SOCIAL NOTES

Yesterday Mrs. W. D. Simmons entertained the Laf-a-lot club at her home for the afternoon. Conversation and sewing were the diversions of the afternoon, with refreshments served later to those attending, as follows: Mesdames Wm. Myers, B. B. Sanders, Geo. Gilman, Ralph Lucas, E. A. Wimer, Chas. Kime, W. E. Cross, Ed Dettlefsen, Clifford Bonniksen, P. J. Jacobsen, Jack Arnold and Miss Edith Jacobsen.

The O. D. O. club is meeting this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Gus H. Tillman, with the following included: Mesdames Geo. Sherwood, H. G. Prey, L. A. Christensen, B. B. Sanders, Lee Hand, Ralph Lucas, L. C. Sherwood and J. R. Bunch.

Today the J. G. W. club is meeting at the home of Mrs. L. A. Liljeqvist in Marshfield for a no-host luncheon and sewing in the afternoon. About twenty ladies from here are motoring over.

Mrs. Ralph S. Taylor delightfully entertained her bridge club at her home on South Henry street Tuesday afternoon. Early delphiniums and primroses were used in decorating the rooms. Mrs. Taylor served dainty refreshments at the close of the afternoon with the following enjoying the day: Mesdames Geo. Gilman, Fred Hickok, Ray Simpson, E. C. Yarbrough, Frank Pook, E. A. Wimer, W. E. Cross, Clifford Bonniksen, Swain Donsted, Josh Ruble and Mrs. John E. Belloni, of Myrtle Point. Next Tuesday the ladies will meet with Mrs. Ray Simpson.

The second bridge game of a series that are being played by the Bachelor club and the Strictly Fems met Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Harriet Gould. Scores are being kept during this series of games, with the losers to entertain the winners at a dinner. The Strictly Fems let the Bachelors out do them by 8000 points at the meeting Tuesday evening. The contest will no doubt become very interesting before the close. Attending were Misses Avis Hartson, Jean Young, Eleanor Folsom, Beatrice Morris, Lois Morrison, Mrs. Helen Grier and Mrs. Beryl Wilson, Messrs. Jack Dettlefsen, Lewis Donaldson, Clifford Rice, Lester Wilson, Ross Kistner, Bill Barrow, Geo. McClellan and Dr. J. J. Leslie.

Mrs. John C. Oerding entertained last week in honor of her daughter, Marjorie's birthday. The afternoon was spent in playing games, after which the little tots were seated around a large table which had as its centerpiece a large bowl of daffodils. Brightly colored baskets filled with candy, Easter eggs and bunnies were placed at each child's plate. Lovely refreshments were served to the youngsters. The children enjoying Marjorie's party were: Marianne Rackleff, Patty Ann Brady, Harriet June Walker, Nancy Ann Haga, Geraldine Oerding, Patricia Kathan, Martha Jane and Bobbie Oerding and Virginia and Marjorie Oerding.

Ladies attending the W. C. T. U. social last Friday at the home of Mrs. Phillip Hartman enjoyed a pleasant afternoon. Up to date news items and a discussion of Congress and the 18th amendment was presented by several members, as well as a report on needs of the Children's Home.

At the social meeting sewing was done for the Home and anyone having materials suitable for doll clothes or for teaching the girls to sew, please let some member know about it. At the next meeting shirts of all sizes are wanted for some of the ninety boys in the Home, any size will be usable.

Refreshments were served to the members and visitors present. A business meeting will be held April 8 in the Pioneer Church.

Taukano Club Notes

Mrs. Eva Preston was hostess to the Taukano club at the home of Mrs. Harold Varney on Thursday evening, March 24. A very enjoyable time was spent with cards and sewing. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. Varney and Miss Elizabeth Varney, served delicious refreshments to a large crowd of members and guests. Those present were: Mesdames Vance Weekly, Earl Schroeder, Jack Leach, Eva Preston, F. E. Bennett, Jack Page, Floyd Price, A. L. Burch, W. D. Simmons, Wm. Peart, W. B. McLarrin, Ernest Battey, H. Varney, Laura Shields, Robt. Waggoner, A. W. Jensen, Geo. Burr, C. E. Hurrell and Miss Elizabeth Varney. Mrs. Jack Leach will entertain the club on April 7th at her home.
