

HOW CAR OWNERS VOTED ON THE QUESTION "WHAT MAKE OF TIRE IS BEST?"

Based on a National Tire Survey in 1930 by a large institution.

GOODYEAR	57.7
COMPANY B	15.8
" C	11.8
" D	7.0
" E	6.0
" F	5.7
" G	5.7
" H	5.7
" I	2.4
" J	1.8
" K	1.2
" L	.9
ALL OTHERS	10.4
NO CHOICE	4.4
TOTAL	100%

Why be satisfied with a second-choice tire when FIRST-choice costs no more?

THE BEST TIRES in dependability as in value are GOODYEARS!

Don't take our word for it—take the public's

The public knows. It USES tires—all kinds. It buys, out of its experience with all tires, more Goodyears than any other kind. And the 1932 Goodyears are 45 per cent better in value!

NEW LOW PRICES!

$4.79 EACH
29x4.40-21
TUBE $1.03
In Pairs $4.95 Per Set

Believe us—here IS a Quality Value!

GOODYEAR PATHFINDER

Lifetime Guaranteed Supertwist Cord Tires
CASH PRICES

Full Overalls	Price of Each	Each in Pairs	Tube	Full Overalls	Price of Each	Each in Pairs	Tube
29x4.50-20	$5.35	$5.19	$1.05	30x3.25-20	$7.99	$7.65	$1.33
30x4.50-21	5.43	5.27	1.05	31x3.25-21	8.15	7.91	1.43
28x4.75-19	6.33	6.16	1.17	30x3	4.97	3.95	.81
29x4.75-20	6.43	6.24	1.05	30x3 1/2 (Rag Cl)	4.19	4.06	.90
29x5.00-19	6.65	6.45	1.30	30x3 1/2 OS Cl	4.29	4.16	.90
30x5.00-20	6.75	6.55	1.33	31x4	7.35	7.09	1.33
30x5.25-18	7.53	7.30	1.35	32x4	7.99	7.55	1.33

Other sizes equally low.

TUNE IN Wed. Sat.
Goodyear Coast - to - Coast N. B. C. Radio Programs
Also KOOS Every Day 12 to 12:15

Good Used Tires $1, $1.50 up—Expert Vulcanizing

COQUILLE SERVICE STATION

Phone 133

Hooker's Garage
Open Day & Night

Strang's Garage
Day and Night Service

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

Mrs. M. J. Morrison, J. Watzling and Mrs. Ed Watzling motored to Roseburg Thursday to meet Gertrude Watzling, who came from Medford, where she is teaching, to spend the week-end here.

Miss Elinor Saubert, former teacher of Myrtle Point, arrived from Portland Thursday and spent the week-end with friends.

Miss Margaret Lever, who is attending Linfield College, spent the week-end at the E. J. Schneider home.

The Myrtle Point typing team may enter the Douglas county typing contest this year, as there is none in this county.

Miss Helen Deyoe and her friend, Helen Busyn, of Klamath Falls, spent the week end at the W. W. Deyoe home.

The Young People's Society of the Brethren Church gave a four-act Easter Biblical drama, "He Lives," Sunday evening.

Kenneth Carl spend the Easter vacation with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Carl. Kenneth is a student at O. S. C.

Miss Thelma Snyder and Della Blondell spent the week-end in Bandon.

Mrs. Allen M. Brower left last week for Ashland. She will finish her high school work by correspondence. Mr. Brower motored here and took his bride back with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Baker and Mrs. Armina Noble, of Los Angeles, have been visiting their daughter and sister, Mrs. L. E. Giles and family.

Misses Hazel Kroger and Verna Barklow, who are attending the Ashland Normal School, spent the spring vacation at their homes in Myrtle Point.

Lloyd Davenport spent the week-end with his parents here. He is a student at O. S. C.

Hazel Gearhart, daughter of Mr.

and Mrs. J. N. Gearhart, left Sunday for Corvallis, after a delightful vacation at home.

The Elgin Club of the Eastern Star are going to put on a colonial play April 15th in the high school auditorium.

Mrs. Florence Neideigh entertained her bridge club Thursday at a 1:30 luncheon.

Dicky Emery, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Emery, fell Sunday and broke both bones in his right arm, near the wrist.

Merlie Kenyon, local Class B member of the Coos County Rod & Gun Club, was high-point man at the trap shoot in Coquille Sunday.

Miss Ann Harlocker had the misfortune Tuesday to fall and break the bone in her right arm.

Wallace Dement returned home Sunday from Los Angeles, bringing his mother, Mrs. W. T. Dement, with him. She had spent the winter in Los Angeles with her daughter.

