WEEKLY PROGRAM

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 22 - 23
"CHARLIE CHAN'S CHANCE"

SUNDAY, MONDAY, TUESDAY, APRIL 24 - 25 - 26

With Fredric March
"Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde"

One woman adores him; the other is his pawn; neither can possess him. An entire city stood aghast, for no one could catch Dr. Jekyll when he was Mr. Hyde. And no one ever saw him make the fantastic transformation. It all happens right before your eyes and ears in Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, APRIL 27 - 28
"She Wanted A Millionaire"

With Joan Bennett and Spencer Tracy

The tragic love mistake of a real Miss America. She dreaded poverty more than she craved love. She measured love in dollars and cents and millions. Can love be bought or must it be won?

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, APRIL 29 - 30
"Men of Chance"

With Gary Astor Ricardo Cortez and John Halliday

Three great stars in drama of Woman against the World. Woman with her back to the wall, keeping her bargain with one man, her faith with another. She trapped him, tricked him, broke him, but she couldn't stop loving him.

Selected Shorts with each show. Prices 35c - 10c

Matinee Sunday 2:30 p. m.

Coming "GIRL CRAZY" with Wheeler and Woolsey

SOCIAL NOTES

The Senior "500" club members enjoyed a very pleasant evening together on Tuesday of this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Greenough. A seven o'clock pot luck dinner was served with Bridge following, at which Mrs. Glaisyer won the high score prize. Present were Messrs. and Mesdames Bert Folsom, Hal W. Pierce, H. E. Hess, Lafe Compton, L. H. Hazard, George Chaney, W. V. Glaisyer, F. L. Greenough and Mrs. Edward W. Lorenz.

Today Mrs. Hal W. Pierce entertained the ladies of the Just-a-more club for one o'clock luncheon and sewing, which will be the diversion of the afternoon. Covers were laid for Mesdames L. H. Hazard, Nels Omsundson, H. A. Young, J. A. Lamb, M. O. Hawkins, F. L. Greenough, W. S. Sickels, R. A. Wernich, Lyman Carrier, Bert Folsom, J. L. Smith, C. J. Fuhrman, A. J. Sherwood and O. C. The Monday evening bridge club enjoyed dinner dessert at the home of Mrs. J. L. Aasen this week. Bridge was played afterwards with the following present: Mesdames H. S. Norton, James Brady, H. C. Getz, H. W. Pierce, M. J. Hartson, W. V. Glaisyer and E. M. Kay.

Yesterday afternoon the Needle Workers club met with Mrs. Ed Detlefsen at her home on the Fish-trap road. After enjoying the afternoon sewing refreshments were served to Mesdames W. D. Simmons, E. C. Yarbrough, Frank Pook, Ralph S. Taylor, W. E. Cross, Ray Simpson, Josh Ruble, E. A. Wimer, Frank Schram, Lee Hand, Fred Hickok, Melvin Kern, Geo. Gilman and Swain Donsted, who was an additional guest for the afternoon.

Mrs. R. L. Stewart entertained with an evening bridge party Tuesday at which she included the wives of the employees and the girls of the Mountain States Power office. There were guests for three tables.

Considerable activity was shown Thursday, during the all-day session of the district convention of Federated Woman's Clubs of Coos county. The state president, Mrs. Lillian F. Bilyeu, of Portland, was present and gave interesting talks at all the various gatherings. The day was opened with a nine o'clock breakfast at the North Bend hotel. Later many ladies from the Bay side motored over here and enjoyed luncheon at the Coquille Hotel with Coquille and Bandon club ladies, about sixty being present. At two o'clock they left for Myrtle Point where the afternoon business session was held and a very delightful program was presented by the various clubs.

All members of the "Strictly Fems" were complimented with a seven o'clock dinner by Miss Jean Young at her home on Beach street. The centerpiece of the dinner table was made up of beautiful pink tulips and stock of the same color. Bridge was played during the evening with Mrs. Beryl Wilson winning the high score prize. Present were Misses Kathleen McClintock, Beatrice Morris, Fredah Baxter, Avis Hartson, Marietta Hufford, Harriet Gould and Mrs. Beryl Wilson.

Enjoy Party in Church Parlors

The King's Daughters class of the Church of Christ enjoyed a party on Friday evening, April 15th, at the church parlors. Games of miniature horseshoe and table tennis were played during the evening. ### Probate Court Items

April 20—J. C. Queen, of Marshfield, was on Wednesday appointed administrator of the $600 estate left by his late wife, Lucille M. Queen, who died at the Bay, March 28. The appraisers are Wallace E. Brainard, Clarence Landes and John Walsh.

Brewster Valley

Those students who made the honor roll the past six weeks were: first grade, Evelyn Crowley, Edna Parks, Betty Jean Nickason; second grade, Elsie Mae Crowley, Charles Wilson, Harry Crowley, Jack Mayse; fourth grade, Ervin Laird, Jasper Yarbrough; fifth grade, Ivan Crowley, Velma Krewson; eighth grade, Forrest Krewson, Doris Prohaska, Philip Laird. Mrs. Thelma Ambrose and children, Charles and Delores and Mr. George Berry visited from Thursday until Sunday with Mrs. Ambrose's uncle, Ernest Krewson.

Mr. and Mrs. Pointer and Eula Doak, of Coquille, were visitors at the home of Mrs. Pointer's sister, Mrs. Jake Bohlander, over the week end.

