Riverton News

The operetta, "Polished Pebbles," given Friday night by the Junior and Senior Glee clubs under the direction of A. E. Haan was a great success. Mr. Haan's combined town and school orchestras played several numbers before the operetta was given. The gymnasium was packed with a very appreciative audience, which complimented Mr. Haan on being able to accomplish so much with his people in so short a time.

The seventh and eighth grade room has just one honor pupil for the first six weeks and she is Geraldine Gilbert.

Three grade pupils go from here to Coquille Saturday to enter the contests to be held there. Evelyn Berry will enter the declamation contest, Geraldine Gilbert will enter the spelling contest and Frank Morris the music contest.

Last Saturday a number of the men and young men, equipped with shovels, plow, fresnos, teams, etc., did a lot of good work on the school ground. The women of the community served lunch at noon. The school ground looks much better.

The social event of the week was a luncheon at the home of Mrs. Alton Clausen, of Leneve, on Wednesday, the occasion being a shower for Mrs. Lester Clausen. A delicious pot luck luncheon was served at noon, after which the opening of the presents and sewing were the diversions of the afternoon. Those present beside the hostess and Mrs. Lester Clausen were Mesdames Pierson, Alton Kay, Jim Watson, Mary Clausen and Geo. Hepler, from Leneve; Mesdames W. T. Alpine, F. Beck, C. W. Martin, Ben F. Atkinson, Lee Atkinson, Mettie Peterson and C. M. Hartwell, of Riverton; Mrs. Louise Leslie, of Coquille, and Mrs. Mary Schooler, of Raymond, Washington.

The high school students whose names appear on the honor roll for this last six weeks period are: Marie Dye, Helen Nulf, Georgia Philpott, John Heilman, Wilda Houser, Cleo Bush, Violet Morris and Cherie Mae Hartwell.

A chicken dinner is being given by Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Van Leuven, of Parkersburg, in honor of the Riverton basketball team. The high school faculty is also invited. A chicken dinner at the Van Leuven home is an annual affair. The event is always eagerly looked forward to. Mrs. Lola Olsen and Mrs. Mettie Peterson spent the day Tuesday with Mrs. Bonnie Welch and her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Sell, of Lampa creek.

A very enjoyable dinner party was had at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bean Sunday evening. Besides the host and hostess there were present Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Dye and daughter, Marie, and Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Beck.

Matt Sap, who has been at Myrtle Point for about two years, has returned to his home here.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Beck and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Martin drove out to Brewster Valley very early Sunday morning on a fishing trip. Despite the rain, they had very good luck and brought home a nice catch of fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Art McMillan and children, of Powers, were visiting Sunday at the home of Mrs. McMillan's father, J. D. Watson.

Pioneer Missionary Society

Mrs. Julius Ruble was hostess to the missionary tea and program of the Pioneer Church Thursday afternoon. The program was opened with community singing. Mrs. F. G. Leslie conducted a very impressive devotional service, including scripture readings and songs. Mrs. J. S. Houck closed with prayer.

Mrs. Henry Ellis had charge of the lesson topic, "Are the Movies Fit for Children." Mesdames E. F. Grider, Julius Ruble, Wm. Peart and Orvil Haga impersonated a group of boys and girls from 13 to 16 years of age who were asked to give their impression of the movies they preferred. The questions and answers were bonafide impressions elicited from youths of that age and certainly gave food for reflection.

Sewing and conversation were enjoyed after the program and later tea was served.

Laboratory Truck Visits Coquille

A Standard Oil Co. laboratory and demonstration car was here last Friday afternoon and attracted a great deal of attention as demonstrations of greasing and oiling were given by the engineer in charge.

By heating bearing to a high degree it was shown how some greases tend to become an oil in the hub cap and splash out on the brake bands, while other greases will retain a mushy consistency and will not flow when heated.