A surprise birthday dinner party was given in honor of George Hoffman March 23, by his wife. Those enjoying the dinner were: Mr. and Mrs. Milton Hoffman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frasier Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Epperson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hoffman and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Perry and children and the hosts and guest of honor and their son, Charles Edward.

Mrs. Marian Endicott, of Dunsmuir, California, is visiting relatives in Myrtle Point.

Miss Elizabeth Baird, operator in the local telephone office, visited in Medford Friday.

Dick Barklow and Johnny Carmen, who are attending Linfield College at McMinnville, spent the week-end with their parents here.

Mrs. Chloe Holden and daughter, of Salem, have been visiting with her niece, Mrs. Ford Worsham, here.

Grandma Luttrell is spending a few weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Emery Eggers and family at Broadbent.

About fifty members of the congregation of the Presbyterian church met in the church dining room after the Easter service Sunday morning and enjoyed a delightful covered dish dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Loren Miller and son, Dwayne, of Gardiner, spent Sunday with relatives in this city.

Orville Miller, who has spent the past year with her uncle near Pendleton, is visiting with her mother, Mrs. Cora Mulkey, for a few weeks.

Bud Horsmann, of Gardiner, was a Sunday visitor in Myrtle Point.

Lester Dement drove to Corvallis Sunday, taking with him his daughter, Elizabeth, who has been spending the Easter vacation with home folks.

Mrs. Lena Warner, assistant post-mistress, is quite ill with flu.

Paul Crooks, of Sumner, spent Sunday at the Henry Huntley home.

Mrs. Bessie Warner has returned from Portland, where she has been with her daughter who recently entered the Good Samaritan hospital to take nurse's training.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Fenster, of Merrill, spent a few days visiting friends in this vicinity.

The Woman's Club met Monday for their regular meeting. The meeting was in charge of the past presidents.

Mrs. John Essman entertained the Woman's Bridge Club Thursday evening. The members met at 6:30 and after dinner two tables of bridge were enjoyed. Those playing were: Misses Alice Alverdes, Pearl Dodele, Gertrude Sick, Charlotte Brosius, Ruth Barton and Mesdames R. H. Mast, John Essman and James Mast.

Miss Velma Austin, third grade teacher, has been quite ill with the flu. Mrs. Alice Lafferty, of Norway, is substituting for her.

Mrs. Minnie Lester and daughter, June, left Friday for their home in Corcoran, Calif., after a few days'

Delicious Food at LOWEST PRICES

Fancy Smoked Meats at Hard Times Prices

- MORRELL'S PRIDE BACON
Very Fancy 4 to 6 lbs. sides
By the piece @ 23c lb
- MORRELL'S PRIDE FANCY SKINNED HAMS
1/2 or whole @ 20c lb
- FANCY SHORT SHANK SHOULDERS
Very Fine @ 14c lb
- BACON FLITCHES—3 to 4 lbs. each
Good cure—only 13c lb
- FANCY PICKLED PIGS FEET CUTLETS
Absolutely Boneless—Pt. Jars 25c
Pt. Jars—35c
- PICKLED SLICED TONGUE - - - - - 25c Quart
- RIPE OLIVES in Bulk - - - - - 53c
- TABLE PEACHES, No. 10 Tins - - - - - 27c
- GROUND CHOCOLATE—Guittard 1 lb can - - - 79c
Guittard 3 lb. can - - - - -

Phone 69 Busy Corner Grocery Free Delivery

visit with relatives in this vicinity. They were accompanied as far as Roseburg by Mrs. P. W. Laird and Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McCloskey.

The log house belonging to Frank Kamper in the Stringtown district was the scene of a tragedy last Thursday afternoon, when the house was destroyed by fire and the body of the elderly gentleman was burned to a crisp. The fire department was called but too late to do any good. He is survived by a son in Marshfield, Otto Kamper, and a brother, Fred Kamper.

Brewster Valley

At one-thirty last Friday, a short Easter program was given under the direction of Miss Eloda Krewson. Between showers the pupils of Sitkum school hunted for Easter eggs, wearing overcoats, hats, and coats. Forester Krewson received the prize for finding the most eggs. The prize was a large wooden egg filled with candy eggs. After the egg hunt, the pupils and visitors met in the gymnasium, where thirty-minutes were spent in Easter games and stunts. In spite of the rain everyone present reported a very enjoyable time.

Mrs. Mulkey, county superintendent, was a visitor at the Sitkum school Friday morning. She brought the 4-H charter which is awarded by the U. S. Department of Agriculture and O. S. C. in recognition of organization of a standard 4-H club and its agreement to carry on demonstrations in cooking, in accordance with approved plans for boys' and girls' club work.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prohaska and niece, Doris, went to Roseburg Saturday night to attend "Question Mark Club" party given for those connected with work on the power line.

