrs. Gus Bender. The following guests were served: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Burtis, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Bender and children, Elsworth and Dorothy, Mary Jean McAllister, Melden, Herbert and Wallace Carl.

Mrs. C. C. Robinson, Mrs. C. C. Schroeder and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Carl were guests of the Coquille Grange Thursday evening. All report a very pleasant evening.

Mrs. George Hampton enjoyed a visit over the week end with her sister, Mrs. T. W. Dunwoodie, and little daughter, Patsy Joan, of Marshfield.

Tom Dixon & Son, contractors of Myrtle Point, are repairing the foundation of the Arago Cheese factory this week.

Mrs. Stanley Halter entertained at dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs.

Lawrence Barklow, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Woodward, and son, Gerald, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Myers and Oliver Myers.

Mrs. Albert Gulstrom entertained a group of about twenty youngsters on Thursday evening in honor of the birthdays of her little son, Junior, who was eight years old, and his cousin, Rayburn Lewis, ten years old. They spent a very pleasant evening, after which they were served dainty refreshments of ice cream and cake.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Nosler and Mr. and Mrs. Ned Kelley, of Coquille, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Turner MacDonald Saturday.

News Notes From Powers

Miss Dorothy Demus (Stanley) left Sunday for Sheridan, Wyoming, to join her father.

Charlie Fox, of Langlois, spent Monday in Powers attending to business and called on his brother, Pete.

Mrs. J. W. Gamwell and Dorothy Jackson were hostesses at the Fellowship club Wednesday. Four tables of Bridge were in play during the afternoon.

Roy (Pete) Robinson and Allan King Jr. returned to Powers Saturday, after spending the winter at Long Prairie where they were feeding cattle for Lester Dement.

Born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Krick, a son.

Hubert N. (Slim) McFarland surprised his many friends when he returned to Powers Sunday accompanied by a Mrs. McFarland. His bride was formerly Lucille Braden. They were married in Washington, with a short honeymoon in Portland and vicinity.

They returned Monday morning to Eckley, where Mr. McFarland has lived on the Avery place for the past eight years. His many friends in Powers are wishing them the heartiest congratulations.

The fallers on Eden ridge are working at an altitude of 3200 feet.

Orin Stanley, who has been seriously ill with pneumonia, is very much improved.

Taukano Club Notes

The Taukano club was entertained Thursday evening, March 3rd, at the home of Mrs. Vance Weekly. After a pleasant evening of cards and sewing delicious refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames Earl Schroeder, Wm. Peart, Jack Page, Robt. Waggoner, M. Bennett, Carl Ensele, Geo. Burr, Jack Leach, J. W. McGuffin, Chas. Ross, A. L. Burch, Floyd Price, Esther Gisholt, Ella Sheehan and the hostess, Mrs. Weekly.

Calling cards 100 for $1.50.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Miss Dolores Belloni and Katie Guerin and Roy Morrison were Bandon visitors Sunday.

Perna Harris, who is employed in the M. J. Morrison logging camp on Rolland creek, was a Myrtle Point visitor over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Laird and daughter, Marguerite, were Langlois visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Morrison went to Portland early Sunday morning and returned Tuesday evening, bringing Albert La Branche back with them. He has been ill for some time in the Good Samaritan hospital.

The Carnival Dance given by the S. O. S. Friday night proved to be a success. The dance was given in Schroeder's hall, which was decorated very attractively with greenery and club colors and emblems. Small hats, whistles and serpentine were given out during the evening, which added to the fun. Since it was held immediately after the North Bend game, many students attended the dance.

The board of directors of the grade school decided at a meeting last week to reduce the grade school teaching force by three teachers instead of cutting wages. This arrangement will save approximately 25 per cent of the amount of this year's budget.

The Elgin social club of the O. E. S. is planning a patriotic play to be presented in the high school auditorium March 25th.

Mrs. G. M. Parker entertained at her home Saturday evening. The evening was spent picking wool. Those present were Mrs. C. L. Church, Miss Velma Austin, Miss Phelps, Lillie Smith, Ellen Bjorkquist, Ruth Woodward, Verna Hermann, Mrs. Parker and daughter, Claudia.

