What Voter Said About Clark

In its issue of April 20, 1929, referring to the recommendation by Senator McNary of Colonel Alfred E. Clark for the office of Solicitor-General of the United States, the "Oregon Voter" said, "A. E. Clark has the legal learning, the forensic ability and the dignity to represent the Attorney General of the United States in appearances before the Supreme Court. He would be a worthy success to distinguished predecessors if appointed Solicitor-General." Colonel Alfred E. Clark is now seeking the Republican nomination for United States senator. A vote for Colonel Clark is a vote for "Oregon and the Development of Its Natural Resources in the Interest of All Its People."—Pd. adv. —Clark for U. S. Senator committee, 820 Yeak Bldg., Portland, Ore.)
