Bridge Happenings

Mrs. Oliver F. Clarke left Sunday for Willamina, to visit for about two weeks with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. G. Drake.

The Parent-Teacher association will meet this month on Tuesday evening, May 10. New officers will be installed and a social hour will follow the program.

The Bridge Grange had a social meeting Friday evening with a number of guests present. A pot luck dinner was served in the new basement kitchen of the Grange hall and following this a "radio" program was presented. A novel "radio" had been fixed up with a battered tin horn for a loud speaker and a fishing reel for a dial. Most of the numbers were broadcasted over this radio, the performers being out of sight. Those taking part in the program were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Ray, Tom Summerlin, Wm. H. Fearnley and Miss Frances Fearnley, of Myrtle Grange; Lonella Curtis, Mrs. Harold James, Alma Larkins, Mrs. Vern Magill, Charles Johnson, W. A. Lett, Chas. F. Gilroy and Frank Culver.

Dorothy Hooton returned to work at the Mast Hospital Sunday evening, after two months' vacation.

The May Day Fete at the school grounds Friday afternoon was well attended by patrons and friends of the schools. It was a delightful program, consisting of songs and dances of many lands, by pupils in costume. Wilda Peterson was the May Queen and was crowned with the usual ceremonies. May pole dances were followed by recitation by the first and second graders. The remainder of the afternoon was given over to athletic events.

Miss Laurene Gettman and Orin Lett were honored Sunday with a lovely birthday dinner at the W. A. Lett home. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson and children, Charles, Virginia Lea, and Burton, and Miss Florence Mead, of Bitkum; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Reed and little son, Gerald, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Barnett, of Arago; Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Hooton and daughters, Lou, Maude and Dorothy; Winnifred Clayton, Constance Knight, Elise Lamp, Alma Larkins, Tommy Lettrel, Glenn Hutton, Clarence Clayton, Mr. and Mrs. Lett and the honored guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Wantland and little son, Earl, left Tuesday morning for Washington where they plan to make their home.

The Sunday School attendance numbered 64 Sunday. The pulpit was filled by J. W. Barnett, who spoke on "The Two Covenants." A Mother's Day program will be presented at ten o'clock next Sunday morning, after which there will be a sermon by Jesse Barnett.

Mrs. Albert Reed and little son, Gerald, have moved to Reedsport where Mr. Reed has been employed for several weeks at Dunham's store. Mr. Reed was over here Sunday and they returned with him in the evening.

Miss Maude Hooton visited Pearl Roselle at Broadbent Tuesday night and went from there to Coquille Wednesday morning to spend a couple of days.

There will be a lecture by Mr. Atchley at the church here on Wednesday evening, May 11, at 8 o'clock. A free-will offerings will be taken.

Brewster Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Anderson and Lark Maet were visitors in the valley Tuesday. They spent the day visiting among friends and relatives. They took dinner at the home of Mrs. Zilphia Krewson.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Durrell and children, Hazel and Lester, were in Coquille on business Wednesday.

Brant Taylor, the road patrolman, has had a crew of men at work at the rock crusher this week getting it ready to begin work there soon.

David and Perley Crowley and Lester Mayse are helping build a house for Mrs. Max Harvey, the new homesteader. Albert Christensen is helping with the lumber.

The regular meeting of the ladies' club met at the home of Zilphia Krewson Thursday afternoon. The time was spent in a business meeting, after which a delicious lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Laur Crowley and Mrs. Krewson.

The object to be present were three visitors, Mrs. Ethel Abernathy, Mrs. Phoebe Harry and Miss Florence Mead, and members, Mesdames Daisy Laird, Belle Laird, Mildred Benham, Carrie Nickason, Polly Nickason, Floesie Wilson, Stella Crowley, Stella Laird, Mary Laird, Marion Jones, Nellie Taylor, Hilda Durrell, Blanche Prohaska.

Julius Benham has had a small crew at work this week on the telephone lines, changing the poles to enable the ditcher to be used.

Mrs. Louis Laird, who has been suffering from an attack of asthma, is now feeling much better.

Mr. and Mrs. David Crowley and family and Mrs. Zilphia Krewson and Glade and Donna Jane, went to Port Orford and Gold Beach last Friday, returning Saturday.