Miss Dolores Davenport has been receiving medical aid in Coquille this week.

While Mrs. Helen Endicott is enjoying a three months' leave of absence from the telephone office, Miss Wilda Barker is taking her place.

Mrs. Mary Chaney went to Portland last week. She entered a hospital there for a minor operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Mast, of Lee, are ill at the home of Dr. Mast.

Leland L. Linn, John Esman, Clarence L. Church, Pat Rickard and Mrs. Aileen Barker attended the basketball sub-tournament in Port Orford Saturday evening. Mr. Rickard refereed the games.

The Epworth League of the Methodist Church here are the proud possessors of the League banner, which they won at the convention held at Ashland on March 4, 5 and 6. There were twenty-four from Myrtle Point composed of league members and their friends. Rev. E. G. Ranton of the local church was head of the musical committee and thrilled the audience with many clever numbers.

Bobby Burns gave several numbers on the pipe organ and a few selections on the piano. Those attending the convention were Rev. and Mrs. E. G. Ranton and sons, Helen and Anita Gill, Margaret Sunstrup, Mary Evans, Milton Schroeder, Edward Bender, Gladys and Silvia Latham, Cora Bullack, Gene Pressler, Earl Breuer, Dale Druliner, Bobby Burns, Derl Carver, Julia Meryl, Charles and Kenneth Leatherman, Paula Breuer and Lila and Herman Nelson.

Myrtle Point Bobcats won from the North Bend Bulldogs Friday evening on the local floor. This was the last game of the season and Myrtle Point ranked fourth in the county league. The game was very exciting all the way through and Myrtle Point has fine prospects for the tournament success.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Preston, Jr. have moved from Maryland avenue into the W. R. Northup home on Railroad avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Northup left the first of the week for Port Orford where Mr. Northup has a lumber contract.

Al Poppe and Jay Schrieffer are planning to move their bakery from Jam Johnson's home to the Dad Buell estate on Sixth and Willow streets.

Brewster Valley

Julius Benham and Ivan Laird returned home Thursday from a four day business trip to Seattle.

Elmer Wilson, who has been hauling the milk from the valley every other day, has to take it every morning now.

Mrs. Florese Wilson was in Coquille Wednesday to receive medical aid.

Mr. Polly Nickason was a business visitor at Coquille Wednesday.

Edwin Crowley was unable to attend school three days of last week on account of the flu.

Mrs. Mary Laird went to Coquille Thursday to take care of her daughter, Mrs. Bonnie Dutton, who fell and injured her back.

Doris Prohaska who has a perfect attendance record at school received a day's vacation Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Minard, of Dora, spent three days of last week at the Lester Mayse home, returning to their home Saturday.

Several ladies from here spent the day in McKinley listening to a lecture and demonstration of kitchen equipment, given at the McKinley hall, Thursday, by Mrs. Zelta Rosenwald, extension specialist of home economics from Oregon State College. Those from here were: Mildred Benham, Zilphia Krewson, Flossie Wilson, Reba Alford, Ethel Abernathy, Mary Laird, and Blanche Prohaska. Mrs. Rosenwald expects to be back again in two weeks to deliver another lecture on kitchen and kitchen equipment.

Miss Doris Durrell and her mother were Myrtle Point visitors Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prohaska were visitors at Roseburg Wednesday, where Mr. Prohaska attended a business meeting of the Mountain States Power Co. men.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Lawhorn have completed building their new house and are now ready to move in and begin housekeeping. They were Marshall visitors over the week end.

Merley Kenyon, of Myrtle Point, is up here surveying a logging road for J. E. Paulson on the South side of the valley.

Ruby Yarbrough is ill at her home with a bad cold.

Sunday school attendance was 58. All officers and teachers were present except Julius Benham.

Mr. and Mrs. Benham were Myrtle Point visitors Sunday.

Bridge Happenings

The Christian Endeavor meeting Sunday evening was interesting and well attended. W. A. Lett was the leader. Being the first Sunday of the month, the consecration service was a special feature of the program.

Because of so much illness among the students, the high school was dismissed Monday afternoon for a couple of days. The principle, Oliver Clarke, who became ill over a week ago, is convalescing now. Mrs. Clarke has also been quite sick. Her mother, Mrs. F. G. Drake, of Willamina, came in last week for an extended visit.

