Live News From Arago

Mrs. John Myers has returned home from Port Orford for a short visit with home folks. Mrs. Myers has been cooking in the hotel there the past winter.

Mrs. B. B. Watkins spent last week visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George Murphy, of Coquille.

Henry Deisman, of Portland, returned home the last of the week, having spent a week here visiting his brother, Joe Delaman.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Miller and little daughters, Coleen and Vanita Maxine, of Portland, arrived here Tuesday evening. Mr. Miller left Wednesday morning for Klamath Falls to do some government work. Mrs. Miller and the children are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Vetter, until his return.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ellingsen and Mrs. Jennie Price, of Coquille, were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Lafferty on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Sovy and granddaughters, Kathryn and Alice Jean, and Miss Nellie Paull, of Langlois, were Arago visitors Saturday. Miss Paull remained over the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leon Paull.

The Ladies Aid will meet Wednesday afternoon for a business meeting.

H. G. Atchley, of the Anti Cigarette league, will speak at the Arago community church on Sunday evening during the Christian Endeavor hour. He also has some very interesting slide pictures. The entire public is urged to attend.

Wallace Carl returned to school Monday morning after a month's absence owing to a serious appendicitis operation.

Lawrence Barklow, Wayne Woodward and E. J. Myers made a business trip to Gardiner Monday.

The 4-H sewing club division 1 and 2 enjoyed a picnic together Saturday on the Ernest Watkins place on Halls creek. The day was spent playing games and exploring the woods which are very beautiful there at this time of the year. Mrs. Ruth Shaw is their leader.

Parm Patrick is confined at home this week suffering with a severe attack of the influenza.

Ray Cornwell had the misfortune to break his arm Sunday when a board gave way on the walk which is about twenty feet high and let him down into the spring which is four feet deep. He was very fortunate in receiving only one broken bone and is getting along as well as could be expected. However, he will not be able to compete in the county tournament which will take place at Myrtle Point Saturday, May 14. He has been training for the mile race for the past month.

LaVaun Aasen gave a very interesting report of her trip to the Christian Endeavor convention at Portland last week. She stated that the most impressive part was the parade of Endeavorers which was eight blocks in length.

The Ernest Watkins home narrowly escaped fire Thursday afternoon. On hearing a strange noise Mr. Watkins went outside and found the roof of the house ablaze. He climbed to the roof with a bucket of water and soon had it extinguished. This is the third fire of this nature they have experienced this winter.

The Senior play, "Betty, the Girl of My Heart," which was put on at the gymnasium Friday evening was a huge success. Laura Milani, as Betty, a sweet girl of seventeen, played her part exceedingly well and Ray Barklow, as Carmichael, an up-to-date young man and a gentleman, was splendid as Ray always is. LaVaun Aasen, as Mrs. Jenkins, the housekeeper, a sedate woman of 45, played her part well. Leona Paull played the part of maid, a pert young lady, as only Leona could play it. Rural Griffin, as the rheumatic butler of 50 years, was a scream from start to finish. Ruth Keltner played her usual role of a middle-aged woman of 45, a haughty and fashionable lady, with Lois Schroeder as her daughter, and just a younger edition of her mother. Both did exceedingly well. Walter Moore, as a middle-aged business man, was well suited to his part. The play was directed by Prof. Ayers. The splendid musical numbers between the acts was enjoyed by every one. Ernest Ferrari rendered two beautiful selections on his accordion. Mr. Glenn Neideigh, of Myrtle Point, played two violin selections, accompanied by Mrs. Neideigh. The seventh and eighth grade sextette sang two songs and Rev. E. G. Ranton, of Myrtle Point, played two violin selections, accompanied by Mrs. O. H. Clarke.

Nile Miller had the misfortune to wreck his Chevrolet sedan Tuesday morning, while driving out to the road from the house. On turning to look at a horse in the field the car slipped over the bank and landed upside down in the creek. Mr. Miller had his foot caught and had some trouble extracting himself from the car. While trying to get his foot loose his head would go under the water. His son, Orvus, hearing the crash, went to his rescue. A wrecker was called from Myrtle Point and they soon had the car out with only a damaged top to show for the accident. Mr. Miller was uninjured.

The regular school meeting was held Monday evening and teachers were hired for the following year. Owing to the reduction of teachers' wages and the elimination of one teacher, the school tax will be 40 per cent less next year in the Arago district.

Mr. and Mrs. N. G. W. Perkins left the last of the week for Canby, Oregon, where they will visit their son, N. W. Perkins and family.

Miss Eloise Crowley won the gold medal at the state typing contest at Corvallis last week. Miss Crowley is the youngest member in this year's graduating class and stands second in scholarship.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bennett, Mrs. J. V. Leep, Mrs. Mary Bennett, W. H. Bunch, Minnie Bunch, Mrs. L. L. Sumerlin and two children and Mrs. Lily Fish attended a birthday dinner given for C. H. Bunch, at the Levi Bunch home on Rink Creek Wednesday.

McKinley Notes

Uncle "Lark" Mast was taken back to the Knife Hospital in Coquille for further treatment the first of the week. He has not been as well as usual for several days and the doctor thought he could help him more at the hospital. His son, Lee, took him in.

Mrs. Theo Loshbaugh and daughter, Ollie Eileen, accompanied Mr. Loshbaugh back to Glendale when he went back home a few days ago. Mrs. Loshbaugh had not entirely recovered from her recent serious illness.

McKinley Grange had their regular meeting at the community hall Saturday night with a large number of visitors present to witness the children's May pole dance which was at the beginning of the meeting. The program was listed as follows, although several other numbers were given: Reading, "Queen of the May," by Alice Mast; "Spring Song," Mrs. W. R. Mast; May pole dance by all the younger pupils in McKinley school; song, "Land of the Empire Builders," in honor of Oregon Day; reading, "The Old Oregon Trail," Anna Holmstrom; "O! Unc' Remus Tales," Vern Hansen as old negro man. The latter part of the program was in honor of Mother's Day; reading, "When Mamma Was a Little Girl," Lorna Harris; "Little Mother," song by Jessie Lawhorn; demonstration by 4-H boys, Delbert King and Bert McDowell; short talk by County Agent Jenkins. A delicious supper of jello salad and whipped cream and angel cake and coffee was served. The hall was tastefully decorated. One of the numbers which seemed to be particularly enjoyed was a tableau "Real Folks," and reading by Miss Verna Finley.

Miss Connie Felsher, of Myrtle Point, was a week-end guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. R. Mast, who had as Sunday dinner guests, Mr. and Mrs. Allie Bartlett and sons, Philip and Jean, of Myrtle Point. Also Mrs. Jean Smith and small son, Dwight, of Bridge, were guests at the Mast home since last Friday.

The rainfall for April was 5.55 inches. The mean temperature, 49.6. Total rainfall since September 1st, 69.75 inches.

Mrs. Holmstrom has been enjoying a visit from her brother, Seth Johnson, and his daughter, Emma, of North Bend.

V. R. Wilson, Optometrist. Eyes examined. Glasses fitted. Broken lenses duplicated. Grimes Building, Coquille, Ore. 11f
