WEEKLY PROGRAM

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MAY 26 - 27
"THE GAY CABELLERO"

SUNDAY, MONDAY AND TUESDAY, MAY 22, 23 24

"Murders in The Rue Morgue"

Edgar Allan Poe's story. Stark arms—dangling in the fireplace—a beautiful woman—dead. The body stuffed up the chimney—grimy soot and crimson stains ravaging the whiteness of the cold skin. Wreckage everywhere. Murder! Who was the slayer—who? No, not who, but what committed the crime? It's eerie, spine-chilling, unbelievable. Matinee Sunday 2:30 p. m.

WEDNESDAY AND THURSDAY, MAY 25 - 26

"After Tomorrow"

With Charles Farrell and Marian Nixon

Its Drama speaks to every Heart that has ever known Love. The sweetheart of the world will understand its poignant romance—a boy and girl bravely facing the tragedies and disappointments of today to reach tomorrow's love and happiness.

FRIDAY AND SATURDAY, MAY 27 - 28

"Dancers in The Dark"

With Miriam Hopkins and Jack Oakie

[You told me a lot of things about her but you didn't tell me everything. You said you knew a dozen guys—why didn't you mention yourself?]

Missionary Society Meets

A very helpful and profitable meeting of the Pioneer church missionary society was held at the home of Mrs. Lyman Carrier Thursday afternoon. The program opened with community singing, "What a Friend We Have in Jesus." For the devotional lesson, Mrs. Richmond talked on tithing, citing many verses of scripture pertaining to that subject. Mrs. P. D. Hartman offered prayer. The subject for the lesson was prohibition and Mrs. J. S. Howe read a paper giving the views of Jane Addams of Hull House, Chicago, on the subject and Mrs. Hartman told of the experiences of Commander Booth of the Salvation Army. Mrs. Rogers closed the lesson with prayer. After the lesson a group of young ladies entertained the society with a delightful musical program, as follows: Martha Carrier played two beautiful violin solos, Mrs. Carrier accompanying her; Elois Wilson sang sweetly, "Christ is King," Margaret Purance being her accompanist. Audrey Aasen gave two very fine piano numbers which were much enjoyed. It is gratifying that the young people are taking so much interest in the missionary work.

Tea was served by the hostesses, Mesdames Lee Neeley, W. A. Ireland, Julius Ruble and Chas. Oarding, to the following: Mesdames Frank Leslie, C. T. Skeels, Geo. Wilkins, M. W. Way, B. C. Minard, P. D. Hartman, J. W. McGuffin, Drew, T. Adams, J. S. Houck, Henry Belloni, R. E. Boober, Leland Petersen, Clyde Minard, R. B. Rogers, Ernest Purvance, W. J. Glaisyer, J. L. Aasen, Jaa. Richmond, and Misses Ula Minard, Elois Wilson, Audrey Aasen, Margaret Purvance, Martha Carrier and the hostess, Mrs. Carrier.

R. N. A. County Convention

The Coos County Royal Neighbors held their annual convention at Myrtle Point, Monday, May 16, opening at seven a. m. for registration and social hour. At 1:00 the officers were seated. Mrs. Laura Schroeder, Oracle of the Myrtle Point lodge, gave the address of welcome, which was responded to by Mrs. H. Hansen, county deputy, of Marshfield. The Powers lodge was in charge of welcoming transfer members, with the password drill following. A banquet was held at the Methodist Church, followed by the evening meeting at 8:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Ida Hamblen, of Portland, state supervisor for Oregon and Idaho, was speaker at the evening meeting. Representatives were present from Powers, Coquille, North Bend, Marshfield and two members from South Dakota. Those present from Coquille were Mesdames Ethel Leach, Letha Hurrell, Katie Peart, Agnes Schroeder, Mae Ensel, Abbie Page, Madilina Bennett, Jane Burch, Mattie McGuffin, and Mrs. Stankavitch.

B. P. W. Give Mother's Banquet Monday Evening

Last Monday night the members of the Business and Professional Women's Club entertained the mothers, either their own or a "borrowed" mother, at a dinner served in the Pioneer Hall.

Each year in May, the members honor the mothers in this way and this year's event, was declared by many, to be the most successful one thus far held.

The tables were decorated very beautifully, with delicate mixed bouquets and favors for the mothers were colonial dolls.

The stage was arranged in an old-fashioned setting to represent an old-fashioned garden.

Mrs. Bertha J. Smith, president of the club, was chairman of arrangements and was assisted by Mrs. Belle Gould and Mrs. Leona Bryant and other members.

The dinner was preceded by group singing and the reading of the club collect.

Mrs. L. L. Coleman presented a group of her smallest pupils in a rhythm band number, followed by a novelty number, which was very clever. These numbers reflected a great deal of credit on Mrs. Coleman's teaching, as the little tots played in perfect rhythm and all were of kindergarten age.

Mrs. Belle Gould delivered the address of welcome in a very pleasing manner and Mrs. Leona Bryant sang two solos, "That Wonderful Mother of Mine," and "Tumble Down Shack of Athlone."

The closing number was a beautiful dramatization of "Love's Old Sweet Song." The solo part was sung by Miss Naomi Cobb, accompanied by Mrs. Coleman, while the song was enacted by Miss Laura McLeod, as an old-fashioned girl, and by Miss Katherine Jane Haesler, as an old-fashioned lover. The number was closed with a minut by the two girls, which was very gracefully executed.

After the program a short business session was held, at which the club voted to help pay the expenses of the delegates attending the state convention in Klamath Falls, this week-end.

Plans were also made for the entertainment of Miss Martha Gasch, state president, and Miss Emily Kneubuhl, national executive secretary, at a luncheon in the Coquille Hotel, next Tuesday, May 24th. The members are also planning to go to Marshfield in the evening of the same day, and become guests of the Coos Bay club at a dinner held in the club's room, at which the state president and national officer will be honored guests.

V. R. Wilson, Optometrist. Eyes examined. Glasses fitted. Broken lenses duplicated. Grimes Building, Coquille, Ore.