Mrs. Henry Carver closed a three weeks' revival meeting here Sunday evening. She plans to be here again next Sunday in the evening service. Rev. Jesse Barnett will preach in the morning.

Miss Maude Hooton went to Myrtle Point Tuesday morning to work at the Forrest L. Moon home while Mr. Moon is in the Veterans' Hospital in Portland for a sinus operation.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hatfield met with an accident a few miles down the highway Saturday night, when they were coming home from Myrtle Point, and enjoy fresh vegetables out of your own garden this summer.

PLANT That Garden NOW!

Our Stock of GARDEN SEEDS

both in packages and bulk is complete and now is a good time to make your selection.

Beautiful Your Home

By planting flowers. Look over our flower seeds. You can find about anything you want.

FERTILIZER

Both Garden and Flowers

Phone
69

Busy Corner Grocery

Free
Delivery

after delivering a load of wood. The lights suddenly went out and the truck ran into the bank. The occupants were very fortunate to receive only slight cuts and bruises. The truck was damaged to some extent.

There was a good attendance at the Grange meeting Friday evening, though a few members were kept at home by illness. Plans were made to have a dinner at the hall on March 18, when Mrs. Zelta Rosenwald comes for the last of her series of lectures on various phases of home making.

A. O. Hooton who was injured ten days' ago by a fall improves very slowly and is still confined to his bed.

Miss Alma Larkins, Mrs. Elsie Lamp and Mrs. Ruth Brown attended the rural teachers meeting at Broadbent Saturday.

Milton and Chauncey Gettmann, of Newberg, and Everett, who teaches at Marcola, spent the past week end here with their sister, Laurene Gettmann, who is a teacher in the Bridge High School.

Roy School News

The honor roll for the fourth term included the following pupils: Ronald Burr, Ida Gerlach, Josephine Robison, Ernest Detlefsen, Jimmy Avery, Clinton Burr, Gene Bonniksen, Laurie Robison, Lois Medley, Dorene Robison, Betty Miller, Kenneth Bonniksen.

Pupils receiving Palmer Awards this term were: Jimmy Avery, Josephine Robison, Clarence McNair, Richard Avery, Rocky Robison, Walter Biasca, Betty Miller, Lois Medley.

The dental contest is under way. The following pupils received Good Teeth buttons: Josephine Robison, Maxine Avery, Gene Bonniksen, Clinton Burr, Laura McNair, Walter Biasca, Dorene Robison. Several others will soon have buttons.

The Mothers' Club gave a party Saturday night in the school gymnasium, inviting every one in the community. Games and dancing furnished the amusements after which refreshments were served.

Six boys gave a flag drill at the regular meeting of the Coquille Grange, March 3. The boys who took part were: Clinton Burr, Ithmer Robison, Harold Shull, Rocky Robison, Richard Avery and Laurie Robison.

The Mothers' Club met with Mrs. W. E. Cross Wednesday, March 2.

The 4-H clubs have set April first as Achievement Day. Their projects are nearly completed and they are to arrange their own program.

The pupils are enthusiastic about the spelling and declamation contests to be held in Coquille April 23. Each contest will have representatives from this school.

Card of Thanks

We desire to express to our friends and neighbors our heart-felt thanks for their sympathy and kindness during our recent bereavement and for the floral tokens at the services held for Mrs. A. M. Gilman.

Geo. Gilman and family.

Hiland Theatre!

MYRTLE POINT

SUNDAY - MONDAY - TUESDAY, MARCH 13 - 14 - 15

Wallace Beery and Jackie Cooper in

"The Champ"

Your own eyes, your own heart will tell you that there has come to the screen one of the greatest pictures ever created by genius of man!

Until conditions improve the theatre will be closed each Wednesday and Thursday

FRIDAY - SATURDAY, MARCH 18 - 19

Where life is measured in seconds a love drama is untangled! Thrills as Boundless as the Sea!

"Fifty Fathoms Deep"

Jack Holt and Richard Cromwell

Adults 35c

ADMISSION

Children 10c