Bridge Happenings

The Home Economics club met on Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. Dwight Culver. The members present were Mrs. Harold James, Mrs. Frank Culver, Mrs. W. A. Lett, Mrs. Vern Magill, Mrs. Frank Herker and the hostess, with Mrs. A. O. Hooton as a guest. Sandwiches, fruit salad and punch were served at the close of the afternoon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Frank Herker.

Mrs. I. B. England, of Remote, was honored Monday evening with a birthday dinner at her home; her daughter, Vena Mae, planning the affair as a surprise. Those enjoying the happy occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brandon and their guest, Ethel Jacobson, of Eastside; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Holmes and daughter, Maxine; and Mr. and Mrs. I. B. England and daughters, Vena Mae and Doris.

The report showed an attendance of 60 at Sunday School Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Chester C. Farr and children, Edythe, Donald and Leonard, were among those present, having stopped over here for the service while enroute to Roseburg. The church service was conducted by J. A. Barnett, of Arago, who gave a helpful sermon. L. W. Flenner, of Broadbent will have charge of the service next Sunday.

Edward Morrison had his tonsils and adenoids removed last week at the Mast hospital in Myrtle Point.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Lett and Orin visited Sunday at the Elmer Wilson home at Sitkum. Chas. Wilson went home with them, after spending two weeks here at the Lett home.

Miss Vera Knight, of Myrtle Point, returned home Saturday after a short visit here at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Dwight Culver. She had recently returned from a visit with another aunt, Mrs. N. W. Perkins, at Canby.

Earl Hatfield, of Roseburg, is spending a few days at Bridge this week.

The Loyal Temperance Legion met Thursday afternoon with the following members present: Billy, Bernard and Mary Alice Corpe, Myrtle and Virginia Beckett, Evelyn Morrison, Constance Knight and Evelyn Kegg. Everett and Mary Louise Culver were visitors. A picnic was planned for the next meeting when the mothers will be entertained.

The Christian Endeavorers held an interesting "Sealed Order" meeting Sunday evening, with Miss Mae Hatcher as leader. There were 18 members present, each one taking part in the meeting. A solo by Mary Alice Corpe was much enjoyed. A business meeting of the society will be held next Sunday evening after the regular meeting.

Miss Maude Hooton has been employed at the Forrest L. Moon home in Myrtle Point since Sunday. Mrs. Moon, who has been critically ill following two major operations, was able to be moved Sunday from the Mast hospital to her home.

Miss Ionella Curtiss came home Monday afternoon from a delightful visit of over a week with Miss Lavaun Aasen at Hall's Creek. On Sunday they attended the Myrtle Union Christian Endeavor picnic and executive committee meeting at Bastendorff beach.

decreed dissolving the marriage and marriage contract now and heretofore existing between Plaintiff and Defendant, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem just and equitable.

The grounds upon which said relief is based in said Complaint is cruel and inhuman treatment.

This Summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the Coquille Valley Sentinel, pursuant to order of the Hon. J. T. Brand, Judge of the above entitled Court, made, dated and entered on the 6th day of July, 1932, and the date of the last publication thereof being Friday, the 5th day of August, 1932.