Edwin Crowley has had another relapse from the flu, which makes the fourth one. He was taken to Dr. Wilson at Coquille Sunday.

Mrs. David Crowley and daughter, Elsie May, are confined to their home with the flu. Ivan Crowley who has missed several days of school, is now able to return to his studies.

There were forty-one at Sunday School with all officers and teachers present. A short Easter program was given.

Misses Maxine and Lorraine Simpson and Craig Perrott, of Coquille, spent Saturday evening at the Crowley home.

Mrs. Max Harvey and son, Dewain Shoemaker, of Roseburg, were in the valley Friday looking after their homestead which they have taken up back of the Perley Crowley home, across the river. They returned to Roseburg Saturday but plan to move here soon.

Mrs. Polly Nickason gave a birthday dinner in honor of Miss Florence Mead Friday. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Nickason and family and Mrs. Carrie Nickason and the honored guest, Miss Mead.

Norman Laird went to Coquille Saturday morning, taking his sister, Mrs. Bonnie Dutton, home. He left Sunday morning for a trip to Portland.

The Ladies Club of Brewster Valley had to postpone their regular meeting for two weeks, on account of so much illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reed and son, Gerald, from Bridge, came to visit a few days with Mrs. Reed's sister, Mrs. Elmer Wilson.

Fred Kamper received word Friday that his brother, Frank Kamper, had been found burned to death in the embers of his house. He and a nephew are the only survivors.

Kermit Shepherd, who has been staying in McKinley, is now staying with his sister, Mrs. Louis Laird.

Mr. and Mrs. Brant Taylor, Mrs. Marion Jones and Hazel Taylor spent Tuesday and Wednesday visiting at Four Mile.

A birthday supper was given at the Elmer Wilson home Friday in honor of Miss Florence Mead. Those present were: Norman and Paul Laird, Alta Mead, Flossie, Elmer, Charles, Burton and Virginia Wilson, Mrs. Bonnie Dutton and Florence Mead.

Harold Shepherd hauled lumber Monday from Christensen's mill to fix a bridge on the south side of the river, which leads to the Mayes, Parks and Nickason homes.

Albert Christensen is confined to his home with the flu.

Mr. Beaumont, of Marshfield, made a myrtlewood table for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Christensen. The myrtlewood was taken from their own place. He is now making a set of chairs to match the table.

Perley Crowley left for Marshfield Monday to take his son, Edwin, to see the ear specialist, Dr. Fox. The latest report was that Edwin was taken to the hospital with a badly infected ear.

lasting nearly an hour. Our Sunday School roll says that one hundred and eleven attended.

P. H. Brewer was visiting his ranch on Fishtrap this week from California. He reports times very dull down there at this time. Mr. Brewer has been with the highway department.

The Sevy family visited at Arago Easter. They enjoyed an Easter program at Langlois before coming up.

Mrs. Wm. Knabe at her home last Thursday entertained at a shower for Mrs. Hollenbeck. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent and the guest of honor received many nice gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Moore motored to Corvallis Saturday on business. They reported the driving rather bad.

Geo. Hampton attended a meeting of the Coos County Agriculture council at Coquille Monday. They met with the county court.

Wallace Carl underwent an operation for appendicitis and tonsils Friday at the Knife Hospital. He was very low Friday evening but is rallying nicely now and we hope to see him home soon.

C. E. Schroeder and J. D. Carl sent their yearling heifers to Eckley to pasture Friday. They had a large truck load.

Frank Sinko and Kenneth Carl spent the Easter vacation at home. Kenneth returned Sunday but Frank has his home place at the Swift Creamery at Coquille.

Clyde Lillie is another 4-H club boy to have a purebred Jersey heifer for his project this year. His father secured one for him from Fred Lafferty. Good luck, Clyde.

Mrs. J. L. Burtis motored to Portland Friday, accompanied by Mrs. C. E. Schroeder, Miss Lois Schroeder and Mrs. Geo. Hampton. They expect to spend a week visiting with friends and relatives.

We are glad to hear that Frank Burbank has a school for next year. He will teach the Johnson Mill school. Ah, Professor.

Houston Robieon was visiting home folks during vacation. He is attending the Ashland Normal and will finish this year. Houston says that not many of the graduating class of this year have signed to teach as yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Shields, of Portland, visited at the Walter Farrier home several days this week. Mr. Shields is a plumbing contractor. Mrs. Shields was formerly Miss Eva Farrier.

Mrs. H. A. Fish, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Kaiser hospital two weeks ago, expected to come home last Saturday, but as she did not gain as was expected, she couldn't come for a few days yet.

Live News From Arago

The Arago church held their annual Easter dinner Sunday, about one hundred attending. Rev. Mr. Flenner delivered the Easter sermon and the children put on a splendid program