J. D. Laird spent several days of last week visiting with his son, Binger, and family, of Roseburg.

The regular meeting of the Brewster Valley ladies club met at the home of Mrs. Polly Nickason. The afternoon was spent in sewing and the topic of discussion was flowers and their care. Later a delightful lunch of angel and sponge cakes, fruit salad and coffee and chocolate was served the following: Mesdames Daisy Laird, Mary Laird, Zilphia Krewson, Belle Laird, Stella Crowley, Laura Crowley, Stella Laird, P. A. Alford, Elmer Wilson, Effie Wilson, Blanche Prohaska, Annis Anderson and Miss Florence Mead and the two hostesses, Polly Nickason and Carrie Nickason.

L. P. Linn and Clarence L. Church, teachers of the Myrtle Point high school, were visitors at the Perley Crowley home Friday. They returned again Sunday and took part in a fishing trip.

Perley Crowley made a trip to Langlole Thursday where he transacted business. On his return he stopped in Coquille where he visited with his son, Edwin, who is recovering from an operation at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Phoebe Harry. Jim Bailey, Al Sablock and Leonard McGarvey, the Copco men, were in the valley this week tending to the telephonic poles and other property belonging to them.

Miss Wanda Houdyshell, of Coquille, who teaches in Gravel Ford, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her friend, Miss Genevieve Crowley, returning to her school Monday.

Mrs. Walter Laird is visiting several days of this week with her daughter, Mrs. Bonnie Dutton, of Coquille, who is recovering from the flu.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Benham were in Myrtle Point and Coquille Thursday on a shopping tour.

Mrs. Elmer Wilson and son, Burton, and Miss Florence Mead were visitors at the home of Miss Mead's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Mead, of Gravel Ford, Wednesday.

Carl Laird took his aunt, Mrs. Annis Anderson, to Myrtle Point, where she remained with relatives over night and caught the stage for her home at Merrill, Oregon, Monday.

Labor organizations in Oregon have unanimously endorsed the renomination and reelection of Senator Frederick Steiwer. They say the senator has worked in close affiliation with labor leaders on legislation affecting workmen. The senator got close to their hearts when he supported and was instrumental in passing the anti-injunction law.

Juniors Win Interclass Meet

The Junior Class of Coquille High won the interclass track meet held last Thursday and Friday by totaling 66 points, which more than doubled the mark of their closest competitor, the Seniors, who scored 32. The Sophomores won 11 points, and the Freshmen, four.

In winning the meet the Juniors were victors in nine events: the mile, pole vault, javelin, 440, half mile, discus, high jump, broad jump, and the relay. Of these first places, Harry Helmkin carried off the honors in five of them, which along with his other points, made him high point man of the meet, with 31.

This year Coach Hartley is starting the novel idea of keeping interclass records. These will be tabulated from season to season. Every winner this spring is a record holder.

Knife Hospital Notes

Ralph Shelley, operated on at the hospital last Friday morning, was taken to his home the next day where his mother, Mrs. Marc Shelley, could take care of him.

Other dismissals were Miss Gertrude Roberts, and Miss Ellen Matson, of Myrtle Point, on Monday, and Jeanette Zwicker, on Tuesday. Mrs. Chas. Yarbrough underwent a major operation at the hospital last Saturday.

Justice Court blanks for sale at this office.

State Organization of Moose

To be Watkins, secretary-treasurer of the Oregon State Moose Association, was a recent visitor with the Ko-Keel Lodge of Moose, the purpose of his visit being to explain plans for the Moose convention to be held at Eugene during the Sunset Trail Pageant, July 22nd and 23rd.

Mr. Watkins informed the members of Coquille lodge that Senator James J. Davis, director general dictator and organizer of the Loyal Order of Moose, would be one of the supreme officers present at the convention.

Besides Senator Davis, Supreme Secretary Malcolm R. Giles and possibly Grand Herder J. Albert Cassey of the Second Degree are expected to attend the convention.

The Eugene Moose Lodge is working on an excellent program, which will include a performance of the "49" Show as put on by members of the Eugene lodge in several Oregon cities last year. Five drill teams from the men's lodges and five or six from the women's chapters are expected to enter the drill contest for valuable trophies.

ter the drill contest for valuable trophies.

About 2,000 members of the Oregon Moose lodges are expected to attend the convention and Coquille expects to send a large delegation. J. T. Morris, of Coquille, is a member of the Resolutions Committee, and with J. D. Avery and E. L. Schroeder, helped organize the Oregon State Moose association.

Honor Roll at C. H. S.

The fifth grading period finds fewer students listed on the honor roll than any other period during the school year. The teachers must be demanding a better quality of work or spring must be here. Ten boys and sixteen girls are listed: three boys and four girls represent the freshman class; three boys and five girls lead the sophomore class; three boys and two girls bring honor to the junior class; and one boy and four girls uphold the honors for the senior class. For the post graduates, Gertrude Mehl is the lone representative.

Highest Honors (all 1's)—Frederick Fuhrman, Donald Farr, Kathleen Collier, Edythe Farr.

Honors (no grade below a 2)—Howard Bonnicksen, Jim Robinson, Delos Shinn, Marianne Axtell, Betty Brady, Bertha Clinton, Gail Hufford.

New Arrivals at County Jail

Charlie Swanson was bound over to the grand jury at Marshfield last Saturday. He was drunk, creating a disturbance and resisting arrest.

Frank and Glen Curtis began serving a 30-day sentence, Monday, for petit larceny at Marshfield.

Everet Calhoun, arrested at Powers on a rape charge, was booked at the sheriff's office on an old commitment, for driving a car without a license. During the absence of members of the sheriff's force from the office a relative came in and paid his fine of $15.65, and he was released.

He left with his mother in her car at once but the office here got in touch with the Douglas county sheriff and Calhoun was again arrested, at the junction, and was brought back here.

The mother of the 15-year old girl with whom Calhoun got in trouble at Powers, was arrested on a contributing to the delinquency of a minor charge. Her name is Alvina Tuardas. The girl is in the custody of the juvenile court.
