McKinley Notes

Miss Verna Finley, who teaches at McKinley, and Mrs. Lyman King, the Garden Club leader, attended the meeting held in Coquille by George Jenkins, county agent, for the 4-H club leaders. The club members of this school have all completed their winter projects and are waiting for their achievement pins. The boys who belong to the 4-H club are Robert McDowell, Delbert King, Arden Maiden, Ivan Mast and Rolf Holmstrom. The girls are Anna Holmstrom, Elinor Maiden, Velva King, Lois Conlee, Norma Conlee and Ardyce Mast. Some of the youngest girls are under the regular age to be members but were very interested in the work, however.

Mrs. Theo Loshbaugh who was a recent patient at the Knife hospital, is now visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. W. Brown. Ollie Ellen, the youngest daughter, is also here from Bandon where she had attended school until graduating in mid-term.

Mrs. A. L. Brown, who made an extended visit among relatives in Camas Valley, is home and feeling much better than she did. She reports the sick folks there improved.

Rex Brown returned from a business trip to Wenatchee, Washington. McKinley Grange will hold their

Mr. and Mrs. C. O. King have a new radio and are experiencing all the thrills which come from "fishing" for new stations and learning the dial.

The school board of District No. 27 held a business meeting Friday night to attend to business and discuss the school outlook for the coming school year which begins in June after the annual meeting and election. It seems probable that this district will have to fall in line and shave expenses wherever practical. This district has not had to issue warrants so far to pay for current expenses but that is not saying it won't have to regular meeting at the McKinley hall this coming Saturday evening.

The lecturer's hour will be first on account of the small children having a Maypole dance and other features on the program. Mr. Cuning, of the Smith-Hughes department of Coquille high school, and his boys are invited to be present and other visitors from Coquille are expected.

Mr. and Mrs. Nevy Heller have returned to McKinley after a year or more absence. Nevy came back with three less toes than he left with. It seems he lost them in some logging accident.

The baseball team is surely getting tired of this rainy weather which prevents any real practice more than a little work out between showers.

Bridge Happenings

Over 40 members and friends of the Christian Endeavor society met Friday evening at the church to enjoy a social evening. An informal program was given, after which refreshments were served, and the social closed with a song and the Mispah benediction.

Harry Brownson, Mrs. M. Brownson, Mrs. Carrie Benham and Mrs. Hiram Hatcher were business visitors in Coquille Saturday. They also visited for a while at the C. W. Hill home.

There was an attendance of 55 at Sunday school Sunday. The church was prettily decorated with dogwood blossoms. The pulpit will be filled next Sunday by Wm. Barnett, of Arago.

Miss Dorothy Hooton is spending a few days in Eugene this week on a business and pleasure trip.

Mrs. Carrie Benham, Ray Benham and Frank Stock left Tuesday morning for New Pine creek where they will visit at the Stephen Benham home.

Members of the Octave club and several invited guests enjoyed a delicious chicken dinner Saturday evening in the dining room of the school building.

The Dwight Culver family and Mrs. Lucy Culver were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Barnett at Arago.

The Grange members are looking forward to a pleasant time Friday evening, when they will meet for their social evening. There will be the usual pot-luck dinner, followed by a "radio" program. Some visitors from Myrtle Grange are expected.

Mrs. Albert Reed entertained some friends from Powers Sunday. Mrs. Reed was the school nurse at Powers for about two years before her marriage.

School will close May 13. The commencement exercises will be held on May 12th.

Grover Wilson, who recently suffered a stroke of paralysis, has improved but little. Two of his sisters from Hood River arrived Sunday morning for a short visit with him.

A May Day program, including some pretty May Pole dances, is being arranged by the school for next Friday. The prizes will be awarded at that time, also, to the winners in the essay contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Davenport and little daughter, Delores, of Twin Oaks, were dinner guests Sunday at "Peac-out Cabin," the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Frank Porter on Myrtle Creek. Mrs. Davenport and Mrs. Porter are sisters.

Mrs. Walter L. Stine, of Burbank, California, who is spending a vacation with relatives in Coquille, visited Monday afternoon with Miss Lou Hooton. She was accompanied by her little son, Jack, and Mrs. Grace Stine.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen, of Camas Valley, who will be the high school teachers here next winter, were Bridge visitors Saturday.

Cash Prizes for Essays

The Highway Protective Association is offering cash prizes amounting to $50.00 ($25.00 first, $15.00 second and $10.00 third) for the best papers (not over 500 words), submitted by high school students of this state, covering the following subject: "How, and why, should the state better regulate the use of commercial trucks, and busses on our public highways?"

Competing students should hand their papers to their principal, who is asked to select and forward the best (not more than three) to the Association on or before May 31, 1932.

All papers so received will be promptly judged by the officers of the association, and the cash prizes forwarded to the winners.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness during the illness of Mrs. Mary Cordelia Porter, and for the floral offerings at the funeral, Sunday. They have our heartfelt appreciation.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Porter and family. Mrs. Hattie Cornwell.

Sunday School attendance Sunday was 38, with all officers and teachers present, except Robert Mills and Mrs. Zilphia Krewen. Mrs. Polly Nickason, Mrs. Daley Laird, Mrs. Flossie Wilson and Miss Florence Mead sang a special, "Sweeter as the Days Go By."

Walter Laird was in Myrtle Point and Coquille visiting among friends and relatives Wednesday.

Wm. Bettys, of Coquille, spent several days of last week in the valley on a fishing trip. He stayed at the J. D. Laird home.

Miss Christine Christensen entertained a number of the young folks at her home Sunday evening. Those present were: Miss Hazel Durrell, Clarence Nylander, Doris Prohaska, James Crowley, Christina Christensen, Dewane Shoemaker, Hazel and Kenneth Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prohaska and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Christensen. The evening was spent in dancing and playing cards, after which refreshments were served.

Mrs. Stella Laird has been confined to her bed several days of this week with a severe attack of asthma.

Lester Durrell has been absent from school three days of this week as a result of having a horse step on him.

Mrs. Ted Parks, who has been suffering from an attack of erysipelas, is recovering nicely at her home here. Oscar Durrell has installed a new milking machine.

Mr. and Mrs. Perley Crowley, Harry and Genevieve, visited with Edwin Crowley in Coquille, who is recovering from an operation. Miss Genevieve remained in Coquille with Miss Wanda Houdyshell and returned to her school here Monday morning.

Mrs. Walter Laird, who has been staying in Coquille with her daughter, Mrs. Bonnie Dutton, returned to her home Saturday. She has been in Coquille caring for Mrs. Dutton, who has had the flu.

Mrs. Max Wane and son, Dewane Shoemaker, formerly of Roseburg, have moved their household goods and are now living on their homestead here.

Miss Eloise Crowley went to Corvallis Friday to participate in the state typing contest. She won first place in the amateur division, with a rate of 75.0. She was six points ahead of her nearest competitor. She was awarded the gold medal.

Mrs. Dorothy Mayne, who has been visiting friends and relatives in both Marshfield and Coquille, returned to her home here Wednesday.