Miss Genevieve Crowley, accompanied by Miss Wanda Houdyshell, spent the week-end visiting at Bandon with

SOCIAL NOTES

Tuesday, May 10th, the annual luncheon of the Coquille Woman's Club will be held at the Coquille Hotel at one o'clock. This affair is given for the pleasure of the outgoing and incoming officers of the club. Mr. H. A. Slack is going to give a talk on "Wills." Mr. J. E. Norton will talk on "General Business Practice." There will be piano and vocal solos by Miss Inez Rover and Dr. J. J. Leslie.

A delightful day was spent on Tuesday at the J. A. Lamb cottage at Bandon Beach by members of the Just-a-mere club. At the gathering half of the members entertained at luncheon the other members and in two weeks the club ladies will again enjoy such an affair at the home of Mrs. R. A. Wernich. Motoring down were Mesdames W. S. Sickels, R. A. Wernich, H. A. Young, Lyman Carrier, L. H. Hazard, J. A. Lamb, Paul Van Scoy, H. W. Pierce, J. L. Smith, C. J. Fuhrman, Bert Folsom, O. C. Sanford and F. L. Greenough.

Mrs. H. S. Norton entertained Tuesday at her home with a luncheon and Bridge party for the pleasure of her mother, Mrs. Jennie Price, who was observing a birthday. The guests surprised Mrs. Price by having a handkerchief shower for her that day. The luncheon table was very dainty and attractively decorated with pink weigelia and columbine, along with pink tapers. Places for twelve were provided. Prizes for bridge were won by Mrs. W. A. Zosel and Mrs. J. L. Aasen.

Monday evening Mrs. James Brady entertained her evening Bridge club at her home on East First street. Mrs. F. C. McNelly, Mrs. T. B. Currie and Mrs. Ed McKeown filled places for absent members. That evening Mrs. E. M. Kay won the high score prize. Members present were Mesdames M. J. Hartson, H. S. Norton, J. L. Aasen, E. M. Kay and Wm. Zosel.

This week a number of the different societies of Coquille high school have been enjoying picnics at Bandon beach. On Tuesday the Honor Society motored down where they enjoyed a picnic supper in the J. E. Paulson cabin. For Saturday evening of this week the debating society is planning a picnic supper to be held in the Geo. A. Ulett cabin. A number of the teachers have chaperoned these affairs.

Wednesday the Woman's Guild of the St. James Episcopal Church met at the Parish house with Mrs. H. E. Hess and Mrs. C. D. Walker as hostesses. The monthly business meeting was conducted on that date. Attending were Mesdames Bert Folsom, George Lorenz, Muri Pettit, T. B. Currie, L. H. Hazard, Edward Lorenz, Jas. Watson, B. Hodson, Annie J. Robinson, J. S. Barton and Miss Eleanor Folsom.

Mrs. Keith Leslie entertained at luncheon the members of the Study club at her home on East Second street. Attending were Mesdames C. D. Walker, George W. Taylor, Jr., C. A. Rietman, George Chaney, J. Arthur Berg, C. W. Kline and R. A. Jeub.

Miss Wanda's sister, Mrs. Floyd Peterson.

Mrs. Yarbrough returned to her home at Marshfield Saturday.

Mrs. Myrtle Noah and son, Ralph, were visiting Sunday at the Crowley home. While there they enjoyed a fishing trip.

Mrs. Mary Laird gave the eighth grade a dinner. In the afternoon they were instructed how to make reed baskets. Dinner was served at 5:30 p. m. and everyone did justice to a delicious chicken dinner. Those present were: Forrest and Eloda Krewson, Doris Prohaska, Philip Laird, Christina Christensen, Ruby Parks, Paul Laird, Myrtle Christensen, Iris Laird, Florence Mead and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Laird. Later in the evening Clarence Nylander, Eloise Crowley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prohaska, Carl Laird and Dewane Shoemaker came in as a surprise to the others. The evening was spent in playing games and enjoying music.

Charles Wilson was absent from school three days this week on account of an infected eye.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wilson and children, Charles, Virginia and Burton, and Miss Florence Mead were Sunday visitors at the home of Mrs. Wilson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lett, at Bridge.

News Notes From Powers

The Thursday Bridge club met at the home of Mrs. Clarence Moe Thursday. High score went to Mrs. Dode Watson and low to Mrs. Fred Stock. Mrs. Moe served a lovely lunch of cake, ice cream and coffee. Three tables were in play during the afternoon.

Skip day was observed Thursday at the local high school, with students scattered from Winchester Bay on the north, to Johnson Mt. on the south.

Forest Service men are preparing now for fire season. They have only a small amount of money for maintenance work.
