The bitter and the sweet of life unfolded before you as a miraculous melody of the actor's art—warming the very fibres of your life with the benediction of its power, its glory, and its majesty. "The Miracle Man"—the miracle film—to be shown at the Liberty Theatre starting Sunday.

In the sordid life they led, she was his girl. But that is all past now. She's felt the spell of "The Miracle Man"—and no man of her past life can shake her from the new... unless he, too, shall acknowledge the Truth, the Light, the Glory of Faith!

Rebekahs Elect Officers

The following are the officers elected by Mamie Rebekah lodge for the new term, beginning July 1st:

N. G.—Ida Oerding.
V. G.—Myrtle Noah.
Sec.—Myrtle Benham.
Treas.—Fannie Stevens.

Everlyn Oerding and Harriet Schaefer gave excellent reports on the Grand Lodge, held at Eugene last month.

The Rebekah district convention will be held in Marshfield June 22.

The Mamie Rebekah lodge has been asked to give the memorial service at this convention, to exemplify receiving and issuing cards and receiving members by transfer, to install the new officers, also to give a reading on the duty of officers and members.

The following members were appointed on transportation to arrange means of conveyance to the convention for members taking part in the exercise: Amy Aasen, Belle Kay and Ruth Beyers.

B. & P. W. Club Notes

At the regular meeting of the club held Monday night in their club rooms, Mrs. Leona Bryant gave a very thorough and interesting report on the state convention she attended in Klamath Falls in May, Coquille being the only club asking for the 1933 state convention.

It was decided to give up the club rooms for the next few months and probably have picnic meetings or meet at the different homes during the summer months.

The club will hold a picnic at Bandon on June 29th at the Richmond cabin and all members are urged to attend and bring their husbands or friends. Transportation arrangements are in charge of Mrs. Jennie Price and Mrs. Georgia Richmond will notify each member what eats they are to take.

Coquille Grange Meeting

Coquille Grange No. 306 met June 2nd with a good attendance of members. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hartwell, of Riverton, and Mrs. George, of Rink Creek, received the obligation and were welcomed to membership.

W. M. Cuning, Smith-Hughes instructor, extended an invitation to the Grange to join in the tour and attend the picnic, which the Smith-Hughes department is planning for June 26th.

It was voted to discontinue one of the monthly meetings for the summer, until October first, the one meeting to be on the first Thursday of each month, beginning July 7th.

Coquille River

The following poem, which was written by the late Mrs. W. S. Smith, who passed away May 27, has not heretofore appeared in print:

Coquille River, "Silent Water!"
Flowing ever toward the sea—
Dimpling in the golden sunshine,
We would sing a song of thee!

Coquille River, "Silent Water!"
Oh, what thoughts you bring to me—
Thoughts of dusky men and maidens,
Moonlit nights and love songs free.

Coquille River, "Silent Water!"
There are teases by thy shore,
Men and maidens, little children,
Full a hundred souls and more.

There are songs and happy laughter,
There are campfires gay and bright.
By thy brink the Redmen's children
Play and shout in pure delight.
'Neath the trees that mark thy shoreline,

Warriors brave, and old men hoary,
Talk of all their deeds of valor.
Tell their tales of might and glory.
On thy bosom in the moonlight
Men make love to maidens shy,
Tell to them the sweet, old story,
'Love's old songs' that never die.

Coquille River, "Silent Water!"
Flowing ever toward the sea,
Oh, what changes time has brought us,
Ever brings to you and me!

Coquille River, "Silent Water!"
Bring to us thy lessons true—
Teach us to perform our mission
In a silent way as you.

And when changes come unto us,
Days seem very dark and drear,
May we, too, go on in silence,
Knowing that our God is near.

Mrs. W. S. Smith.

Circuit Court This Week

The jury which heard the case of the Macleay estate vs. the State of Oregon in Circuit court here last week brought in a verdict Friday afternoon for $8300. Suit was for $63,700. In arriving at their verdict the jurors figured on what it would cost the estate to bring their store buildings at Wedderburn up to the level of the bridge approach on the highway and added something more because of the saving the state made in using the huge rocks for foundation for the pier of the bridge.
